IMPORTANT NOTICE

You need to read this document (“Saadiq Client Terms”).

It sets out the general terms and conditions of our personal and electronic banking relationship with you. These Saadiq Client Terms apply to each Saadiq product and all Saadiq services including the electronic banking services we agree to provide to you from time to time. They apply in addition to other documents including the applicable Saadiq product terms and the schedule of charges but they do not apply to any existing facility, Saadiq product or Saadiq service we provide to you to the extent that they are subject to separate terms and conditions.

Key words

The meaning of key words printed and other words used in our banking agreement (electronic or otherwise) is explained at the end of these Saadiq Client Terms and in the applicable Saadiq product terms.

How to contact us

To discuss any aspect of our relationship please contact us at one of our branches, by using phone banking (600 522 288) or by visiting our website www.sc.com/ae. Standard Chartered is committed to complying with economic sanctions that are imposed by relevant regulatory authorities. As such, we do not allow our Saadiq products and Saadiq services to be used directly or indirectly in countries that are subject to such sanctions. Please note that you will not be able to contact us via phone banking, facsimile transmission, or emails, or access our website, and we will not be able to provide you with financial services if you are in these countries.

Inherent risks

You acknowledge that there are inherent risks in conducting transactions over the internet or electronic networks and you have voluntarily assumed those risks.

PART A - OUR BANKING RELATIONSHIP

1. THE TERMS OF OUR RELATIONSHIP

- 1.1. We have a range of Saadiq products designed to suit your personal banking needs, some of which may be accessed through our electronic banking services. The specific features of our Saadiq products are available on request. Some Saadiq products may not be available to you depending on your location. Depending on your location, some Saadiq products may not be accessible through our electronic banking services. Your electronic access to such Saadiq products may be withdrawn, amended, terminated or suspended at any time without notice.
- 1.2. If you want to access or use a Saadiq product in any manner including electronically, you need to complete an application to ask us to approve your use of it. Different eligibility criteria may apply to different Saadiq products. These may include minimum or maximum age or deposit amounts. Fees, commissions or other charges may apply for such access or use. We may refuse an application for any reason. Unless required by law, we do not need to give you a reason. You may contact your branch should you require further details about our Saadiq products or our electronic banking services.
- 1.3. Our electronic banking services are available to you only after we have approved them for your use.
- 1.4. If we agree to provide a Saadiq product to you and allow you to access or use a Saadiq product through our electronic banking services, the terms on which you may use the Saadiq product are called our “banking agreement”. This is made up of the following documents for the Saadiq product:
 - (a) the application;
 - (b) any letter of offer;
 - (c) these Saadiq Client Terms;
 - (d) the Saadiq product terms;
 - (e) our approval;
 - (f) the schedule of charges;
 - (g) any guidelines we issue in connection with use of the Saadiq product (including guidelines for use of electronic banking services); and
 - (h) any other document or terms and conditions that form part of either of the documents referred to in paragraph (a) to (g) above, as varied or replaced from time to time.

A separate banking agreement is entered into each time you and we agree that you may use a Saadiq product. For example, if you accept a letter of offer for more than one Saadiq product, a separate “banking agreement” is established at that time for each Saadiq product on the terms set out, or referred to, in the letter of offer.

The terms of our banking agreement apply to each access or use of the Saadiq product, including any access or use of the Saadiq product through our electronic banking services, by you or any authorised person. If you or an authorised person does not agree with the terms of our banking agreement, you or they should not carry out the transaction or access any Saadiq account. You are responsible for ensuring that each authorised person complies with our banking agreement and for anything an authorised person does in connection with our banking agreement. You must ensure that each authorised person is given a copy of the terms that apply to any Saadiq product they use and these Saadiq Client Terms.

- 1.5. If you are not a resident of the United Arab Emirates, additional terms and conditions may apply as notified by us at any time.
- 1.6. Transactions with any of our offices or group of companies outside the United Arab Emirates are not protected by United Arab Emirates laws.

- 1.7. A reference to “terms and conditions” in forms, statements, brochures and other documents we provide is a reference to the relevant terms contained in our banking agreement. These Saadiq Client Terms replace all earlier general terms and conditions relating to Saadiq banking services except where we advise you otherwise.
- 1.8. If there is any inconsistency between:
 - (a) the application and any other terms of our banking agreement, the other terms prevail; and
 - (b) these Saadiq Client Terms and any specific terms (such as the Saadiq product terms or any letter of offer), the specific terms prevail; and
 - (c) the English version of our banking agreement and the Arabic translation, the Arabic version prevails.

2. PRE-CONDITIONS TO USE OF ANY SAADIQ PRODUCT

- 2.1. We need not provide any funds to you or otherwise allow you to access or use a Saadiq product or our electronic banking services if:
 - (a) we consider there may be a default;
 - (b) you have not satisfied any pre-condition to use set out in our approval, our letter of offer, the applicable Saadiq product terms, elsewhere in our banking agreement or as we notify you at any time;
 - (c) you have not given us the security (if any) we require in addition to the security set out in Part I (Security);
 - (d) we consider that you or any security provider may not be able to satisfy your obligations to us under our banking agreement or any security. We may determine this is the case if, for example, there has been a change in your or a security provider’s financial position since the date of your application;
 - (e) we advise you that funds can only be provided or the Saadiq product can only be used during a specified period (called the availability period), and that period has expired;
 - (f) your request for funds exceeds the applicable limit;
 - (g) it is illegal in your country to use encryption devices or software to secure communications over the internet;
 - (h) you trade in rough diamonds;
 - (i) you have not provided us with all other documents and information we reasonably request; or
 - (j) you or any security provider give us any incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or make an incorrect or misleading representation or warranty.
- 2.2. In addition, for some Saadiq products we need not provide funds to you or otherwise allow you to use the Saadiq product in any manner, including through our electronic banking services, if we decide not to do so (see the applicable Saadiq product terms).

3. REVIEW

We may review the terms of our banking agreement (including the Saadiq product terms and your conduct under our banking agreement) annually or at any time. Even if there is no default, we may (subject to applicable law), at any time:

- (a) terminate or cancel our banking agreement and all transactions and arrangements (howsoever defined) thereunder;
- (b) vary any limit or commission or profit rate or rent rate applying to the Saadiq product or vary the term of the Saadiq product or any transactions or arrangements (howsoever defined) thereunder, where applicable;
- (c) require additional security; and/or
- (d) otherwise vary the terms of our banking agreement or any transactions or arrangements (howsoever defined) thereunder.

If we vary these Saadiq Client Terms, we will post the amended terms at www.sc.com/ae and notify you. Once notification, we will treat your subsequent use of our Saadiq services and Saadiq products as your acceptance of the variation.

PART B - OPERATING SAADIQ ACCOUNTS

4. AUTHORITY

Saadiq Account operating authority

- 4.1. When you apply for a Saadiq product, you must give us account operating authority details:
- (a) for all authorised persons; and
 - (b) for Saadiq joint accounts, the method of operation (either, any one accountholder to give instructions or all accountholders to give instructions jointly). If no method of operation is specified, any one accountholder may operate the Saadiq account. If on a joint Saadiq account you require more than one accountholder to sign, then you may view (but not give instructions on) the Saadiq account using an electronic banking service if each relevant accountholder approves the relevant access.
- 4.2. We act on the Saadiq account operating authority until you vary (by removing or adding authorised persons) or cancel it. If you want to vary the Saadiq account operating authority by changing either the authorised persons or the method of operation, or cancel the Saadiq account operating authority, you must give us instructions in writing. On receipt of the instructions, we vary or cancel the Saadiq account operating authority. The variation or cancellation becomes effective within seven (7) banking days after we accept your instructions. We may continue to act on the existing Saadiq account operating authority until the variation or cancellation becomes effective.
- 4.3. We honour for payment all cheques and other instruments signed in accordance with the previous authority if they are dated before, but presented after, we have processed the instructions.
- 4.4. We rely on any instructions given by an authorised person in accordance with the Saadiq account operating authority.
- 4.5. An authorised person must use the same signature for all Saadiq products as used on the Saadiq account operating authority.

Scope of account operating authority

- 4.6. Except to the extent you may limit the authority of an authorised person, each authorised person may act on the Saadiq account. Depending on the Saadiq product, an authorised person may:
- (a) draw cheques;
 - (b) overdraw to any extent permitted by us;
 - (c) withdraw money in any manner;
 - (d) give and cancel authorities in our usual form for periodical payments;
 - (e) stop a payment of a cheque drawn on the Saadiq account;
 - (f) access and operate the Saadiq account using an electronic banking service in accordance with our banking agreement;
 - (g) obtain statements of Saadiq accounts and any information required concerning the Saadiq accounts generally;
 - (h) obtain cheque books and endorse cheques or other instruments payable to your order or if it is a Saadiq joint account, payable to any one or more of you; and
 - (i) elect on your behalf to receive eStatements and notices electronically (instead of by mail), and cancel that election.

Conducting a Saadiq account in joint names

- 4.7. Unless otherwise agreed with us, when a Saadiq joint account is opened:
- (a) operations on the account are governed by the account operating authority;
 - (b) we need not enquire into the circumstances of any instructions any of you may give in connection with the conduct of the Saadiq account;
 - (c) we are authorised to accept for credit of the joint account, any cheque or other instrument payable to one or more of you;

- (d) each of you is liable to us jointly and separately for the balance owing (including if we permit an overdraw);
 - (e) if the Saadiq account operating authority is “single signing authority” and any one accountholder instructs us to stop accepting instructions from any other accountholder, or different accountholders give us conflicting instructions, we may suspend the operations on the Saadiq account until we receive confirmation from all accountholders;
 - (f) if the Saadiq account operating authority is “single signing authority” and we are notified that an accountholder becomes insolvent or incapacitated, we may suspend operation of the Saadiq account until we are satisfied that all other accountholders are aware of the circumstances and the legal representatives of the affected accountholder have provided us with the information we require to resume operations on the Saadiq account;
 - (g) if the Saadiq account operating authority is “both/all to sign” and we are notified that an accountholder becomes insolvent or incapacitated, we accept instructions only from the affected accountholder’s legal representative and all other accountholders; and
 - (h) if one of you dies, the surviving accountholder may give instructions and obtains title to the Saadiq account.
- 4.8. If one joint accountholder dies, the obligations of the surviving accountholder and our rights (including set-off) under our banking agreement are not affected.

5. INSTRUCTIONS

Authorisation

- 5.1. You authorise us to act on instructions from you or any authorised person (including any instructions we believe to have been given by you or an authorised person). You acknowledge that for electronic banking services, we may require use of a security code and use of a security code is evidence that the instruction is authorised by you or an authorised person. However, also see clause 18.
- 5.2. You agree that the use of security codes is adequate identification of you. We are entitled to act on instructions (provided using the security codes) without obtaining any further written or other confirmation from you. You agree that we will not be liable for taking such action unless you had notified us before such unauthorised instructions were given to us that your security codes are or might be known to someone else.

Form of instructions

- 5.3. Instructions must be given in writing. However, we may accept instructions by telephone, fax or through any electronic banking service if you produce any documents we require. You are responsible for ensuring the timeliness, accuracy, adequacy and completeness of all instructions given by you. We will not be liable for any loss or damage as a result of:
 - (a) your instructions to pay or transfer funds being late, inaccurate, inadequate or incomplete; or
 - (b) any third party refusing or delaying to pay or transfer the funds to the account of the intended payee.
- 5.4. You acknowledge that email is not a completely reliable or secure method of communication. You must not use it to send us:
 - (a) notices in connection with any of our banking agreements unless specifically permitted under any Saadiq product terms; or
 - (b) sensitive communications, such as payment instructions. Payment instructions should be sent through the electronic banking service connected to your Saadiq account.
- 5.5. You acknowledge that all instructions given (and our records of those instructions) in electronic form are original documents in writing. You agree not to challenge their validity, admissibility or enforceability on the basis that they are in electronic form.
- 5.6. You must ensure your Saadiq account has sufficient funds for the purposes of giving instructions to us.
- 5.7. All instructions cannot be reversed and are binding on you.
- 5.8. When we receive a transaction instruction from you, we will debit any payment plus any charges payable for the transaction from your Saadiq account.
- 5.9. Contact us if you need to confirm that an instruction has reached us and that it will be carried out by a particular time.

5.10. We will be deemed to have received or executed your instruction only when you have received our confirmation that we have received or executed such instructions.

How we may act

5.11. We may:

- (a) act on incomplete or unclear instructions if we reasonably believe we can correct the information without referring to you or an authorised person. Otherwise, we may refuse to act on incomplete or unclear instructions;
- (b) act on instructions which conflict with each other and determine the order of acting if multiple instructions are received;
- (c) specify conditions on which we accept any instructions;
- (d) verify any instruction we receive by contacting you;
- (e) require written confirmation from you of a particular instruction;
- (f) we may reverse any action taken on the basis of an instruction if our internal checks indicate that the instruction was not from you. We will not be responsible for any loss to you that results from such reversal; and/or
- (g) act in accordance with our usual business practice and procedures and we need only accept instructions if we consider it reasonable and practicable to do so. For example, we may refuse to act if an instruction may involve a breach of our policy, any security procedure, Shariah Standards or any law or requirement of any authority (including any economic and trade sanctions imposed by any regulator in any jurisdiction where we operate in or by any supranational organisation, official body including, but not limited to, Her Majesty's Treasury, the United Nations, the European Union or any country), result in a Saadiq account being overdrawn, appears to conflict with another instruction from a joint accountholder, or if we genuinely believe or suspect the instruction is unauthorised.

5.12. We will not execute your instructions, and will not be responsible for any loss resulting from such non-execution, if on the stipulated date of execution:

- (a) there are insufficient funds in your Saadiq account to execute your instructions;
- (b) your Saadiq account does not contain sufficient funds to pay any charges, fees, commission, profit, rent or other sums that may be payable by you to us;
- (c) you did not correctly use the electronic banking services;
- (d) circumstances beyond our control prevent your instructions from being carried out despite reasonable precautions taken by us;
- (e) the funds you instruct us to transfer or pay exceeds your personalised daily transfer limit or the category limit imposed on your Saadiq account, whichever is lower;
- (f) your Saadiq account or any funds in your Saadiq account have been put on hold;
- (g) an order of court or any applicable law prohibits us from carrying out your instructions;
- (h) our policy, security procedure, Shariah Standards or requirement of any authority (including any economic and trade sanctions imposed by any regulator in any jurisdiction where we operate in or by any supranational organisation, official body including, but not limited to, Her Majesty's Treasury, the United Nations, the European Union or any country) prohibits us from carrying out your instructions;
- (i) your Saadiq account is closed, frozen or inaccessible for any reason; or
- (j) you have failed to perform your obligations under the relevant Saadiq product terms or any other banking agreement.

5.13. We may impose a service charge on unsuccessful applications to transfer funds or pay bills in the event this is due to the circumstances set out in clause 5.12 (a) and/or (b) above. You will also be responsible for any charges imposed, or any other action taken, by a receiving bank or payee or an intended receiving bank or payee if any of the circumstances in clause 5.12 apply.

Payment instructions

- 5.14. You authorise us to act as the instructing financial institution to send your payment instructions (for example a cheque, traveler's cheque, money order or other similar instrument). You also authorise us or any third party who receives the payment instructions to act on them as if you had sent the payment instructions directly to them.

Inability to process

- 5.15. If we cannot process your instructions, we will, where possible, attempt to notify you of this.

Timing

Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Saadiq product terms, if we receive an instruction on a non-banking day or after our "cut-off time" for a Saadiq product, we may treat it as having been received on the next banking day.

Stopping or reversing a transaction

- 5.16. If we are instructed in writing to stop or reverse a transaction, we will attempt to do so. However, we are not liable for any loss you incur if we cannot do so. You will pay us for any costs we may incur in trying to stop or reverse a transaction.

Risks

- 5.17. You acknowledge and accept the risks of giving instructions by telephone, fax or through any electronic banking service (including the risk of technical malfunction in your or our electronic equipment, the risk of any instructions being unauthorised or given by an unauthorised person, the risk that we may process instructions twice if you send the same instructions to us in different forms and the risk that any information sent by electronic banking services cannot be guaranteed to be secure or free from virus, delay or any other third party attacks). In particular, we will not be responsible for wrongful instructions caused by malware in your computer or device or man-in-the-middle attacks.

Instructions from us

- 5.18. You and each authorised person must follow our instructions in connection with accessing or using a Saadiq product and comply with all applicable laws.

6. SAADIQ ACCOUNT OVERDRAWING

- 6.1. If you or an authorised person makes any withdrawal, payment or other transaction on a Saadiq account (including by cheque or use of a Saadiq card or electronic banking service) or any other debit is made to the Saadiq account which would result in:

- (a) a debit (or negative) balance in the Saadiq account; or
- (b) any agreed overdraft limit applying to the Saadiq account under a line of credit or other financing facility being exceeded, this is known as overdrawing the Saadiq account.

- 6.2. We need not:

- (a) accept any instruction or allow any withdrawal or transaction or honour any cheque or other instrument drawn on a Saadiq account, which would cause the Saadiq account to be overdrawn; or
- (b) transfer funds from any other Saadiq account to the overdrawn Saadiq account in order to effect the withdrawal or transaction.

- 6.3. We may (but need not) allow a Saadiq account to be overdrawn (even if no request has been made for an overdraft) if we believe that an overdraft is necessary for us to carry out instructions from you or an authorised person or transactions under our banking agreement in accordance with the terms thereof.

- 6.4. If we allow a Saadiq account to be overdrawn:

- (a) this only applies for that particular instruction or transaction and this does not mean that we will allow a similar overdraft in the future;
- (b) when we ask, you must repay that advance and any fee, charges, commission, profit or rent which is calculated in accordance with our usual practice and at the rate we notify you pursuant to any Shariah compliant banking agreement agreed with you for such payment.

If you do not understand the risks or are not willing to accept the risks or make losses, you should not enter into foreign exchange transactions with us.
 - (b) You must decide for yourself whether you should participate in foreign exchange transactions at all and, if you do, about each individual foreign exchange transaction.

8.3. When a transaction is made with electronic equipment using a security code, you authorise us to act on the instructions entered into that electronic equipment. We treat use of a security code as evidence that you or an authorised person issued the instructions.

Problems with instructions

8.4. If it is not possible to direct an electronic banking service to a specified Saadiq account in accordance with the instructions you or an authorised person gives through the electronic equipment, we may direct it to any Saadiq account that is linked to a security code.

9. USING ELECTRONIC BANKING SERVICES

Availability

9.1. Electronic banking services, and certain facilities under the electronic banking services, may be available only for certain types of Saadiq accounts or Saadiq products and not others. You accept that there are certain facilities and services that cannot be accessed through our electronic banking services.

Eligibility

9.2. You and each authorised person must be at least 21 years of age to use electronic banking services. However, if we permit you or an authorised person to use electronic banking services even though you or they are below 21 years of age, this does not affect our rights under our banking agreement.

Preconditions to use

9.3. We only make an electronic banking service available if:

- (a) you are recorded as the legal and beneficial owner of a Saadiq account and use of the electronic banking service for such Saadiq account is acceptable to us;

- (b) you have registered our electronic banking service. Contact us to arrange this; and
- (c) you and each authorised person has complied with the activation procedures we specify.

Guidelines

- 9.4. If we issue any guidelines in connection with the use of any electronic banking services, the guidelines must be followed whenever anyone accesses or uses the electronic banking service. We are not liable for any loss you incur as a result of any failure to do so.

Limits

- 9.5. Electronic banking services may be limited to specific amounts set by law or by us or by the owner or operator of the electronic equipment. For example, there are maximum and minimum daily withdrawal amounts that may vary.

Application of terms

- 9.6. These Saadiq Client Terms apply to your use of an electronic banking service whenever you subscribe for the electronic banking service even if you subscribe after you begin to use a Saadiq product.

Saadiq Joint accounts

- 9.7. If the operating authority for a joint account is “single signing authority”, you agree that:
- (a) all joint accountholders may operate the Saadiq account using the electronic banking services in accordance with these Saadiq Client Terms (even if you are not registered to use the electronic banking services); and
 - (b) any single joint accountholder may validly give instructions by the electronic banking services in connection with the joint account.

Operating times and availability

- 9.8. The electronic banking services are usually available for use during normal operating hours or at the times set out in any applicable guidelines or otherwise notified to you. However, routine maintenance requirements, excess demand on the systems and circumstances beyond our control may mean it is not always possible for the electronic banking services to be available during all normal operating hours, which you accept.
- 9.9. The availability and proper functioning of electronic banking services depends on many variable circumstances, including location, mobile network and internet availability, signal strength, and proper functioning of hardware, software, your mobile network operator, mobile phone and computer.

Software compatibility

- 9.10. When you use our electronic banking services we may provide your system with electronic banking software which may be needed for you to operate such electronic banking services. Alternatively, the electronic banking software may be supplied to you in some other way. It is your responsibility to ensure that the electronic banking software, if supplied to you, is compatible with your system.
- 9.11. We shall not be responsible for any loss or damage you suffer as a result of any incompatibility between the electronic banking software and your system.

Ownership Rights in connection with the electronic banking software and other information

- 9.12. If supplied, you will have a non-exclusive, non-transferable, temporary licence to use the electronic banking software only for the purpose of accessing the electronic banking services. The electronic banking software contains valuable information that belongs to us or others. You must not:
- (a) take copies, sell, assign, transfer or otherwise deal with the electronic banking software or your licence to use it; or
 - (b) modify, tamper, attempt to decompile, reverse engineer, input or compile any of the electronic banking software in any way.
- 9.13. You are responsible for complying with the local laws of the country from which you use the electronic banking software, including obtaining any licence you need to take the electronic banking software into or out of the country.

Access

- 9.14. When you use electronic banking services you must:
- (a) not access the electronic banking services using any electronic equipment not owned by you or which is not licensed or authorised to use; and
 - (b) take all reasonably practical measures to ensure that any electronic equipment from which you access the electronic banking services is free of and adequately protected against any computer virus or other malicious software.
- 9.15. As the electronic banking services can be accessed through the internet, other communication channels or, as the case may be, public systems over which we have no control, we will not be responsible for any loss or damage suffered by you or them as a result of any computer viruses, Trojan horses, worms, software bombs, malware or similar processes arising from your use of the electronic banking services through the internet or those other communication channels or public systems.

Unauthorised overdrafts

- 9.16. You cannot rely on the operation of the electronic banking services to prevent an unauthorised overdraft being created. For example, you must remember that cheques and any payment instructions you or an authorised person has given using the electronic banking services may not be given immediate value or immediate effect and might not always be immediately reflected in the balance owing.
- 9.17. You must not use the electronic banking services to create an unauthorised overdraft on your Saadiq account and we are entitled to refuse to accept any instruction that would do so.

Information provided at ATMs not conclusive

- 9.18. Information provided at ATMs in connection with your Saadiq account (such as your credit or debit balance) may not reflect the balance owing at that time.

Electronic alerts

- 9.19. The electronic alerts available are:

Alert type	Description
SMS alerts-automatic alerts	No prior subscription required.
SMS alerts-subscriber alerts	You must subscribe and select the types of SMS alerts which you wish to receive.
Email alerts-automatic alerts	No prior subscription required.
Email alerts-subscription alerts	You must subscribe and select the types of email alerts which you wish to receive.

- 9.20. We may vary the types of electronic alerts available without notice to you. They are sent only when available and practicable.
- 9.21. We will send the electronic alerts to either your mobile phone number or an email address you provide. In the event you want to make any changes to your mandatory alerts, this must be done by you through our contact centre.
- 9.22. To receive electronic alerts, you will need to select and set the preferences through our ATM by logging into your online banking account or by submitting an application in the prescribed format.

Suspension

- 9.23. We may suspend any electronic banking service temporarily at any time for maintenance and upgrading of services.

Fees and charges

- 9.24. We may charge you fees and charges for the electronic banking services. We can change these fees and charges by giving you at least sixty (60) days' notice. If we give you such a notice, you will not have to pay any proposed increase as long as you cancel your use of the electronic banking service during the sixty (60) day notice period. However, your continued use of the electronic banking service after the sixty (60) day notice period shall be conclusively deemed to be your acceptance of such changed fees and charges.
- 9.25. In addition to any fees and charges you must pay us, you must pay any fees or charges imposed by the provider of the electronic equipment and your telecommunications provider for using the electronic banking services.

Variations

- 9.26. We may at any time:
- (a) vary the way any electronic banking service operates; or
 - (b) add to, remove or otherwise vary, end or suspend any of the facilities available under any electronic banking service.
- 9.27. You and each authorised person are taken to be bound by any variation to the operation of an electronic banking service if you or they continue to access the electronic banking service after we notify you of the variation.

10. MOBILE AND SMS BANKING

- 10.1. We may restrict access to mobile banking and SMS banking. For example, for some Saadiq products we may not offer it to accountholders or cardholders who are minors or joint accountholders.
- 10.2. Mobile banking and SMS banking are only available for mobile phones and similar devices with data or internet connections which meet the specifications and configurations we specify. You must obtain and maintain a mobile phone and data or internet connection which meet these requirements at your own expense.
- 10.3. You may have to apply to us for use of mobile banking or SMS banking by online banking or by any other method as stipulated by us.
- 10.4. We may take up to a maximum of seven (7) banking days from the date of receipt of your application to activate mobile banking and SMS banking.
- 10.5. Any transaction made through your mobile banking user ID shall be deemed to have originated from you if the correct login password was submitted.
- 10.6. The mobile app and the information or materials obtained via the mobile app and mobile banking are granted to you by us for your sole use on a non-exclusive and non-transferable basis.
- 10.7. Mobile banking and SMS banking are available to you only if you are within the cellular or mobile network service range of the particular cellular or network service provider providing services to you. We are not responsible for your inability to use mobile banking and/or SMS banking if you are not within such network service range.
- 10.8. You agree to pay us and any third party telecommunication providers all applicable rates and charges related to your use of mobile banking or SMS banking, and we shall debit from your Saadiq account any unpaid rates and charges.
- 10.9. We may at any time change the layout, form and wording of any of our mobile apps or screens and in particular, those on which our mobile banking is provided.

Setting preferences and receiving alerts

- 10.10. We may not give effect to any preferences if we have reason to suspect that the preferences are not genuine, are improper or unclear.
- 10.11. Your mobile phone number and email account must be active and accessible to receive electronic alerts. You acknowledge that if your mobile phone number or email account is inactive or inaccessible, you may not receive electronic alerts sent by us.
- 10.12. Mobile and SMS banking are dependent on the infrastructure, connectivity and services provided by service providers engaged by us or you. You therefore accept that timeliness, accuracy, and/or readability of electronic alerts will depend in part on these third party service providers. We are not responsible for non-delivery or delayed delivery, error, loss or distortion in transmission of electronic alerts if this is due to the fault of such service providers.

PART D – SAADIQ CARDS

14. SAADIQ CARDS – GENERALLY

We may agree to issue Saadiq ATM cards, Saadiq debit cards, Saadiq credit cards or Saadiq prepaid cards. This clause sets out general provisions which apply to these types of Saadiq cards. Additional terms apply to specific types of Saadiq cards (see these Saadiq Client Terms and the applicable Saadiq product terms).

Issuance of Saadiq Cards

- 14.1. We may issue a Saadiq card to you and, if you ask, to each authorised person.
- 14.2. A reference to terms and conditions on a Saadiq card is a reference to the terms of our banking agreement.

Saadiq Card is our property

- 14.3. The Saadiq card remains our property and is not transferable to another person. We may suspend the use of the Saadiq card without notice to you. You must ensure that the Saadiq card (and, if applicable, any software stored on it) is not defaced, damaged, bent or modified, reverse engineered or decompiled, in any way.

Signatures on your Saadiq Card

- 14.4. A Saadiq card must be signed immediately on receipt unless otherwise not required by us.
- 14.5. You must ensure that the signature of the authorised person on the Saadiq card is the same as on the account operating authority. However, if we accept a different signature, you remain liable for the transaction.
- 14.6. When a Saadiq card is used the signature on any sales draft, credit voucher or other transaction record is binding and conclusive evidence that you have accepted the fees or charges which are charged to a linked account. You should keep the transaction records that you or any authorised person are given.

Use of Saadiq cards

- 14.7. Saadiq cards may be used to pay for goods and services to access cash or perform other transactions we notify. However, where a particular function is permitted, this is limited to particular channels as advised. For example, paying for goods and services and accessing cash may be limited to merchant terminals or ATMs which display the relevant card logo.
- 14.8. A cardholder may use a Saadiq card to authorise transactions in any manner we permit. This may include use of the Saadiq card number without the physical Saadiq card.

Transaction limits

- 14.9. We or other financial institutions may impose transaction limits on different types of transactions which may be made using a Saadiq card. For details of the limits we impose, please contact us.

Your liability

- 14.10. Except as otherwise set out in our banking agreement, you are liable for all transactions made using a Saadiq card or the Saadiq card number.

Expiry date

- 14.11. You must not use a Saadiq card after:
 - (a) its expiry date; or
 - (b) the date we notify you of its cancellation or replacement.

Restrictions on use of a Saadiq card

- 14.12. Neither you nor any authorised person may use a Saadiq card:
 - (a) for any unlawful activity (including a purchase of goods or services that is illegal or prohibited by the laws of United Arab Emirates, Shariah Standards or by the laws of the country where the purchase is made); or
 - (b) to pay debts incurred in connection with on-line gambling, wagering or betting activities conducted via internet.

- 14.13. Certain purchases of goods or services, such as alcohol, dealing in pork and pork related products, gambling, pornography or other illegal activities, are prohibited under the principles of Shariah. It is the cardholder's responsibility to ensure that the Saadiq card is utilized for card transactions which are not contrary, offensive or repugnant to the principles of Shariah. We shall be entitled, without notice, to withdraw the cardholder's right to use the Saadiq card or to refuse to authorize any card transaction in the event that the cardholder fails to comply with this provision.
- 14.14. We may refuse to approve transactions made using a Saadiq card if we believe or suspect the transactions are illegal, fraudulent, dishonest, unauthorised or not in compliance with Shariah Standards. However, we need not determine or enquire into the purpose or legality of the transaction.

Overdrafts on linked account

- 14.15. Neither you nor any authorised person may use a Saadiq card for a transaction if it would cause a linked account to be overdrawn. If the linked account is overdrawn, we may refuse to approve the transaction.

Replacement and renewed Saadiq cards

- 14.16. If, for example, a Saadiq card is damaged, and you or an authorised person asks, we may issue a replacement Saadiq card. You must pay the applicable fees (see the schedule of charges or contact us).
- 14.17. We treat any use of a replacement or renewed Saadiq card as a valid activation of the Saadiq card.

Features on a Saadiq card

- 14.18. We may enter into arrangements with third parties (including service providers and merchants) to offer additional services or features on your Saadiq cards. If offered, these are provided on a best efforts basis only. We are not liable for any loss you suffer in connection with these services or features.
- 14.19. We are not liable for the loss or inaccuracy of any information stored on a Saadiq card.

Cancellation or expiry

- 14.20. You may cancel a Saadiq card by giving us notice in writing. You must immediately destroy any cancelled or expired Saadiq card.

Refunds

- 14.21. A merchant must issue a valid credit voucher to make a refund for goods or services purchased by using a Saadiq credit card. We can only credit the linked account with the refund when we receive the voucher or other notification from the merchant's bank.

Disputes with merchants

- 14.22. We are not liable for:
- (a) the refusal of any electronic equipment or merchant to accept a Saadiq card; or
 - (b) any defect or deficiency in goods or services supplied to you by any merchant.

You must resolve any complaint directly with the merchant and no claim against the merchant may be set off or claimed against us.

Withholding payment

- 14.23. If you report unauthorised transactions on your Saadiq credit card, you may withhold paying the disputed amount until we complete our investigation. You must pay the disputed amount if your report is proved to be unfounded.

Exchange rate

- 14.24. Non-local transactions are converted to local currency at a rate we reasonably consider appropriate, which may be a rate set or resulting from procedures adopted by a third party on spot basis. For example, if the Saadiq card is a Visa or MasterCard card, conversion is done using US dollar as the base currency on the date the transaction is received by us or processed, at the exchange rate and at the time determined by Visa International or MasterCard International at its absolute discretion. In any case, the exchange rate may differ from the rate in effect on the date of the transaction due to market fluctuations. Any rate imposed is final and conclusive and you bear all exchange risks, loss, commission and other costs which may be incurred as a result.

Using a Saadiq ATM card

- 14.25. You or an authorised person may use a Saadiq ATM card overseas if you or they comply with exchange controls and other applicable laws in the country where you or they are located. If an authority requires us to do so, or we are otherwise required by law or pursuant to agreements with any regulator or any authority to do so, or if we need to comply with internal policies associated with any applicable order or sanction of an authority, you or an authorised person may be prevented from using a Saadiq ATM card overseas.
- 14.26. If you or an authorised person uses a Saadiq ATM card overseas and the ATM does not allow a choice of account for withdrawals, the order of accounts we debit is in accordance with our usual practice.
- 14.27. You authorise us to disclose information to parties involved in the provision of ATM services and you authorise them to disclose information to us about a Saadiq account, your PIN/password and transactions.

Return of ATM cards

- 14.28. If your Saadiq account is closed, you must ensure that all Saadiq ATM cards issued in connection with the Saadiq account are returned to us.

15. SAADIQ DEBIT CARDS

Where you may use a Saadiq debit card

- 15.1. A Saadiq debit card may be used in United Arab Emirates and in most countries overseas.

Pre-authorisation procedure

- 15.2. Some merchants are required to specifically authorise transactions using Saadiq debit cards. If this is the case, the transaction is processed as follows:
 - (a) the merchant debits an amount determined by it (called a “blocked amount”) from a linked account on the transaction date or the billing date, whichever is the earlier, regardless of the actual final transacted amount;
 - (b) the difference between the blocked amount and the transacted amount is released and credited into a linked account after we process and pay the transacted amount; and
 - (c) if there is any difference between the transacted amount billed or there is any delayed billing by the merchant, we may make any necessary adjustment by debiting or crediting a linked account, to reflect the correct transacted amount.

Minimum balance of linked account

- 15.3. We may set a minimum balance to be maintained in the linked account for the use of the Saadiq debit card and we may vary the minimum balance without notice to you.

16. BONUS POINTS SCHEME

- 16.1. Some types of Saadiq cards have a bonus points scheme. For details please refer to the product brochure or contact us.
- 16.2. Bonus points may be earned when a cardholder (including any person you authorise as a supplementary cardholder on your account) uses a Saadiq card in the manner specified in the product brochure. However, bonus points accrue on your account only.
- 16.3. We may specify from time to time the amount of AED which needs to be spent using your Saadiq card to earn one bonus point. We may also from time to time specify other ways by which bonus points may be earned.
- 16.4. The product brochure sets out the method for calculating bonus points earned. Bonus points cannot be earned on bonus points purchases, cash advances, profit, rent, fees or costs.
- 16.5. Bonus points accrue from when your Saadiq account is opened and may be redeemed until the bonus points cancellation date. Except as set out in the product brochure, all bonus points earned before the bonus points cancellation date are automatically cancelled on the bonus points cancellation date. Cancelled bonus points are not reinstated in any circumstances (including if your account is reinstated).

- 16.6. Unless set out in the product brochure or we notify you that you are allowed a period of time after the bonus points cancellation date to use or redeem your accrued bonus points, all applications to use or redeem bonus points which we receive after the bonus points cancellation date and any attempted use or redemption of bonus points occurring after the bonus points cancellation date is not valid and has no effect.
- 16.7. You may not redeem bonus points for cash and may only use or redeem bonus points for the goods and services we specify. If you order any goods and services which require both bonus points to be used or redeemed and money to be paid, you authorise us to debit your Saadiq account with the amount of the required monetary payment. We may reject other methods of payment.
- 16.8. You may not use or redeem any bonus points if the statuses of all your Saadiq accounts are not normal or current or if a cardholder is in default or has otherwise not complied with the terms of our banking agreement.
- 16.9. Unless we agree otherwise, you may not transfer bonus points from one Saadiq account to another account. We may allow you to combine all the bonus points which you have earned in all your qualifying accounts for use or redemption in one or more transactions.

PART E - SECURITY PROCEDURES AND LIABILITY

17. SECURITY PROCEDURES

Security procedures for Saadiq banking services are very important. You must comply with (and ensure each authorised person complies with) all security procedures set out in our banking agreement.

Issuance and cancellation of security codes

- 17.1. We may issue (or in some cases, allow you to select) security codes to enable you to communicate with us or to give us instructions by electronic equipment.
- 17.2. If you want any other person to be able to give us instructions by electronic equipment we can issue them with security codes, but you must ask us to do so in writing.
- 17.3. When you use certain Saadiq products, we will issue you with security codes and may also require you to obtain from us and use a one-time password for additional security authentication.
- 17.4. If you lose a security code, it stops working or it is disclosed to a person other than an authorised person, we may issue you with a new one if you ask us in writing. We may suspend your use of a Saadiq product which requires a security code until the new security code is issued.
- 17.5. You are responsible for the security codes once we send them to you (or the authorised person) even if any other person receives or uses them.
- 17.6. You must instruct us in writing if you want to cancel a security code issued to you or an authorised person.
- 17.7. We may cancel a security code without notice.
- 17.8. We are not responsible for any services that are not controlled by us, by or from which you or an authorised person obtains any security codes, and we are not liable for any loss you incur in connection with that service. You are responsible for complying with all the terms and conditions of using that service and paying all the costs in connection with it.

Protecting security codes, cheque books and passbooks

- 17.9. You and each authorised person must take all necessary steps to prevent unauthorised or fraudulent use of your or their security codes, cheque books or passbooks.
- 17.10. You must comply with our security guidelines and advice that are provided by us to you.
- 17.11. For example, you and each authorised person must:

26. STATEMENTS AND RECORDS

- 26.1. We issue statements for Saadiq accounts periodically as set out herein or in the Saadiq product terms. Statements may be in paper, electronic or any other form we choose. However, we may not issue statements if a Saadiq account is inactive, there have been no transactions since the previous statement or where we are not required by law to do so or where our policy, security procedure or requirement of any authority (including any economic and trade sanctions imposed by any regulator in any jurisdiction where we operate in or by any supranational organisation, official body including, but not limited to, Her Majesty's Treasury, the United Nations, the European Union or any country) prohibits us from doing so. You may ask for a single statement for each Saadiq account or a consolidated statement (if available). You are responsible for checking them for errors. Information about Saadiq accounts (including the balance owing) may be obtained at any other time by contacting us.
- 26.2. If your instructions are to give you a consolidated statement (if available) you acknowledge that we do not also issue separate statements for individual Saadiq accounts. However, we may revert to issuing separate statements at any time.

If you think there is a mistake

- 26.3. You should retain all transaction records to enable you to verify entries. You must check these entries and your passbook, or any counterfoil, entries for accuracy as soon as you receive your statement. You must report any mistaken or unauthorised transactions to us as soon as possible. Unless otherwise stated in the Saadiq product terms, if you do not report any mistake within ten (10) days after the date of the statement, we treat the statement as correct.
- 26.4. The date which appears on the transaction record may vary from the date that appears on your statement. This is because transactions completed on non-banking days and after "cut-off" time on banking days may be held over to be processed on the next banking day.

Reversals

- 26.5. We may cancel, reverse or debit any payment we make under our banking agreement (including any profit paid) and make any corresponding adjustments to a Saadiq account:
- (a) to correct a mistake (for example, an overpayment);
 - (b) if we have not received cleared and unconditional funds in full or promptly;
 - (c) if we are required to return the funds to the relevant payer or drawer; or
 - (d) if we have reasonable grounds for doing so.

If we make an adjustment, we notify you.

Our records and decisions are conclusive

- 26.6. Unless there is an obvious mistake:
- (a) our records (whether in paper, electronic, data or other form) of an instruction, report, statement or other communication are conclusive evidence of their contents or our receipt or non-receipt of them; and
 - (b) any certificate we issue, or decision we make, about a matter or an amount payable in connection with our banking agreement is conclusive evidence.
- 26.7. You acknowledge that we may destroy, erase or otherwise cease to maintain any records (whether in paper, electronic, data or other form) as we consider appropriate after such time as permitted by applicable law.

We may sell or deal with the assets to satisfy your obligations to us. We may do so without notifying you.

Security over all assets

33.2. In addition to any other security we require and our banker's lien under clause 33.1, we hold all your assets (including assets deposited with us for any purpose) as security for the total balance owing for all your Saadiq products and other products you have availed from us and any amount which you may owe us in the future. If you want to provide additional or replacement security for a Saadiq product (for example, if you want to move house but you want to keep any financing we have provided to you), please contact us to discuss. - 35.3. If we permit you to make your own arrangements for insurance we require, you must pay us an administration fee and any costs we specify. You must provide us with the original insurance policy and the original receipt for the amount paid for the insurance.
- 35.4. If you have made arrangements with the insurer which allow us to cancel the insurance when there is a default, we may apply any amounts that are refunded by the insurer against any amount you owe us.

Optional insurance

- 35.5. Insurance policies may be offered to you in connection with a Saadiq product. For example, if you use electronic banking services you may be offered fraud insurance. All insurance policies

- 35.6. If we arrange insurance for your benefit, you must pay all amounts the insurer requires in connection with the policy and we debit those amounts to your Saadiq account.
