

6 April 2020

Waiver on Late Payment Fees for Standard Chartered Credit Cards.

Dear Client,

Keeping the current Covid 19 pandemic and travel restrictions in mind, the Bank is waiving any Late Payment Fee against your Credit Card between 15th March and 31st May 2020 in line with a regulatory directive. Any Late Payment Fee charged to you within this period will be refunded duly.

Standard Chartered Bank remains by your side in these difficult times and is working to bring to you a host of features and offers online so that you are able continue to pay for your daily necessities from the safety of your home. Please do use this opportunity to access your bank & credit card account through our Online Banking platform and/or downloading the SC Mobile App to benefit from the host of online features available to you including payment facilities to your banking account or to your wallet.

We sincerely hope that you and your family remain safe. Stay home, stay safe.

Sincerely yours,

Sohail Alim
Head of Credit Cards
