On hand to welcome guests was Brenda Low, CEO Standard Chartered Securities. In her welcoming remarks, she stated:

“Wealth management is an important aspect of our business which we continue to focus on in order to drive prosperity in the markets we operate in. Standard Chartered’s range of investment products are available in various currencies with different focuses on geographies and sectors. With more than a hundred types of unit trusts and bonds available, our clients have abundant options and flexibility to diversify their investment portfolios, thereby managing their risks over their returns. Not only do we have the breadth of products to cater to our client’s financial needs, we also have the advisory services that are crucial to helping our clients make informed decisions over their portfolios.”

During the evening’s programme, Audrey Goh, Senior Cross Asset Strategist, Standard Chartered Singapore, presented the bank’s refreshed investment strategy for 2019 which aims to help active investors in their decision-making. The presentation on ‘A year to Prepare and React’ discusses the latest market insights and also presented wealth solutions available and in-line with the strategy for 2019.

Standard Chartered Securities offers the widest range of wealth products. Potential investors are required to complete a client risk profiling assessment to ensure that clients understand their risk appetite before taking up any wealth products. Investors who wish to know more about investment products and services can visit the Standard Chartered Priority Banking Centres in Gadong and Kuala Belait to speak to licensed relationship managers or visit the bank’s website www.sc.com/bn.
