Standard Chartered, Bangladesh appoints their first female Managing Director in the role of Chief Risk Officer & Senior Credit Officer

Dhaka September 24, 2019: Standard Chartered Bank Bangladesh has recently announced the appointment of Nadia Mizan as Chief Risk Officer & Senior Credit Officer. Prior to this appointment, she has served the Bank as Senior Credit Officer, the Bank said in a statement yesterday.

Nadia started her professional journey with Standard Chartered in 2001. She has worked in various roles in risk management in Bangladesh and Singapore over the last 18 years. In her Senior Credit Officer (SCO) role for last two and a half years, she led the Risk function for the Corporate, Commercial and Institutional Banking portfolio. Prior to taking up her SCO role, she was based in Singapore as Senior Credit Manager, managing Singapore, Australia and Philippines credit approvals, while heading risk governance for the Bank's ASEAN region.

Speaking about the appointment, Naser Ezaz Bijoy, CEO Bangladesh, Standard Chartered said, “I am delighted to welcome Nadia to the country management team of Standard Chartered Bangladesh. She is the first woman leader to take up a Managing Director band role in the Bangladesh franchise. Nadia is a key talent whose leadership skills, passion and tenacity have seen her successfully move from one challenging role to another, both in the country and internationally, as she grew her very successful career with the Bank.

He added, “We have over the past successfully groomed many talents who have gone on to shape Bangladesh’s banking industry. As we move ahead, we look forward to working with the next generation to prepare them for similarly successful careers.”

Nadia is a business graduate from Institute of Business Administration, Dhaka. Outside work, she loves to spend time with her family and friends and enjoys watching cricket and football.
