FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Khairun Nahar Haque Urmee, appointed Head, Human Resources, Standard Chartered Bank Bangladesh

17 September, 2018 – Standard Chartered Bank Bangladesh has recently announced the appointment of Khairun Nahar Haque Urmee, Chartered MCIPD, as Country Head of Human Resources, Standard Chartered Bank Bangladesh. Prior to this appointment, she was Senior HR Business Partner with Standard Chartered Bank, Malaysia.

Speaking about the appointment, Naser Ezaz Bijoy, Chief Executive Officer, Standard Chartered Bangladesh said, “Urmee started her career with the Bank, and I am proud to see her take on a senior leadership role today. This appointment is a clear example of the Bank’s commitment to nurture talents and to provide them the opportunity to grow over the long term.”

Urmee joined the Bank as a Management Trainee in 1998 in Bangladesh, and since then has been in various roles that span both businesses and functions. Starting her career in business, she has taken on roles in customer service, product development, marketing and led the service quality function. She received two global awards for delivering solutions to enhance customer experience. She transitioned to the Human Resource function setting up the Bank’s Learning Academy, which played a key role in nurturing and strengthening Bank’s skills-base and talent development. She has been in various HR roles including learning and business partnering. She has delivered Bank’s key transformation agenda in partnership with business teams, led complex HR risk mitigation projects, as well as the flagship talent development initiative in Bangladesh. She has also worked closely with Bangladesh Bank in developing the “Code of Conduct for Banks and Non-Bank Financial Institutions” policy.

Urmee holds a Master of Development Studies degree from BRAC University, and Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Bangladesh’s premier business school, the Institute of Business Administration (IBA), University of Dhaka. She has received various overseas accreditations and certifications.
