Standard Chartered recognized as Best International Bank and Best International Investment Bank in Bangladesh

Dhaka, 02 June 2018 – Standard Chartered Bangladesh has won two awards at the prestigious FinanceAsia 2018 Country Awards recently. At the ceremony, the Bank was recognized by FinanceAsia as the Best International Bank and Best International Investment Bank in Bangladesh.

In addition to its strong performance and innovative products and services suite, the Bank was also recognized for its role in “helping finance the country’s massive infrastructure needs and acting as a facilitator for inbound and outbound flows.”

Naser Ezaz Bijoy, Chief Executive Officer, Standard Chartered Bangladesh received the award on behalf of the Bank, at The FinanceAsia Awards 2018 Gala ceremony held recently in Hong Kong. This will be the ninth time the bank has been recognized as the Best International Bank in the country since 2009 by FinanceAsia.

While receiving the award, Naser Ezaz Bijoy, Chief Executive Officer, Standard Chartered Bangladesh said, “I am grateful to our clients, regulators and stakeholders for the strength of our relationships, which have allowed us to stand beside them as a trusted partner. Over 113 years of operations, these relationships have been the foundation of all our success.” He added, “This award is a testament to the commitment of all of my colleagues at Standard Chartered Bangladesh to drive commerce and prosperity for Bangladesh.”
