These booking centre terms and conditions apply where we, Standard Chartered Private Bank, maintain an account for you, and apply in relation to the services that we offer you. They also apply to each product or service we agree to provide to you from time to time, in addition to other documents such as the product terms, service terms and the fee schedule.

Unless we notify you otherwise, these booking centre terms and conditions will apply to any product or service offered by us which you may apply for in the future. We may ask you to enter into a separate agreement relating to that product or service.

These booking centre terms and conditions supersede any previous terms and conditions relating to products or services provided by us. You have a right to receive an up-to-date copy of these booking centre terms and conditions in a durable medium at any time throughout the duration of our contractual relationship. Additionally, an up-to-date version of these booking centre terms and conditions is available at all times on our website at sc.com/privatebank/en/.

The booking centre terms and conditions take effect when you choose us to be your booking centre, or if we have already been providing you with products and services, on the date your existing terms and conditions for such products and services are amended and replaced by these booking centre terms and conditions.

These booking centre terms and conditions are supplied in English, which is the language of your choice. Any communications between you and us under these booking centre terms and conditions will be in English. To the extent that any document or information in another language is provided to you, such document or information is provided for your reference only and in the event of any inconsistency, the English version shall prevail. If you need to contact us about any aspect of our relationship, please contact your Private Banker. If you are in any doubt as to the meaning or effect of any of these booking centre terms and conditions, we recommend that you seek independent legal advice.

For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent any of your relationship centre terms and conditions conflict or are inconsistent with these booking centre terms and conditions in respect of any products or services provided by us, the terms of these booking centre terms and conditions shall prevail.

Key words

The meaning of key words printed in italics like this are explained in Section 6.
SECTION 1 – GENERAL TERMS

PART A: OUR PRIVATE BANKING RELATIONSHIP

1. The terms of our relationship

1.1 Welcome to Standard Chartered Private Bank. We welcome this opportunity to provide private banking services to you. The private banking services offered by the Standard Chartered Group are made up of: (i) booking centre services, which are provided by us as your booking centre, and (ii) relationship services, which are provided by a Private Banker from a relationship centre. Your booking centre(s) and the relationship centre may be in the same location, or may be located separately. These arrangements are described in more detail below.

1.2 To open a private banking account with us, you should complete an appropriate account opening application and submit it to your Private Banker together with the supporting documents that may be required. We reserve the right to decline to accept any such account opening application.

The booking centre

1.3 As your booking centre, we will be responsible for opening and maintaining a private banking account in your name, providing you with booking centre services for the account(s) we maintain for you, as set out in these booking centre terms and conditions. You may give instructions to us directly or through your Private Banker located in your relationship centre. You should also see clauses 1.7 and 82.7.

The relationship centre

1.4 A Private Banker will be assigned to assist you with your relationship with the private banking division of the relevant member of the Standard Chartered Group. You should be aware that your relationship centre has no authority to commit us to execute any transactions on your behalf, and we may exercise our independent discretion to decline to act on any instruction.

1.5 Your relationship centre need not be in the same location as your booking centre. You should also see clauses 1.7 and 82.7. Your relationship centre will provide you with relationship services, and in so doing, your relationship centre shall be responsible for complying with applicable law, including but not limited to assessing the suitability of an investment for you and providing you with relevant investment documentation as required by applicable law prior to passing on any instructions to your booking centre(s). All relationship services are provided subject to the relevant relationship centre terms and conditions.

1.6 There are separate relationship centre terms and conditions which apply between you and the relationship centre.

Product agreements and service agreements

1.7 A product agreement or service agreement entered into with a booking centre binds that booking centre only (unless expressly stated otherwise), and not other booking centres or your relationship centre. Similarly, an agreement with your relationship centre binds the relationship centre only. Neither your relationship centre nor your Private Bankers or other employees or agents have the authority to act or enter into a product agreement or service agreement on behalf of a booking centre.

1.8 If you are not domiciled in the same location as your booking centre(s), additional terms and conditions may apply as notified by us.

1.9 While your relationship centre is authorised to give you information about products or services offered by us, neither your relationship centre nor the Private Bankers or other employees or agents have any authority to make representations or agree to terms that are not already set out in a product agreement or service agreement.

1.10 In the course of our private banking relationship, if you want to use or purchase a product or service, you may need to complete an application to ask us to approve your use or purchase of it. Different eligibility criteria may apply to different products or services. Some products or services may not be available to you depending on your location, domicile or nationality. We may refuse an application for any reason and, unless required by applicable law, we do not need to give you a reason for doing so.

1.11 If we agree to provide a product or service to you the terms and conditions on which you may purchase or use the product or service will form our product agreement or service agreement, as the case may be. Each product agreement or service agreement is made up of the following documents, as may be applicable:

- the application;
- the product terms or service terms;
- any letter of offer;
- any approval, confirmation or transaction record;
- the fee schedule;
- these booking centre terms and conditions read together with the account opening application;
- any risk disclosure statements or guidelines we issue in connection with the use of a product or service (for example, guidelines for use of electronic banking services); and
- any other terms and conditions that form part of our product agreement or service agreement as varied or replaced from time to time.

In these booking centre terms and conditions, where we use the words “product” or “service”, we do so interchangeably for convenience. If the context allows, a reference to a product includes a service, a reference to product terms includes service terms, and a reference to product agreement includes service agreement. The reverse also applies.
1.12 The terms of our product agreement or service agreement apply to each purchase or use of a product or service by you, including any authorised person. If you do not agree with or understand the terms of our product agreement or service agreement, you should not carry out the transaction or access any account we maintain for you.

1.13 If you have any concerns about these booking centre terms and conditions, any product or service, or any product agreement, service agreement or facility documentation, we recommend you seek assistance from independent financial, tax or legal advisers as may be appropriate.

1.14 Your private banking account should only be used for the purpose of investing or wealth management through Standard Chartered Private Bank or any other booking centre(s) in the course of your private banking relationship with another member of the Standard Chartered Group. We may refuse to accept, effect or process any instructions or requests (which shall include instructions or requests for withdrawals or transfers) that we, in our absolute discretion, consider to be for or in connection with your business activities. We may require additional information or documents or impose additional conditions in order to process any deposits, instructions or requests. You agree to give us any information we may ask for, relating to such deposits, instructions or requests, or pursuant to any enquiries we may make pursuant to any applicable law or to fulfil our statutory and regulatory obligations.

1.15 In relation to any products distributed or referred by us which originate from third party service providers, we may or may not act as your agent, any dispute over the contractual terms or performance of such products should be resolved between you and the third party service providers, and you agree that we owe you no liability with respect to the products except as otherwise explicitly indicated in the applicable product agreement or herein.

Interpretation

1.16 If there is any inconsistency between:

• these booking centre terms and conditions and any specific terms (such as product terms, service terms or any letter of offer or collateral document), the specific terms prevail; and
• Section 1 of these booking centre terms and conditions and Section 2 to Section 6 of these booking centre terms and conditions, Section 2 to Section 6 will prevail.

1.17 These booking centre terms and conditions and the account(s) we maintain for you are subject to applicable law. If and to the extent that any provision of applicable law conflicts with any provision of these booking centre terms and conditions and such provision of applicable law cannot be varied contractually, such provision of applicable law shall prevail.

2. Pre-conditions to use of any product or service

2.1 Subject to applicable law we need not provide any funds to you or otherwise allow you to use a product or service if:

• we consider you may be in default;
• you have not satisfied any pre-conditions set out in our approval, the applicable product terms or service terms, elsewhere in our product agreement or service agreement or as we notify you at any time;
• you have not given us the collateral we require in addition to the collateral set out in Section 1 Part F (Collateral);
• we consider that you may not be able to satisfy your obligations to us under our product agreement or service agreement. We may determine this is the case if, for example, there has been a change in your financial position since the date of your application;
• we advise you that funds can only be provided or the product or service can only be used during a specified period (for example, the availability period), and that period has expired;
• you have not provided us with all documents and information we reasonably request;
• you provide any incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or document or make an incorrect or misleading representation or warranty;
• circumstances beyond our control occur which prevent us from providing the product or service to you; or
• if we reasonably determine that it would involve a breach of any applicable law or be inconsistent with our policy or prudent banking practice.

In addition, for some products and services, we need not provide funds to you or otherwise allow you to use the product or service if, in our absolute discretion, we decide not to do so. You should check the applicable product terms or service terms.

3. Minimum account balance

3.1 We may require you to maintain a minimum account balance. If you do not maintain any minimum account balance we set, we may charge a fee to the account we maintain for you. For details of the minimum balance or applicable fee, please contact your Private Banker or refer to our fee schedule.

4. Review

4.1 We may review these booking centre terms and conditions, the product terms or the service terms at any time. We may, subject to applicable law or the product terms or service terms:

• terminate any banking relationship (including closing any account we maintain for you) without giving reasons;
• terminate or cancel a product agreement or service agreement;
• adjust any limit or interest rate applying to the product or service or vary its term;
• ask you to place additional assets with us in order for us to continue to provide you with any product or service or continue our banking relationship with you;
• require additional collateral; and/or
• otherwise vary these booking centre terms and conditions or the terms of our product agreement or service agreement.
Client categorisation

4.2 We may have to categorise our customers in accordance with applicable law to reflect the level of consumer protection to which customers are entitled. Investors who qualify as private bank clients are generally afforded less protection and compensation rights than what may be available to retail clients. If your circumstances change upon or after you enter into these booking centre terms and conditions, you must inform us immediately.

You remain responsible for your decisions

4.3 You remain responsible for all decisions on whether to invest in, hold or dispose of any investment or to enter into any product agreement or service agreement. We will only enter into transactions you instruct. You should also see clause 82.7.

4.4 You should consider if the features and risks of any product or service are consistent with your risk tolerance, investment objectives, investment experience or sophistication, financial condition, financial needs, personal circumstances and other considerations that may be relevant to you.

4.5 There is no guarantee that any investment will provide a return or that it will meet your investment objectives. You retain full responsibility for making all investment decisions to buy or sell or otherwise deal in investments and will not hold us liable for any losses as a result of your investment or dealing.

4.6 We do not guarantee that any investment will provide a return or that it will meet your investment objectives. It is important to remember that investments may go down as well as up and that past performance is not a guarantee of future performance.

4.7 Particular risks attach to different investments in relation to which we provide booking centre services to you. We have summarised some of these risks in a separate risk disclosure statement. In addition, there may be other risks which attach to particular products; please see the product specific terms for the relevant product.

4.8 It is important that you read carefully and understand all risk disclosure statements we, or your booking centre(s), provide you to familiarise yourself with the risks of any particular investment.

PART B: INSTRUCTIONS, NOTIFICATIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

5. Instructions

Form of instructions

5.1 You may provide instructions to us through your relationship centre (by providing instructions to your Private Banker) or directly to us through various channels including any electronic banking service. Unless we, as your booking centre, or your relationship centre, tell you that instructions must be given in a particular way, we may also accept instructions by telephone, fax or any electronic means, subject to the execution and provision of any documents we may require. All instructions must be received within the prescribed timelines and to the address, telephone or fax number, or email address designated by us to receive such instructions. We may designate different addresses, telephone or fax numbers, or email addresses, for different types of instructions and for different booking centres. We reserve the right to act on any instructions only after we have verified them. You are responsible for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of instructions. You should also see clauses 7 and 11.

5.2 All instructions you deliver to us or your relationship centre in relation to an account we maintain for you, are irrevocable and binding on you.

How we may act

5.3 You authorise us to act on instructions from you (including any instructions we reasonably believe to have been given by you), or from your relationship centre on your behalf.

5.4 We may at our absolute discretion:

- act on any incomplete or unclear instructions if we reasonably believe we, or your relationship centre, can complete, clarify or correct the information without referring to you. Notwithstanding this discretion, we may refuse to act on incomplete or unclear instructions;
- refuse to act or act on one or more instructions which conflict with each other;
- determine the order of acting if multiple instructions are received;
- specify conditions on which we accept any instructions, including the execution or provision of additional documents;
- act or refuse to act if we have suspended an account we maintain for you or if we placed limits on a sub-account for a particular product which would otherwise be breached;
- require verification of any instruction we receive before acting on it;
- act on instructions which we reasonably believe to be authentic as long as we have acted in good faith and in accordance with our usual business practice and procedure in verifying the authenticity of the instructions;
- act as otherwise set out in the product terms or service terms;
- refuse to act if we reasonably believe that you have no legal or mental capacity to give instructions;
- act in accordance with our usual business practice and procedure and we need only accept instructions if we consider it reasonable and practicable to do so. For example, we may refuse to act if (i) an instruction may involve a breach of our policy, any security procedure or any applicable law or any sanction or (ii) an instruction is inconsistent with prudent banking practice or (iii) an instruction would result in an unarranged overdraft on an account we maintain for you or (iv) we believe or suspect the instruction is unauthorised;
- refuse to act on your instructions for any reason, and without giving reasons; or
6. Notices and communications

Contact Information

6.1 You must give us in writing your address and contact information for receipt of notices and other communications. Unless otherwise agreed, notices and communications will be sent to the address and contact information designated by you. If these details change, you must tell us so that you can continue to receive notices and communications from us and your relationship centre. We are entitled to treat the most recent address and contact information that you provided to Standard Chartered Group as your current address and contact information, until you tell us otherwise in accordance with this clause, and to provide this information to your relationship centre on your behalf.

6.2 If you do not provide us with your updated address or contact information, you will bear any loss that may arise from you not receiving notices and communications. We may suspend or stop sending you notices and communications if we reasonably believe that you are no longer reachable at the address or contact information last notified to us. In such event, you waive all requirements of notice applicable under these booking centre terms and conditions.

- if sent by email or other electronic means, at the time of transmission, unless we receive a delivery failure receipt;

6.4 In some cases, our notices and communications may be made as public announcements in daily newspapers, posted at any of our branches, automatic teller machines or our website. In such cases, they are effective at the time of publication or posting, or such other time that we may state in the communication.

Notices and communications to joint account holders

6.5 If you are joint account holders, notices and communications (including notice of any variation to these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement, or any confirmations, advice or statements) sent to the address or contact information you have provided to us for receipt of notices and other communications in connection with an account we maintain for you are deemed to be received by each account holder.

7.1 You acknowledge and accept the risks of giving instructions to us or communicating with us by post, telephone, fax or other electronic means. These include:

- the risk of any instruction or communication being intercepted or given by an unauthorised person;
- the risk that we may not actually receive the instructions or communications, or that they are delayed or incomplete when received;
- the risk that we may act on instructions more than once if you send the same instruction to us in different forms;
- the risk that any information sent by electronic means cannot be guaranteed to be secure or free from tampering, viruses or other forms of malware;
- the risk that any information sent by electronic means may be lost or corrupted during transmission or may be delayed or redirected to "junk" or "spam" categories or elsewhere;
- the risk that such information may be viewed, received, accessed or disclosed by or to third parties other than the intended recipient(s); and
- the risk that any information sent by electronic means may be inaccurate, incomplete, unintelligible and/or unintended.

To the extent permitted under applicable law, you agree to bear all such risks and agree to indemnify us for any loss incurred as a result of us (or you) acting on such instructions or communications unless the loss is directly caused by our negligence, willful default or fraud. You further agree and acknowledge that we shall not be liable for (i) the security and confidentiality of information outside of our internal systems or (ii) the use of or reliance by you (or by us) or any third party on information transmitted by electronic means from us to you (or from you to us) for any purpose, including for investment, business or other purposes.

We may not inform the caller/user when we do. We or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group may also keep records of such telephone conversations and/or of other electronic communications. If required by applicable law, we may give you access to such recordings or communications as long as we have them in our possession. We may use the recorded conversations or communications (or transcripts of such conversations or communications) in any dispute and you agree not to challenge their validity or admissibility. You agree that the recorded conversations and communications remain our property and we will retain them as required by applicable law. Not all telephone conversations and electronic communications will be recorded.

Electronic communications and contracts

7.4 You acknowledge that all instructions or communications provided by electronic means (and our records of those instructions) are original documents in writing. You agree not to challenge their validity, admissibility or enforceability on the basis they are in electronic form or that they were sent by electronic means. You should also see clause 11.

7.5 You understand that electronically executed contracts are enforceable despite the risks associated with them.

Digital signatures

7.6 Instructions or communications digitally signed as per applicable law will have the same validity, admissibility and enforceability as if signed in writing.

7.7 Any communication that is digitally signed must comply with any applicable law.
8. Information you give

Information must be correct

8.1 Each time we offer a product to you or you use a product, we rely on the information you give to us and/or your relationship centre. You agree that, if necessary, we are authorised to access your information from your relationship centre, and/or we are authorised to provide your information to your relationship centre. Any information you give to us or your relationship centre must be correct, complete and not misleading. You must ensure that all of your assets are and will remain beneficially owned by you (unless you are entering these booking centre terms and conditions in your capacity as trustee of a trust) and that throughout the duration of these booking centre terms and conditions, you will not without prior consent remove, charge or otherwise deal with money, investments or other property deposited with us or held by us or to our order.

We will not be responsible for any loss incurred by you due to your failure to notify and/or update us promptly and correctly of any change to the information you have given us, including any information collected by your relationship centre.

8.3 If you are a corporate entity, partnership or trust, you must notify us if there is any change in your ownership or the persons having control of you (for example, beneficial owners, directors, partners or trust managers) immediately upon the change.

What you must give us

8.4 If we ask you to, you will give us any information or documents about you, your financial affairs, your tax affairs or any other information we reasonably require. This is likely to include information to enable us to verify your business and wealth, your identity, such as your passport and driving licence or any other official form of identification and information that will enable us to assess your ability to meet your obligations in respect of the credit facilities or trading facilities. If you are a corporate entity, partnership or trust you also agree to give us any information about, or documents in connection with, your affairs. This includes information such as constitutions documents, company accounts, partnership agreements or trust deeds. You must tell us of, and give us all information we ask for, relating to any beneficial owner, account signatory or authorised person. All information or documents must be in the form we require and certified by a person acceptable to us to be true. 8.5 If you are in default or think you may become in default, you must immediately tell us.

8.6 If there is any material change to the information you provide to us under these booking centre terms and conditions, you must immediately tell us. Any change to the information you provide shall only be required to take effect in our records within 5 banking days after we receive your notice of such change, provided that no further clarification or information is required by us.

h) any actual or proposed assignee of all or any part of the business and/or asset of the Standard Chartered Group or participant or sub-participant or transferee of our rights in respect of any product agreement;

i) any court, tribunal, regulator or supervisory, governmental or quasi-governmental authority (including an authority investigating an offence) with jurisdiction over any of the permitted parties, or any fraud prevention agencies or any enforcement agencies;

j) any regulator, authority or tax authority where necessary to establish any tax status or tax liability in any jurisdiction pursuant to orders, requests, agreements with regulators or authorities or otherwise;

k) any person to whom disclosure is allowed or required by applicable law;

l) any person whom you, by your conduct or otherwise consent to such disclosure (for example, if you ask that person to accompany you to a meeting with us);

m) anyone we in good faith consider necessary in order to provide you with a product or service in connection with an account, regardless of where they are located;

n) any account signatory, authorised person, collateral provider or any person holding a power of attorney or signatory authority;

o) any other person to whom you have given your consent to such disclosure; and

p) any person to whom we have a public duty to disclose or where such disclosure is necessary to protect our interests, regardless where they are located.
9.5 You consent to the recipients of the information to whom we disclose, using and transferring the information where it is necessary to provide you with products and services in connection with any of the account(s), to monitor Standard Chartered Group’s compliance with applicable law, agreements with any regulator or authority and any relevant policies or procedures of the Standard Chartered Group, or to support the Standard Chartered Group’s business, financial and risk monitoring, planning and decision making or in such manner allowed or required under applicable law.

9.6 If you give us information relating to other individuals (e.g. account signatories, authorised persons or beneficial owners), you must ensure that you have the authority or their consent to pass their information to us or (if no such authority or consent is required) you are not prohibited from passing such information to us.

9.7 In accordance with this clause 9 you consent to any member of the Standard Chartered Group providing or making public your information where, in its reasonable opinion, it is required to do so under applicable law. You undertake to provide any member of the Standard Chartered Group with any information it may require, within such time periods as may be required, to comply with its obligations described in this clause 9 and any other applicable law. You represent and warrant that all information provided by you to Standard Chartered Group and held by Standard Chartered Group is and will be complete, up-to-date and accurate at all times.

9.8 We may make searches about you at credit reference agencies and using other sources for the purposes of identity verification, credit assessment, fraud and crime prevention or debt collection. Credit reference agencies record details of searches and default information, which other financial institutions may access for their own purposes. Banks and credit reference agencies may link your information to records relating to other persons with whom you have a financial relationship (this link will remain until you or the other person files for disassociation).

Retention of information

9.9 We will keep information relating to you for as long as it is necessary for legal or business purposes.

10. Statements and transaction records

10.1 We issue statements for the account(s) we maintain for you periodically and these may or may not be consolidated statements of all your accounts or product agreements with us. We may choose not to issue statements for a dormant account or where we are not required by applicable law to do so, or where our policy, security procedures or the requirements of any authority (including any sanction) prohibit us from doing so. Information about account(s) we maintain for you (including the balance owing) may be obtained at any other time by contacting us. Other than where we are required by applicable law to do so, we may also choose to issue transaction records in the form of confirmations and advices for individual transactions. You are responsible for checking all statements and transaction records for errors. You must notify us without undue delay if you query or dispute any item on your statements and transaction records. To the extent your relationship centre provides any summaries, consolidations, excerpts or any other report or information with respect to the account(s) we maintain for you, or products, you acknowledge that such information may not be consistent with your official statements and transaction records, and will only be provided to you on a non-reliance basis. We will not be liable for any such inconsistencies.

10.2 We will send the statements and transaction records to the mailing address you provide to us unless you instruct us otherwise.

10.3 You can ask your Private Banker for more frequent statements or an interim statement in respect of the balance (rather than specific activities) of your account(s) we maintain for you.

If you think there is any error

10.4 You should retain all statements and transaction records to enable you to verify entries. You must check all statements and transaction records for errors as soon as you receive them. You must report any error to us as soon as possible. Unless you report any error to us within the period stated in the statements or transaction records, or any minimum period required under applicable law, we treat the statement or transaction record as correct, and it is binding on you.

10.5 The date which appears on the transaction record may vary from the date that appears on your statement. This is because transactions completed on non-banking days and after “cut-off” time on banking days may be held over to be processed on the next banking day.

Our records are conclusive

10.6 Unless there is an obvious error:

- our records (whether in paper, electronic data or other form) of an instruction, report, statement or other communication are conclusive evidence of their contents or our receipt or non-receipt of them; and
- any certificate we issue, or decision we make, about a matter or an amount payable in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement is conclusive evidence.

You acknowledge that we may destroy, erase or otherwise cease to maintain any records (whether in paper, electronic data or other form) as we consider appropriate after such time as permitted by applicable law.

11. Security requirements

11.1 When providing products and/or services to you, we want to reduce the risk of fraud against you, us and your relationship centre. We will, therefore ask you to comply with certain security requirements.

11.2 The form that these security requirements will take will depend on the products and/or services which we provide to you. When we contact you or you contact us, we will need to check your identity before you can give us instructions or before we can disclose or discuss confidential information about the products and/or services which we provide to you. In order to help us with this:

- you must sign instructions which you give to us in writing;
- we may ask you for proof of your identity (e.g. a passport, a local identity card or other photo identification) when you come into a branch and wish to give us instructions or discuss the products and/or services with us;
12. Information we give

12.1 We may from time to time provide you with prices quoted from a price quoting agency or third party source, or from a market that prices

12.2 If we provide

13. Commissions

13.1 When conducting business for you, we or your relationship centre may receive commissions or other benefits from third parties, such as brokers or third parties if you are introduced to us or by us, in relation to that business to the extent permitted by applicable law. We may also pay out commissions or other benefits to third parties when conducting business for you.

13.2 Unless required by applicable law, neither we nor your relationship centre have to account to you for such commission, nor will we set off the commission against any fees you owe us.

14. Interest, fees and costs

14.1 You need to ensure you are aware of and understand the commissions, interest (including negative interest), fees and costs referred to in these booking centre terms and conditions or that may be payable by you in connection with an account we maintain for you or a product agreement. These are set out in our fee schedule, facility agreement or are available by contacting us.

14.2 Our fee schedule is revised periodically and you must pay the commissions, interest, fees and costs applying at the relevant time.
14.3 You must pay the commissions, interest, fees and costs applying to a product from time to time. Commission, interest rates (including our base lending rates), fees and costs are revised periodically. We will periodically notify you in writing of our commissions, interest rates, fees and costs from time to time, alternatively you can find out our current commissions, interest rates, fees and costs by contacting us at any time.

14.4 If an account we maintain for you or a product agreement tracks a reference interest rate, such as a central bank base rate, that rate will change automatically on a change in the reference interest rate. This will happen immediately after the reference rate has changed. You can contact your Private Banker at any time to find out the current reference rate on any accounts we maintain for you. You should also see clause 25.11.

14.5 Unless expressly stated otherwise, any fees or costs of which we notify you in relation to these booking centre terms and conditions or that may be payable by you in connection with an account we maintain for you or product agreement do not cover the interest, fees and costs chargeable in relation to the relationship services provided by the relationship centre. For further details on the interest, fees and costs chargeable by the relevant relationship centre, please refer to your relationship centre terms and conditions.

Service fees

14.6 Additional fees and costs may apply in the case of services provided in connection with a product, for example, certain types of deposits and payments such as foreign currency deposits and sending/receiving money offshore (including fees and costs charged by third party service providers) and such fees and costs may be deducted from your account(s) we maintain for you.

Default interest

14.7 From the time any amount under a product agreement is overdue for payment until it is paid, you must pay interest at the default rate on the overdue amount when we ask. Any member of the Standard Chartered Group may change the default rate at any time at its absolute discretion, acting reasonably and in good faith, and any such change will take effect upon the date of our notice.

Calculation

14.8 Any interest or fee payable under a product agreement accrues, and is calculated, in accordance with our usual practice. If we agree to capitalise interest (or if default interest is charged under clause 14.7), we may add to the outstanding principal amount any interest under this clause which has not been paid. You are then liable for interest under this clause on the total amount.

14.9 Unless otherwise stated, interest we charge accrues daily and on the basis of a 365 day year (for GBP, HKD, SGD and any other currency we may designate from time to time) or a 360 day year (for other currencies), in both ordinary and leap years. Interest continues to be charged, and we shall be entitled to capitalise interest in relation to any outstanding amount notwithstanding the termination of any account or credit facility or your relationship with us, until payment in full or all amount owing by you to us before as well as after any judgment we obtain.

14.10 Interest rates applicable to a product may be based on or may reference a base rate. If, in each case in our reasonable opinion: (i) a base rate has or will be permanently or indefinitely discontinued; (ii) the methodology, formula or other means of determining a base rate has materially changed; (iii) a base rate is otherwise no longer appropriate for the purposes of calculating interest under any product agreement or (iv) we are unable to determine a base rate for any other reason, we may substitute such base rate with a standard market interest rate generally accepted, in our reasonable opinion, in the international or domestic markets for such product as the appropriate successor to such base rate or we may calculate such base rate with reference to any appropriate source or method as determined by us.

14.11 The base lending rates we commonly use include:

- variable lending rate; or
- HIBOR; or
- SIBOR; or
- LIBOR; or
- prime lending rate or best lending rate, as we determine and notify you from time to time.

No refund

14.12 Subject to applicable law you are not entitled to any refund of any interest, fees or costs you have paid including where you do not use a product or a product agreement ends or the booking centre services end.

Costs on cancellation

14.13 If you end a product agreement or cancel a product before using it, we may, subject to applicable law, require you to pay interest, fees and costs incurred in connection with the product agreement or product. This includes any legal fees and costs in connection with preparation of documents even if these documents have not been signed.

15. You indemnify us

15.1 Subject to applicable law, you indemnify the Standard Chartered Group and any director, officer, employee or agent of any of them against, and must pay to any member of the Standard Chartered Group on demand for, any loss it reasonably incurs in connection with:

a) any account, the establishment and provision of any product or any other transaction contemplated by a product agreement;
b) searches and enquiries we make in connection with you or a collateral provider (including checking for insolvency);
c) instructions you give us;
d) any product or service provided by a third party for your benefit (including legal fees and costs);
e) any tax payable by us on, or calculated by reference to, any amount paid or payable by you to us (excluding any tax payable by us by reference to our net income);

f) us acting on, delaying or refusing to act on instructions from you or taking action against you;

g) a default;

h) any amount payable by you under a product agreement being repaid, discharged or made payable before its due date (the loss we incur includes our loss in connection with unwinding, terminating or changing arrangements we have made to fund or maintain our funding of any product);

i) an increased cost in connection with a change in applicable law;

j) any person exercising, or not exercising, rights under a product agreement or against any collateral (including enforcement action and debt collection costs, such as valuation fees and auctioneer’s charges); and

k) any litigation brought by you or any third party about any account, product, service, or the relationship services where we are joined as a party to the proceedings.

15.2 If we ask, you must appear and defend at your own cost and expense any action which may be brought against us in connection with a product agreement. If you ask us to commence legal action on your behalf in connection with a product agreement, you must indemnify us fully for all losses that may arise.

15.3 You must sign any document we reasonably require to give effect to this clause 15.

16. Payments - generally

Payments in full

16.1 All payments you must make to us under a product agreement or service agreement must be received by us on the due date in full and in immediately available funds in the currency we specify and without set-off, counterclaim or deduction or withholding (including on account of any tax). If you are required to deduct or withhold any amount, the payment you make to us must be increased so that the amount of the payment we receive after the deduction or withholding is equal to the amount otherwise payable.

Independent payment obligations

16.2 Your obligation to pay any amount under a product agreement is separate from each other obligation to pay.

Right to withhold

16.3 Any member of the Standard Chartered Group may withhold payment of any amount due to you until it is satisfied that it has received or will receive payment of any amount due from you to any member of the Standard Chartered Group.

Banking days

16.4 Unless otherwise stated in the product terms, if an amount is due on a day which is not a banking day, you must pay it on or before the next banking day unless that day falls in the next calendar month, in which case you must pay it to us on or before the preceding banking day.

Debiting accounts

16.5 We may debit (without prior notice to you) any interest, fees, costs or any other amount you owe us in connection with a product to any account(s) we maintain for you.

Allowing a payment despite a lack of funds

16.6 If you have a lack of funds in any account(s) we maintain for you in respect of which we are entitled to debit amounts you owe us, yet we still decide to allow a payment despite the lack of funds, our action does not constitute a waiver or otherwise affect our rights under a product agreement.

Overdrawing an account

16.7 If we allow an account we maintain for you to be overdrawn:

a) the amount by which the account is overdrawn is treated as an advance by us to you and you owe us a debt equal to that amount;

b) when we ask, you must repay that advance and any interest which is calculated in accordance with our usual practice for overdrafts and which may be at a default rate. Such interest accrues daily and compounded monthly (or other interval that we determine) and calculated on the basis of a 365 day year (for GBP, HKD, SGD and any other currency we may designate from time to time) or a 360 day year (for other currencies), in both ordinary and leap years; and

c) we may impose additional conditions or require additional collateral.

Honouring payments

16.8 You must ensure that any payment instrument or payment instruction for a payment to us is honoured. For example, you must:

a) ensure that you have sufficient funds in the relevant account(s) we maintain for you to allow a payment (including any account with another financial institution);

b) not stop payments to us; and

c) not cancel or vary any payment arrangement (unless we ask you to do so to reflect a change in the instalments).
17. Currency conversion and indemnity

17.1 We may make currency conversions in respect of any money received for you within/from outside the location of your booking centre(s) or money sent by you within/ outside the location of your booking centre(s) at a rate we reasonably consider appropriate. You indemnify us for any shortfall, costs or loss arising from the conversion.
Payment in other currency

17.2 You waive any right you have in any jurisdiction to pay any amount other than in the currency in which it is due. If we receive from you or from a third party on your behalf an amount in a currency other than that in which it is due:
- we may convert the amount into the due currency on the date and at rates we reasonably consider appropriate. We may deduct our fees and costs incurred in the conversion; and
- you satisfy your obligations to pay in the due currency only to the extent of the amount of the due currency obtained from the conversion after deducting the fees and costs of the conversion.

Conversion after default

17.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of a product agreement, at any time after you are in default, we may convert to the base currency (at an exchange rate determined by us) any part of the balance owing that is due to us in any other currency. In addition, where the collateral includes property and a credit facility is drawn in a currency other than the property currency, we may convert to the property currency (at an exchange rate determined by us) any part of the balance owing that is due to us in any other currency.

17.4 The foreign currency obligation is then taken to be replaced with an obligation to pay us the amount of the base currency after conversion, plus the fees and costs of the conversion.

Conversion on judgment debt, orders, directives issued under applicable law

17.5 If a judgment, order, directive issued under any applicable law or by any regulator or authority, pursuant to agreement with any regulator or authority, or proof of debt for or the recovery of an amount is expressed in a currency other than that in which the amount is due, then you indemnify us against:
- any difference arising from converting the other currency if the exchange rate we use for converting currency when we receive a payment in the other currency is less favourable to us than the exchange rate used for the purpose of the judgment, order, directive issued under any applicable law or by any regulator or authority, pursuant to agreement with any regulator or authority or acceptance of proof of debt; and
- the fees and costs of conversion.

Currency restrictions

17.6 If a country restricts the availability or transfer of its currency, we may designate that any payment to us be made in another currency we reasonably consider appropriate. Similarly, if we cannot pay you for this reason, or because of government restrictions beyond our control, we may discharge our obligations by paying you or paying to your order such funds at any time (whether before, on or after maturity), in any currency and in such manner as we may determine in our absolute discretion. We may use any exchange rate we choose for this purpose. All foreign currency transactions are subject to applicable exchange control laws.

PART E: TERMINATION, SUSPENSION AND ENFORCEMENT

18. Termination and suspension

How to close an account

18.1 You may close an account we maintain for you by giving 30 days’ notice in writing. When the account we maintain for you has been closed, these booking centre terms and conditions will end. If all your account(s) have closed, your relationship centre terms and conditions will be automatically terminated. If you provide notice of termination of the relationship services to your relationship centre, that shall be deemed to be your irrevocable notice to us and each of your booking centres to close the account(s) maintained for you, unless you have agreed that a different relationship centre will provide you with relationship services immediately after the termination of the relationship centre terms and conditions. You will only be able to terminate these booking centre terms and conditions if the conditions in any relevant service specific terms (e.g. banking terms; investment terms) have been satisfied.

18.2 We may close an account we maintain for you and end your banking agreements with us at any time by giving you 30 days notice in writing. We do not need to give you any reasons unless required by applicable law.

18.3 In exceptional circumstances, we may close an account we maintain for you immediately and notify you afterwards if we reasonably believe that you have breached any terms of these booking centre terms and conditions, for example by:
- giving us any false information at any time;
- using (or allowing someone else to use) the account(s) we maintain for you or service illegally or for criminal activity;
- using (or allowing someone else to use) the account(s) we maintain for you in contravention of clause 1.14;
- inappropriately authorising a person to give instructions to operate an account we maintain for you or any other service which we maintain and/or provide to you;
- behaving in a manner (for example by abusing people who work for us) that makes it inappropriate for us to operate an account we maintain for you or to continue to provide you with a service; or
- putting us in a position where we might break any applicable law, regulation, code or other duty which applies to us if we continue to operate an account we maintain for you or continue to provide you with a service.

What happens on closure of an account

18.4 After an account we maintain for you has been closed:
- all product agreements come to an end. You should also see clause 19.4.
- you must not use the account we maintain for you or any benefits in connection with the account we maintain for you; and
• we will pay to you the amounts owing to you less all amounts owing by you to us, including the balance owing for all account(s) we maintain for you and for all products with us. We may do so by sending you a cheque to your last known address at the time of closure of the account(s) we maintain for you.

18.5 These booking centre terms and conditions will continue to apply to an account we maintain for you until all amounts you owe on the account we maintain for you and any other amounts which you owe us have been paid, any documentation relating to that account we maintain for you have been returned to us, and all obligations under a product agreement have been fully complied with.

Suspension

18.6 We may suspend an account we maintain for you at any time for any reason (even if there is no default). If we do, and if permitted by applicable law, we will notify you as soon as practicable. If we suspend an account we maintain for you, you may not be able to use some or all products and you will not be able to enter into any new product agreements with us.

18.7 Without prejudice to clause 18.6, we may suspend an account we maintain for you in the following circumstances:

• where you fail to provide us with any information which we reasonably require from you in order to provide products and services to you;
• where we reasonably consider that it appears unlikely that you will be able to repay any amounts which you owe to us (for example in the case of your bankruptcy or insolvency) or if we reasonably consider you to be in default;
• in the event of your incapacity or death (to our reasonable knowledge or belief), until a person responsible for administering your affairs is legally appointed;
• where continued provision of products and services would be illegal or in violation of applicable law, regulation, order, sanction, or agreement with any regulator or authority, or where we reasonably believe that by continuing to provide products and services to you it may damage our reputation;
• where we reasonably suspect unauthorised or fraudulent behaviour in your use of products and services;
• where you are using (or allowing someone else to use) the account(s) we maintain for you in contravention of clause 1.14;
• where you are a corporate entity, there is a change of ownership or management of such entity; and
• in the event of circumstances beyond our control.

Blocking accounts or withholding of funds

18.8 We may block any account we maintain for you (and later remove the block) at any time or withhold amounts in any account we maintain for you at any time, if a court, a regulator or an authority requires us to do so, or we are otherwise required by applicable law or pursuant to agreements with any regulator or any authority to do so, or if we need to comply with internal policies associated with any applicable order or sanction of any regulator or any authority.

No effect on rights and liabilities

18.9 Ending these booking centre terms and conditions or suspending an account we maintain for you does not affect any of the rights and obligations of either of us which arose before it terminated or was suspended. Subject to applicable law, you are not entitled to any refund of any fee or amount paid or subsidy received in connection with any product or service we provide to you in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions. All provisions in these booking centre terms and conditions in connection with claw-backs, indemnities, limitation of liability, disclosure of information, set-off, currency conversion, tax, and the provisions in Section 1 Part F (Collateral) and Section 1 Part G (General) survive termination of a banking relationship or suspension of an account we maintain for you.

19. Termination or suspension of a product agreement or your use of a product or service

How a product agreement or your use of a product ends

19.1 Either you or we may end your use of a product or a product agreement or a service in accordance with the terms of the relevant product agreement or service agreement. We will usually give you not less than 30 days written notice of termination, although in some circumstances the terms of the relevant product agreement or service agreement require that we provide you with more than 30 days written notice or allow us to terminate the provision of a service without notice.

19.2 In addition, we may, subject to applicable law, end these booking centre terms and conditions, any (or all) of our product agreements or service agreements, without prior notice to you, if:

• you do not comply with or are in breach of these booking centre terms and conditions, the relationship centre terms and conditions, product agreement or service agreement and/or any other undertaking with any member of the Standard Chartered Group;
• you do not pay, or make any delivery to any member of the Standard Chartered Group on the due date or on demand (as the case may be) any sums of money, or of any asset, outstanding under any product agreement or service agreement or any other arrangement you have entered into with a member of the Standard Chartered Group (this includes if you have not ensured there are sufficient funds available in an account which has been nominated for debiting payment) or you do not furnish any member of the Standard Chartered Group with adequate collateral acceptable to it promptly on our demand;
• you or a collateral provider does not comply with or has breached any term of any facility documentation, or any facility documentation ceases to be in full force and effect;
• you or a collateral provider have given us incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or made a representation or warranty that is incorrect or misleading in any material respect;
• you have breached any term of any arrangement you have with another financial institution or another financial institution has exercised its right to suspend or terminate your use of any banking facility or enforce on any security interest you give it;
• legal proceedings to recover debts are commenced against you or any collateral provider, or any of your or any collateral provider’s property is subject to enforcement of a judgment by any party;
• you or a collateral provider is unable or deemed to be unable to pay your or its debts when they fall due, becomes insolvent, or any of your or their assets are subject to insolvency proceedings;
• your or a collateral provider’s credit standing or financial position becomes, in our opinion, materially weaker;
• we reasonably believe that you or any collateral provider have died or become incapacitated (where you or the collateral provider are natural persons);
• you or any collateral provider acts fraudulently or dishonestly or behaves in a manner that makes it inappropriate or illegal for us to continue to provide you with a product or service;
• criminal investigations or proceedings are commenced against you or a collateral provider or you or a collateral provider are convicted of a crime;
• any business you or a collateral provider own or operate is not carried on in a proper manner or you or a collateral provider cease to own or operate it or a substantial part of it, or change it significantly without our consent;
• we consider that a product or service is being used in an irregular, illegal or improper manner;
• you or any collateral provider are a corporate entity, and there is, in our opinion, any change of control of you or any collateral provider without our prior written consent;
• a material adverse circumstance occurs which in our opinion gives reasonable grounds to believe that you or a collateral provider may not or may be unable to perform your or its obligations under these booking terms and conditions, a product agreement, service agreement or collateral document;
• we in good faith, and in our absolute discretion, consider that the performance of any obligation by either you or us under these booking terms and conditions, a product agreement, service agreement or collateral document is likely to breach any applicable law, or would be inconsistent with prudent banking practice, or may damage our reputation; or
• a right to suspend or terminate any relationship terms and conditions has arisen.
19.3 Our rights under this clause are in addition to and do not affect any of our other rights under any product agreements.

What happens on termination
19.4 After a product agreement for a product or service agreement for a service terminates, you must:
• not use the product or service or any benefits in connection with the product or service;
• immediately repay all amounts owing to us under the product agreement including the balance owing for the account(s) we maintain for you for the product as well as any unwind costs for termination costs and any costs, expenses, taxes, duties, fees, commission, losses incurred or suffered by any member of the Standard Chartered Group as a result of and/or in connection with unwinding any hedge relating to the product;
• do any other thing which the product agreement or service agreement requires to be done when your right to use the product or service terminates.

No effect on rights and liabilities
19.5 Terminating a product agreement or the right to use a product does not affect any of the rights and obligations of either of us which arose before it terminated. Subject to applicable law, you are not entitled to any refund of any fee or amount paid or subsidy received in connection with the product. All provisions in the product agreement in connection with claw-backs, indemnities, limitation of liability, disclosure of information, set-off, currency conversion, tax, and the provisions in Section 1 Part F (Collateral) and Section 1 Part G (General) survive termination of the product agreement.
19.6 Any of our obligations to make payment of or deliver assets to you is subject to you not being in default.

Suspension
19.7 We may suspend providing a product or service at any time for any reason (even if there is no default). If we do, and if permitted by applicable law, we will notify you as soon as practicable. We agree to suspend provision of a product or service if you ask us to do so in writing. We will not be liable for such suspension.

20. Enforcement action
20.1 Any member of the Standard Chartered Group may take any action it considers appropriate to recover any amount owing to it or to enforce these booking terms and conditions, a product agreement or service agreement or any collateral document including:
• employing any third-party agent to collect any amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group;
• disposing of all or any part of the collateral to pay any amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group, or settling off any amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group, against all or part of the collateral;
• subject to applicable law, attaching the amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group to your or a collateral provider’s assets;
• taking steps to enforce the rights of any member of the Standard Chartered Group against your or a collateral provider’s assets such as by lodging caveats; and/or
• commencing legal proceedings against you or a collateral provider.
20.1 When enforcing our rights on or against any collateral, we are entitled to do so at the prevailing market price, or where one is not available, reasonably attribute a nominal value to the collateral. You should also see clauses 25.20 to 25.26 and clause 70 in Section 4.
21. Collateral

Adequate collateral

21.1 You agree to provide us with collateral we consider adequate to secure any amount you owe us at any time, including any amount you may owe us in the future. From time to time, we review the collateral required and may require you to provide further or alternative collateral. We may at any time change the manner in which we decide if collateral is adequate or inadequate.

Banker’s lien

21.2 In addition to any other collateral we require all assets we hold for you (other than assets which you have delivered to us for mere safe custody on terms which make this expressly clear) are subject to a banker’s lien to us. Without limiting our other rights, we may set-off any such asset against, or apply the lien as collateral for, or in or towards satisfaction of any amount you owe us, including any amount you may owe us in the future, or for the performance of your obligations, including any future obligations. We may sell or deal with the assets to pay such amounts or satisfy such obligations, and may do so without notifying you. You may not be able to withdraw the assets until these amounts are paid or obligations satisfied. You should also see clauses 16.3, 23.1 and 23.2.

Further collateral

21.3 In addition to any other collateral we may require, you agree to do all necessary acts (such as obtaining consents, signing and delivering documents (including any collateral documents) and getting such documents completed and signed) to:

- provide further or alternative collateral to us to secure any amount you owe us, including any amount you may owe us in the future;
- allow us to exercise our rights in connection with your assets.

21.4 We may also, without prior notice to you, move any asset you may have in any account with any member of the Standard Chartered Group to an account we maintain for you and hold the same as collateral. We may also transfer any assets you may have in any account held with us to any account you may hold with any other member of the Standard Chartered Group. We may do so in our reasonable discretion, in order to avoid a default under this agreement or under any agreement with any member of the Standard Chartered Group.

No dealing or encumbrance

21.5 You must not (and you must procure that each collateral provider does not) create or allow to exist any security interest in favour of any other party, or otherwise deal with any collateral without our written consent.

21.6 You must not (and you must procure that each collateral provider does not) create or allow to exist any security interest over any account we maintain for you in favour of any other party without our written consent.

Ensure compliance by collateral provider

21.7 You must ensure that each collateral provider complies with their obligations under the collateral they have provided to us.

Collateral continues until release

21.8 Any security under any collateral document continues until we have released it.

Appointment as attorney

21.9 You irrevocably appoint us and any other person we nominate as your attorney to execute documents (including any collateral document) and take other action that we consider necessary to create, enhance, perfect and enforce our security under any collateral document (including dealing with any collateral).

22. Valuations

22.1 If we ask, you must arrange, pay for and provide us with a valuation report in connection with any assets that are the subject of our collateral. Any valuation report must be in accordance with any requirements we specify. Alternatively, we may obtain a valuation report at your cost.

22.2 We may arrange for further valuation reports in connection with any asset which is the subject of our collateral at any time. We debit the cost of the valuation report from your account we maintain for you.

22.3 If as a result of the further valuation report, we consider that the collateral is inadequate, you must provide us with further collateral in form and substance we specify and is satisfactory to us.
PART G: GENERAL

23. Right of set-off

Set-off

23.1 Each member of the Standard Chartered Group may set-off any amount such member of the Standard Chartered Group owes you against any amount you owe any other member of the Standard Chartered Group, whether or not the obligation is matured or contingent. Each other member of the Standard Chartered Group may also combine or consolidate all accounts. After an injunction, a garnishee order or similar order of court is served on a member of the Standard Chartered Group, such member may set off any amounts you owe any member of the Standard Chartered Group before a final order is made. If any member of the Standard Chartered Group combines accounts, any credit funds held by you in your accounts may be applied to adjust the amount owing by you in relation to your other accounts. Each other member of the Standard Chartered Group may exercise its rights under this clause at any time (even if you are not in default or an event of default has occurred or is continuing).

23.2 If you have a joint account with any booking centre, each member of the Standard Chartered Group may set off any amount such member of the Standard Chartered Group owes you against any amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group by any account holder.

23.3 Each member of the Standard Chartered Group need not give you prior notice of its intention to exercise the right of set-off.

23.4 If we are legally required to hold money in an account we maintain for you in your name for someone else, or pay it to someone else, then unless otherwise required by applicable law, we will only hold for, or pay to, that person what is left after we have used our set-off rights to repay what you owe us.

23.5 For the purposes of clauses 23.1 and 23.2, each member of the Standard Chartered Group may make any necessary currency conversions at the rate we or they reasonably consider appropriate.

Our rights to sell your assets

23.6 We may sell, liquidate, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of your assets or collateral so far as is necessary to enable us to settle any transaction entered into on your behalf under these booking centre terms and conditions and to pay any outstanding liabilities arising under or in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions, including any liability you have to us.

24. Taxation

Government charges

24.1 You must also pay us an amount equal to any government charges and taxes (however described) on or in connection with account(s) we maintain for you a product agreement or a service agreement. These are payable whether or not you are primarily liable for those charges and taxes.

Your tax affairs

24.2 You are responsible for all taxes on account(s) we maintain for you. We may require you to provide us information to help us ascertain your tax status. You must provide us with complete, accurate and up to date information. If information relating to you changes, if you withhold information from us or if you give us incorrect or misleading information relating to you, you may become subject to charges or penalties, or you may be liable for an increased amount in taxes, or we may be required to withhold a higher amount of tax from you. You should seek independent professional tax advice. We may report a tax in cases where, we consider that we are or may be obliged to do so by an applicable law. If we ask you to do so, you must, on our request, accurately complete any relevant declarations of non-residence and other documents to enable us to determine whether we are obliged to report tax.

24.3 You are responsible for your own tax affairs. You understand that we take a firm stance on tax-illicit activities. This includes income tax, capital gains tax, inheritance tax, property or wealth tax, value-added tax, goods and services tax or stamp duty, regardless of where they apply. Our products and services are provided to you on the basis that you are fully tax compliant and that you have not committed nor have you ever been convicted of any serious tax offences in any jurisdiction. At all times, you must confirm that, to the best of your knowledge, you have not committed nor have you ever been convicted of any serious tax offences in any jurisdiction.

Tax advice

24.4 We do not offer you tax advice of any nature. If you are in doubt as to the tax implications of any product or in relation to the accounts we maintain for you, you should seek independent professional advice. You should remember that any tax treatment depends on your individual circumstances and may be subject to change.

Withholding tax

24.5 Interest or other income (such as dividend payments) earned by you for a product may be subject to withholding tax in accordance with applicable law.

24.6 If any applicable law requires us to withhold or deduct any tax from a payment due to you, you will receive the amount less the amount for the tax. If you have already received the amount for the tax, you will promptly pay that back to us. We will pay the amount for the tax in accordance with applicable law.

24.7 If applicable law requires you to deduct any tax from a payment to us, you must increase the amount payable so that, after making the deduction, we receive the amount we would have received as if no deduction had been required. You agree to pay an additional amount for the tax to the relevant authority in accordance with applicable law and give us the original receipts.
24.8 You may be eligible for lower rates of withholding tax available under tax treaties applicable to you on income from cross border investments. However, at Standard Chartered Group, except for US investments, the income is generally subject to standard domestic rates of withholding tax applied by our network of appointed sub-custodians, or underlying issuers, in each market. For most countries, you or your appointed tax advisor should file tax claims directly with the local tax authority for a refund of the tax withheld over and above the applicable treaty rate.

Value added tax

24.9 All payments to be made by you in connection with a product agreement are calculated without regard to any goods and services tax, consumption tax, value added tax or any tax of a similar nature. If any of these types of taxes is payable in connection with the payment, you must pay us an additional amount equal to the payment multiplied by the appropriate rate of tax. You must do so at the same time as making the payment.

25. General

Exclusion of liability

25.1 Unless applicable law prohibits us from excluding or limiting our liability, we (and any member of the Standard Chartered Group, and our or its directors and employees) are not liable for any loss you incur in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement or a service agreement (including in connection with (i) the provision of any product, (ii) unavailability or improper functioning of an electronic banking service, (iii) delay or error in sending money within/outside the location of your booking centre(s), (iv) delay in receiving money from within/outside the location of your booking centre(s), (v) delay in providing you funds under a product agreement, (vi) misrepresentation, (vii) your or an account signatory’s or an authorised person’s instructions or any unauthorised instructions, (viii) suspension or termination of an account we maintain for you or product agreement, (ix) our refusal to act on any instruction, or (x) any other thing we do or do not do), or the provision of any service (including us acting or refusing to act in connection with any telegraphic or electronic transfer service, or any act or omission of any member of the Standard Chartered Group, any clearing house, payment, clearing or settlement system or payment intermediary arising out of or in connection with any telegraphic or electronic transfer service).

25.2 This applies where the loss arises for any reason, including:

- your own failure to comply with your obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions;
- your own negligence, fraud or wilful default;
- failure of any issuer or agent to fulfil its obligations with respect to investments;
- any error, failure, interruption delay or non-availability of services, products, software, communication and other networks or communication supplied to you or to us by a third party (including Standard Chartered Group’s agents, correspondents and independent contractors) or employed or controlled by a third party (including trading, dealing, transmission and communication systems); or
- our taking an action, or failing to take an action, where in our reasonable opinion our taking or failing to take such an action (as the case may be) is necessary to avoid a breach of any applicable law; and even if the loss was reasonably foreseeable or where we had been advised of the possibility of the loss.

25.3 This further applies to any losses you suffer that:

- were not, at the time you entered into these booking centre terms and conditions, a foreseeable consequence of our breaching these booking centre terms and conditions;
- arise from any act or omission caused by circumstances beyond our control;
- are caused by any other person, system, institution or payment infrastructure beyond our control or the control of anyone working for us or on our behalf; or
- as a result of the suspension of a service or the operation of an account we maintain for you; or
- are business losses, as opposed to your personal losses.

25.4 We are liable for your direct loss only to the extent it is directly caused by our negligence, fraud or wilful misconduct.

25.5 You acknowledge that if any representation made by your relationship centre to you with respect to a product or service is not set out in, or is inconsistent with, a product agreement or service agreement, you will notify us and provide us with the relevant details so that we can verify such representation, and you may only rely on such representation following our confirmation. We are not liable for any loss if your Private Banker, or any of our employees or agents, acts without authority.

25.6 You will reimburse us for any loss which we may suffer, directly or indirectly, as a result of your breaching these booking centre terms and conditions, your relationship centre terms and conditions, and/or any other agreement, obligation or undertaking with any member of the Standard Chartered Group.

Circumstances beyond our control

25.7 If any circumstances beyond our control occur, we may take any action we consider appropriate in connection with an account we maintain for you or any product.

No knowledge of trust

25.8 Where you act in the capacity of a trustee (whether or not you tell us), we shall not be deemed to have knowledge (whether actual, constructive or otherwise) of the terms of the trust, and you shall be solely responsible for any fiduciary duties and for maintaining the terms of the trust.
Conflicting claims

25.9 If we consider any funds in any account(s) we maintain for you may be subject to conflicting claims, we may take action (including getting legal advice or taking legal proceedings) to determine the matter. We may act in accordance with any determination and we are not liable to you for any loss you incur.

Variation to these booking centre terms and conditions

25.10 We may review and vary these booking centre terms and conditions at any time by notice to you in accordance with our usual practice and any applicable law for any reason, including the following:
- where we reasonably consider that the change would make the terms easier to understand; or
- to cover the improvement of any service or product we supply in connection with an account we maintain for you or the introduction of a new service or product or the replacement of an existing service or product with a new one; or
- the withdrawal of a service or product which has become obsolete, or has ceased to be widely used, or has not been used by you at any time in the previous 2 years; or
- to enable us to make reasonable changes to the way we look after an account we maintain for you as a result of changes in the banking or financial system, technology or the systems we use to run our business; or
- as a result of a requirement under applicable law (or where we reasonably expect that there will be a change in the requirements under applicable law).

25.11 You also acknowledge that various features of a product or service may be changed from time to time, including the commissions, fees and charges, exchange rates, interest rates, the basis for calculating interest rates and the loan or overdraft margin, without prior notice to you. The product terms or service terms may set out additional steps we must follow to effect a variation.

25.12 If a change to these booking centre terms and conditions affects your liabilities or obligations or the fees and charges applicable to you, we will give you at least 30 days written notice before we make the change. With respect to any other changes to these booking centre terms and conditions, we will provide you with reasonable notice before such variation takes effect, unless we are not required to do so by applicable law.

25.13 We will provide you with any notice required under clause 25.12 in writing to the most recent address which we hold for you. When we tell you about a change, we will tell you the date on which it comes into effect.

25.14 If notice of a change is given to you at the most recent address we have for you, you will be treated as accepting the change on the date on which it is due to come into effect, unless, before the date on which the change is due to come into effect, you contact us stating that you do not accept the change and you wish to terminate these booking centre terms and conditions or you request that we cease to provide you with a product or service.

25.15 If we provide a new service in connection with an account we maintain for you or expand the scope of the services which we provide to you, we may introduce a new fee and/or charge for providing you with any new services and we will notify you of such new fee and/or charge.

25.16 We are, subject to clause 25.12, permitted to change our fees and/or charges or introduce a new fee and/or charge if, without limitation, there is a change in (or we reasonably expect there to be a change in):
- the costs we incur in carrying out the activity for which the fee and/or charge is or will be made; or
- regulatory requirements.

25.17 We may provide you with an updated copy of these booking centre terms and conditions, as amended, or a summary of the changes as we consider appropriate and/or required under applicable law.

Waiver

25.18 A provision of these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement, or right created under it, may not be waived except in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound and is only effective for the purpose for which it is given.

25.19 If we fail to exercise any right or power under these booking centre terms and conditions or delay our exercise of such right or power, that shall not amount to a waiver of such right or power. That means that we can still exercise that right or power against you even if we have not done so previously.

How we may exercise our rights

25.20 We may exercise a right or remedy, give or refuse our consent or approval in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document in any way we consider appropriate, including by imposing conditions. We need not give you reasons for any decision we make.

25.21 If we do not exercise a right or remedy fully or at a given time, we can still exercise it later.

25.22 Except for a variation or waiver in accordance with clauses 25.10 to 25.19, nothing we do suspends, varies or prevents us from exercising our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document.

25.23 If we waive a right against one joint account holder or release one joint account holder from his obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document, our rights against the other joint account holder(s) are not affected.

25.24 We are not liable for any loss caused by the exercise or attempted exercise of, failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, a right or remedy.

Booking Centre Terms and Conditions – Hong Kong | 22
25.25 Our rights and remedies under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document:

• are in addition to other rights and remedies given by applicable law independently of these booking centre terms and conditions, product agreement or collateral document;

• do not merge with and are not adversely affected by any other collateral and may be executed independently or together with any rights or remedies including our holding of any other collateral;

• may be exercised even if this involves a conflict of duty or we have a personal interest in their exercise; and

• are not affected by any payment, settlement or anything which might otherwise affect them under applicable law including:
  - us varying our product agreement such as by providing you with additional products or replacing existing products;
  - us releasing you or a collateral provider or giving them a concession, such as more time to pay;
  - the fact that we release or lose the benefit of any collateral; or
  - the death, mental or physical disability or insolvency of any person (including you or a collateral provider).

25.26 Our rights and remedies under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document may be exercised by any of our authorised employees or any other persons we authorise.

Further steps

25.27 You agree to do all necessary acts (such as obtaining consents, signing and producing documents and getting documents completed, signed, stamped, filed or registered):

• to bind you and any other person intended to be bound by these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document;

• to show whether you are complying with these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document; and

• to confirm anything done by us in the proper exercise of our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document.

Indemnities

25.28 The indemnities in these booking centre terms and conditions are continuing obligations, independent of your other obligations under them. It is not necessary for us to incur expense or make payment before enforcing a right of indemnity.

We act on banking days

25.29 We only act on certain instructions or provide a product on a banking day and during our working hours. The execution of an instruction will be subject to the banking days and our working hours.

Prompt performance

25.30 If these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement specify when you must perform an obligation, you must perform it by the time specified. You must perform all other obligations promptly.

Our other dealings

25.31 Subject to any obligations which we may have in relation to rules on conflicts of interest, and unless required by applicable law, where we or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group have an interest in a product or act in another capacity in relation to a product which we provide to you:

(a) we do not have to specifically disclose this to you; and

(b) we do not have to inform you of anything or any information that comes to our notice in the course of us providing services to any other person in any other capacity.

Outsourcing

25.32 We may employ independent contractors and agents (including correspondents) to perform any of our obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement or provide a product on terms we consider appropriate. In particular, we may appoint any agent to take delivery and to be registered as nominee of any of your assets in any part of the world.

Delegation

25.33 We may delegate any of our obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions to any other person(s), who may or may not be a member of the Standard Chartered Group. We will use reasonable care in the selection of the agents and delegates and will monitor their actions. We will be fully liable to you for their actions. Therefore, if they do something that we asked them not to do or they do not do something that we did ask them to do, and this causes you loss, we will compensate you. However, we will not be liable for their bankruptcy or insolvency.

Incentive programmes and additional services

25.34 From time to time we may offer incentive programmes or value added services in connection with a product offered by us or a third party. We may vary or withdraw the programmes or value added services at any time. We do not guarantee or warrant their quality and, if they are provided by a third party, they are provided on the terms offered by the third party (including the third party’s privacy policies). Please contact us if you want to find out more information about the terms of the programmes or services.

Hyperlinked sites

25.35 We are not responsible for, do not endorse, and make no representation or warranty in connection with, any hyperlinked internet sites on our website. We are not responsible for any loss you incur in connection with those hyperlinked sites.
Standard Chartered intellectual property

25.36 You will not use the “Standard Chartered” name, logo or trademark or any other intellectual property belonging to the Standard Chartered Group without our prior written consent.

Insurance

25.37 Unless required by applicable law, we do not insure any assets held with us, except that we may in some circumstances in connection with credit facilities. You should also see clause 71.

Assignments and transfers

25.38 These booking centre terms and conditions are personal to you. You must not in any way encumber, charge, declare a trust over, assign or transfer your rights and obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement to anyone.

25.39 We may assign or transfer or otherwise deal with our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement (including any particular product or account(s) we maintain for you) in any way we consider appropriate. If we do this, you may not claim against any assignee or transferee (or any other person who has an interest in the product or account(s) we maintain for you) any right of set-off or other rights you have against us. If we ask, you must execute and give us or any other person we specify any document we reasonably require for this purpose.

Change in constitution

25.40 You must not change your constitution by amalgamation, consolidation, reconstruction, admission of any new partner or otherwise, without informing us. You must also ensure that each collateral provider does not do so without informing us. All collateral documents, agreements, obligations given or undertaken by you or a collateral provider remain valid and binding despite any change in our, your or a collateral provider’s constitution by amalgamation, consolidation, reconstruction, death, retirement, admission of any new partner or otherwise.

Complying with a court order or regulatory request

25.41 If we (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) are served with a court order or a regulatory request from a governmental or regulatory authority, we act in accordance with the court order or regulatory request and you must not commence proceedings against us in relation to our actions under the court order or regulatory request.

25.42 You also agree to do all necessary acts to allow us to act in accordance with the court order or regulatory request.

Compliance with applicable laws

25.43 Nothing in these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement or service requires us to do or not do anything if it would or might in our reasonable opinion constitute a breach of our policy or any applicable law, regulation or requirement of any authority or sanction. Nothing in these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or service agreement permits us to do anything that would be a breach of applicable law.

25.44 You agree that you are solely responsible for, and that neither Standard Chartered Private Bank, nor Standard Chartered Group has any responsibility for, your compliance with any applicable law including any laws, regulations or rules, in your or any other jurisdiction, relating to your investments, tax, foreign exchange and capital control, and for reporting or filing requirements that may apply as a result of your country of citizenship, domicile, residence or tax-paying status.

Severability

25.45 If and to the extent that an applicable law is inconsistent with these booking centre terms and conditions in a way that would otherwise have the effect of making:

- a provision illegal, void or unenforceable; or
- a provision contravenes a requirement of applicable law or impose an obligation or liability which is prohibited by applicable law, then the applicable law overrides these booking centre terms and conditions to the extent of the inconsistency, and these booking centre terms and conditions are to be read as if that provision were varied to the extent necessary to comply with that applicable law and avoid that effect (or, if necessary, omitted) and the remainder of these booking centre terms and conditions will stand and be read as if that part were not included.

25.46 If any term of these booking centre terms and conditions is invalid, unenforceable or illegal in a jurisdiction, that term is read as varied or severed (as the case requires) only for that jurisdiction and the remainder of these booking centre terms and conditions will stand and be read as if that part were not included.

Anti-money laundering and counter terrorism financing

25.47 In order to comply with anti-money laundering laws, counter terrorist financing laws, regulations and policies, including our policies, reporting requirements under financial transactions legislation and requests of authorities including any sanction, the Standard Chartered Group may be:

- prohibited from entering or concluding transactions involving certain persons or entities;
- required to report suspicious activities, including transactions to an authority. Transactions impacted include those that may:
  - give rise to grounds for suspicion of actual or attempted money laundering or terrorist financing, or be relevant to an investigation into such;
  - be relevant to investigation of an actual or attempted evasion of tax law, investigation of or prosecution of a person for an offence against any applicable law; or
  - involve persons, entities, countries, goods or services which are suspected to be the subject of, or connected to the subject of sanctions or embargoes imposed by national or supranational body.
A member of the Standard Chartered Group may intercept and investigate any payment messages and other information or communications sent to or by you or on your behalf and may delay, suspend, block or refuse to make any payment or transfer, or restrain, deduct, impound and/or turn over to any authority (each including from your account(s)), any amounts which are the subject of or relate to such payments or transfers. The relevant member of the Standard Chartered Group is not required to inform you or give reasons for doing so unless required by applicable law. Payment screening may cause a delay in processing certain information.

No member of the Standard Chartered Group is liable for any loss arising out of any action taken or any delay or failure by us, or a member of the Standard Chartered Group, in performing any of its duties or other obligations, caused in whole or in part by any steps taken as set out above.

Counterparts

Any agreement with us, including any product agreement or facility documentation, may consist of a number of copies, each signed by one or more parties. The signed copies form one document.

Except as otherwise provided in the relevant product terms, each product agreement entered into with Standard Chartered Private Bank as the booking centre is governed by the laws of Hong Kong.

To the extent allowed by applicable law, we may take proceedings in any number of jurisdictions at the same time. You may only initiate an action in the courts of the location in which we maintain an account for you.

Serving documents

Without preventing any other method of service, any document may be served, or court order may be initiated on a party by being delivered to or left at that party's last notified address. If you do not have an address in Hong Kong, you agree to appoint and maintain an agent with an address in Hong Kong to accept service of any legal process in Hong Kong, if we request.

SECTION 2 – BANKING TERMS

PART A: DEPOSITS, INCLUDING TERMS DEPOSITS

26. Deposits

Accounts

26.1 We will open and maintain an account in your name for the purpose of crediting deposits. Upon receipt of any deposit from you or payment due to you (for example, from settlement proceeds, interest, income or dividends) we will credit the relevant account we maintain for you with such sums.

26.2 We may refuse to accept any deposit. We need not give any reason for doing so.

Currencies

26.3 We accept deposits in the local currency and in selected foreign currencies only. The conditions on which we accept foreign currency deposits (including term, interest rates and minimum deposit amounts) may differ depending on the currency. You should also see clause 28 of these Banking Terms.

26.4 Foreign currency account(s) we maintain for you, and all transactions under them, are subject to any applicable law including any applicable exchange control laws. If due to reasons beyond our control we cease to maintain foreign currency deposits in a particular currency, we can convert the foreign currency deposit into another freely transferable currency.

Interest

26.5 If you have a credit balance in an account we maintain for you, you may be entitled to receive interest depending on the type of account (i.e. if it is an interest bearing account) we maintain for you. You will not receive interest on credit balances in non-interest bearing accounts. The rate of interest may be fixed or varied as we determine and publish or make available to you from time to time. Interest only accrues on cleared funds credited into an account we maintain for you as at the end of each day. Your Private Banker will be pleased to provide you with details of the interest rate applicable to the account we maintain for you.

26.6 Interest is calculated on a simple interest basis on cleared amount in account(s) we maintain for you at the end of each day and accrues daily on the basis of a 365 day year (for HKD, GBP and any other currency we may designate from time to time), or a 360 day year (for USD and other currencies) in both ordinary and leap years. We pay interest monthly or at other regular intervals that we determine. For term deposits, see clauses 27.3 and 27.4.

26.7 We will only pay interest to you without deducting taxes from it where we reasonably believe that you are entitled to this under applicable laws and based on the information which you have provided to us in your account opening application or to your Private Banker.

26.8 In certain circumstances (including as a result of changes by rate setting authorities), you will need to pay us negative interest on credit balances, which means that negative interest will be applied to and deducted from a credit balance in your account(s) we maintain for you. The calculation of the interest will vary currency by currency. The negative credit interest rate applied to account(s) we maintain for you will be shown on your bank statement and the calculation and deduction of negative interest is as set out in clause 26.6 above.

27. Term deposits

27.1 You may request that we open and maintain an account for you in which you are required to keep your money for a fixed period of time in order to benefit from the full range of its features. Your Private Banker can provide you with further information about the product terms available for a term deposit account and the interest rate payable. The interest rate payable is generally determined by the size and term of the deposit.

27.2 Term deposits may not be withdrawn before the maturity date unless we agree to do so in our sole discretion. If you withdraw money from a term deposit account we maintain for you before the fixed term has been completed:

- you will lose some or all of the interest that would otherwise have been payable to you;
- you may have to pay us an administration fee; and
- where we have invested your funds, you may have to pay us any costs to unwind such investments which we may incur as a result.

Interest on term deposits

27.3 Interest on a term deposit is paid at a rate that is agreed at the start of the term. Interest rates are generally determined by the size and term of the deposit and are published from time to time. The applicable interest rates and corresponding terms are available by contacting your Private Banker.

27.4 Interest on a term deposit is calculated on a simple interest basis and accrues daily on the basis of a 365 day year (for GBP, HKD, SGD, ZAR, THB and any other currency we may designate from time to time) or a 360 day year (for USD and other currencies) in both ordinary and leap years. It is paid at the end of the term, when the term deposit matures.

Maturity of term deposit

27.5 If a term deposit matures on a day that is not a banking day, then the maturity date will be extended to the next banking day.
27.6 You must instruct us before the maturity date (and in the case of foreign currency deposits, at least 2 banking days before the maturity date) whether you want:

- to renew the term deposit; or
- us to pay you the principal and interest on the maturity date.

Otherwise, we may (but have no obligation to) renew the term deposit for a similar term with interest at the prevailing interest rate for that term.

27.7 Interest ceases to be payable after the maturity date unless the term deposit is renewed.

28. Foreign currency accounts

28.1 This section is relevant to you only if we open and maintain a foreign currency account for you.

28.2 If we open and maintain a foreign currency account for you, there are limitations on our obligation to repay the balance on any such account to you. Please read this section carefully, and if you are unsure as to its meaning or effect, please discuss it with your Private Banker before asking us to open and maintain a foreign currency account for you.

28.3 If we open and maintain a foreign currency account for you, we are permitted to hold the balance on that account with a bank or financial institution, or a number of banks or financial institutions, in the country in which such foreign currency is legal tender (a third party bank). We are not obliged to tell you that the balance is being held with a third party bank.

28.4 If the foreign currency is legal tender in more than one country, we may select a third party bank in such country or countries as we, using reasonable discretion, decide.

28.5 If we do hold the balance of a foreign currency account with a third party bank, please note that the foreign currency account will not only be subject to the applicable laws of the country from which we provide the services but may also be subject to applicable laws in the country in which the third party bank carries on business or is registered, incorporated or resident, or to which it is subject.

29. Foreign currency transactions

29.1 In respect of transactions in a foreign currency, if we receive money from outside/within the location of your booking centre(s) in a different currency to that of the account we maintain for you, we may convert the currency of that payment into the currency of the account we maintain for you. This will be done in accordance with clause 29.4. We will tell you the original amount received and any charges which we deduct.

29.2 You may ask us to send money outside the location of your booking centre(s). If you ask us to do so, your Private Banker will be able to provide details about when any money sent abroad should arrive, and the exchange rate which will apply. We make a charge for sending money outside the location of your booking centre(s).

29.3 If you instruct us to send money within/outside the location of your booking centre(s) in a currency different to the currency in which the account we maintain for you, we may convert that currency accordingly in order to carry out your instruction. This will be done in accordance with clause 29.4. We will tell you any charges which we apply.

29.4 Unless we agree a fixed exchange rate with you for a particular transaction, the exchange rate that we will use to convert foreign currency payments into or out of an account we maintain for you will be the reference exchange rate that we have told you will apply (or will be at a margin above or below that rate if we have told you that is the case).

Foreign exchange risk

29.5 Foreign currency accounts, and all transactions under them, are subject to any applicable laws. If due to reasons beyond our control we cease to maintain foreign currency deposits in a particular currency, we can convert the foreign currency deposit into another freely transferrable currency.

29.6 You acknowledge that:

- you are aware of the risk of interest rate and exchange rate fluctuations and the effect that such fluctuations may have on the credit balances in an account we maintain for you;
- adverse exchange rate movements could result in the credit balance (even after interest is credited) being less than the amount you deposit.

PART B: OPERATING ACCOUNTS

30. Account operating authority

Account mandate

30.1 In order for us to set up and maintain an account for you, you must give us account operating authority details in the form of an account mandate. This includes details of:

- all account holders, all account signatories (if you are a corporate entity) and all authorised persons; and
- any signature requirement (for example, whether any one account holder may sign instructions that require confirmation by signatures or all account holders to sign such instructions jointly).
30.2 We will act on the account mandate until you vary (by adding or removing account signatories or authorised persons or by changing the signature requirement) or cancel it. You must do so by giving us instructions in writing. The variation or cancellation will become effective within a reasonable time (within 7 banking days) after we accept your instructions, and in the meantime, we may continue to act in accordance with the existing account mandate. Unless you expressly tell us, if there are multiple accounts which we maintain for you, varying or cancelling the account mandate for one account we maintain for you does not vary or cancel the account mandate for other accounts we maintain for you.

30.3 We rely on and are authorised to act on any instructions given in accordance with the account mandate. You must act in accordance with the account mandate. You must use the same signature as used on the account mandate.

30.4 We may in our discretion require more than one or all account holders, account signatories or authorised persons to confirm any act if we think it is necessary or prudent to do so.

Scope of account operating authority

30.5 Depending on the account operating authority, any account holder may:

- open, close and operate the account(s) we maintain for you;
- purchase, sell or in any other way deal in any product, service or asset;
- enter into, act on or terminate any agreement with us, including any product agreement or service agreement, give any indemnity or make any representation or provide any information;
- transfer or withdraw any asset in any manner;
- create encumbrances over the account(s) we maintain for you or assets in an account we maintain for you;
- obtain statements or any information concerning the account(s) we maintain for you generally;
- appoint or cancel the appointment of authorised persons; and
- give us any other instruction.

30.6 If you are a corporate entity, each account signatory may act on behalf of the account holder as if he were the account holder. For joint accounts or where you appoint more than one account signatory, for instructions we require to be confirmed by signatures, the account holders or account signatories must act in accordance with the signature requirement.

Conducting an account in joint names

30.7 Unless otherwise agreed with us, when a joint account is opened and maintained for you:

- we need not enquire into the circumstances of any instructions any of you may give in relation to the conduct of the account(s) we maintain for you, including an instruction to close the account(s) we maintain for you;
- we are authorised to accept for credit of the joint account, any amount payable to one or more of you;
- each of you is liable to us jointly and separately for all obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions and/or a product agreement, for the balance owing, and any other liabilities in relation to the account(s) we maintain for you. This includes any unarranged and arranged overdraft, loan, other credit facilities or trading facilities granted to you jointly (as well as interest, commissions and other related charges). This means each of you is liable for the actions of any other joint account holder;
- if permitted under the terms of your joint account mandate, any joint account holder is entitled to withdraw the entire balance of the joint account;
- each joint account holder has full authority on behalf of the other joint account holders to give or receive any instruction, notice, request or acknowledgement in relation to the joint account without obtaining the consent of the other joint account holders, including an instruction to close the joint account; and
- if one joint account holder dies or is legally declared unable to handle his affairs, the other account holder(s) may give instructions and obtain title to the account, subject to us receiving such documents we may require. Any payment we make to the other account holder(s) or a court discharges any obligations we owe to you.

30.8 If one joint account holder dies or is legally declared unable to handle his or her affairs, the obligations of the other account holder(s) and our rights (including set-off) under our product agreement are not affected.

30.9 Further terms and conditions applying to joint account(s) we maintain for you with us are set out in the joint account mandate you sign.

30.10 In the event of a breakdown in the relationship between you and any other joint account holder, you should contact us as soon as possible to arrange for the joint account we maintain for you to be closed and to open new accounts in separate names. We and your relationship centre, respectively, reserve the right to refuse to accept or act on the instructions of any one of you and we may choose to act only on the joint instruction of all of you, if we or the relationship centre receive instructions that are in conflict.

Conducting an account in the name of a partnership

30.11 Unless otherwise agreed with us, when an account is opened and maintained in the name of a partnership:

- the provisions relating to the conduct of an account in joint names apply, as if each partner were a joint account holder; and
- a person who ceases to be a partner will remain liable for all obligations under a product agreement, for the balance owing and any other liabilities in relation to the account we maintain for you accruing up to the date of his cessation as partner.
Conducting an account for a trust relationship

30.12 Unless otherwise agreed with us, when an account is opened and maintained for a trust relationship:

- we shall not be deemed to have knowledge (whether actual, constructive or otherwise) of the terms of the trust;
- if the trustee retires, dies or becomes insolvent, we are entitled to hold the assets in the account(s) we maintain for you until we are able to determine who is entitled to them; and
- the trustee shall indemnify us against any loss we incur from us acting on the instructions of the trustee.

Conducting an account in the name of a sole proprietorship

30.13 Where an account is opened and maintained in the name of a sole proprietorship, the individual constituting the sole proprietorship is liable for all obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions and/or a product agreement, for the balance owing, and any other liabilities in relation to the account. This means we treat the account holder as if it were the individual.

Authorised persons

30.14 You may appoint authorised persons to have the authority to operate and give instructions on an account we maintain for you. If you do, you should be aware of the risks involved, including the possibility that an authorised person may act without first consulting you. You should consider seeking independent legal advice before appointing authorised persons.

30.15 You are responsible for ensuring that each authorised person complies with our product agreement or service agreement and for anything an authorised person does in connection with our product agreement or service agreement. You must ensure that each authorised person is given a copy of these booking centre terms and conditions that apply to any product or service they use.

30.16 You agree to take any action and provide us with any documents, information or other assistance that we reasonably require in order to investigate any suspected unauthorised or fraudulent access to an account we maintain for you.

31. Conversion of accounts

31.1 At any time we may convert, re-designate or consolidate any account(s) we maintain for you into another type of account or with another account we maintain for you, or give the account we maintain for you a new account number, if we consider it appropriate to do so and we give you reasonable notice in writing before we do so. If you do not instruct us that you want to close the account(s) we maintain for you before expiry of the notice period, we will proceed to convert, re-designate or consolidate the account(s).

32. Insufficient balances

32.1 If you have no credit facilities agreed with us beforehand (i.e. no arranged overdraft), and you instruct us to make a payment from an account we maintain for you despite lack of funds, we may:

- refuse that payment due to lack of funds;
- where there are several instructions for payments which in aggregate exceed the balance of that account, select which payment(s) to allow without reference to the date of dispatch, or the time we receive your instructions;
- allow that payment despite lack of funds, resulting in that account being overdrawn. In respect of such unarranged overdrafts, we will charge you a rate of interest which may be higher than the rate of interest for arranged overdrafts. The rate of interest will be our standard rate for unarranged overdrafts, details of which can be obtained from us at any time on request; and/or
- transfer funds from any other account, to that account in order to carry out your investment.

32.2 If we allow an unarranged overdraft on an account we maintain for you (for example, where we allow a payment despite lack of funds):

- this only applies for that particular instruction and this does not mean that we will allow a similar unarranged overdraft in the future;
- the amount of that unarranged overdraft is treated as an advance by us to you and you owe us a debt equal to that amount;
- when we ask, you must repay that unarranged overdraft and any interest which is calculated in accordance with our usual practice (which may be at a default rate) and at the interest rate that we notify to you; and
- we may impose additional conditions or require additional collateral.

33. Dormant or unclaimed accounts

33.1 We may, in the following circumstances, designate an account we maintain for you as dormant:

- where there have been no withdrawals or deposits on an account for 12 months (other than, in each case, transactions initiated by us, such as interest and charges);
- where a statement for account is refused for reasons other than an incomplete/incorrect address or postal error;
- if the sole account holder or all joint account holders is/are deceased or becomes/become mentally incapacitated; or
- if we lose contact with you.

33.2 If we designate an account we maintain for you as dormant, the funds in that account will remain your property.

33.3 Under specific circumstances we deem appropriate based on our policy, we will write to you at least once at the last address held for you (unless mail has previously been returned from there) before designating an account we maintain for you as dormant.
33.4 We may maintain any dormant account on terms which we consider appropriate, including:

- requiring written notice and additional information from you before you make any withdrawals from such account; and
- imposing a reasonable charge to cover our costs in attempting to trace you where we have lost contact with you.

33.5 We will usually continue to pay interest on a dormant account we maintain at the same rate as would have applied if the account had not been designated as dormant.

33.6 In circumstances where we are still in contact with you, we may close any account we maintain for you which has been designated as dormant. If we do this, we will give you reasonable advance notice and return any credit balance in that account to you.

33.7 In circumstances where we designate an account we maintain for you as unclaimed, we will maintain such account in accordance with our prevailing policy and procedure.

34. Death or incapacity

34.1 We must be notified as soon as possible after your death or incapacity by:

- anyone seeking to act as your executor;
- anyone who is legally entitled to act on your behalf to deal with your estate; or
- where you have entered into these booking centre terms and conditions jointly with another account holder, by the surviving joint account holder.

34.2 Unless you have entered into these booking centre terms and conditions jointly with another account holder, these booking centre terms and conditions will continue to bind you for as long as you remain the holder of the account(s) we maintain for you, and these booking centre terms and conditions will continue to bind your estate until we receive instructions to close the account(s) we maintain for you under the presumption that the joint account is co-owned between the account holders under a joint tenancy with the right of survivorship.

35. Payment instructions

35.1 You authorise us to act as the instructing financial institution to send your payment instructions. You also authorise us and each other member of the Standard Chartered Group or any third party who receives the payment instructions to act on them as if you had sent the payment instructions directly to them.

36. Deposit Methods

Cheques

36.1 When you pay a cheque into an account we maintain for you, we will not credit the cheque (that is, collect payment from the person who issued the cheque) until the cheque has cleared. In relation to this process:

- cheques drawn in the country from which we provide the services to you, in the currency of that country, and which are also payable in that country, will take up to 2 banking days to clear;
- Any cheques which we send on "collection" (which means where we mail the cheque to the bank on which it is drawn) will only be credited to that account once we have received the funds. This may take a considerable amount of time, and will be beyond our control.

Payments into your account (other than cash and cheque payments)

36.2 We normally accept deposits by telegraphic or electronic transfer. In certain circumstances, we may agree to accept and deposit, as agent for collection, drafts, cheques or other instruments for good value after clearance. Clearance times may vary. You agree that we may deduct from the proceeds our fees and charges and any fees and charges that may be imposed by third parties (as specified in the fee schedule).

36.3 If we agree to accept drafts, cheques or other instruments drawn on financial institutions located outside the country where your booking centre is located, you acknowledge that:

- clearance depends on the applicable law and practices of the location of the financial institution;
- we are not responsible for the value given by the financial institution or any other loss incurred in connection with the draft, cheque or instrument.

36.4 We may refuse to accept for collection drafts, cheques or other instruments if they are drawn in favour of third parties, if they appear to belong or have belonged to someone else, or if the payee’s name is not identical to your name in our records. If we agree to accept such draft, cheque or other instrument, we may require you or an authorised person to comply with additional conditions. We return dishonoured cheques to your last notified address at your risk and cost.

36.5 Any receipt of deposit that we issue is not evidence that the deposit has been cleared. We do our best to process all cheques and other instruments within a reasonable period of time. However, if they are deposited after any cut off time we specify, they may not be processed until the following banking day. Please contact your Private Banker for details.
36.6 The proceeds of cheques and other payment instruments deposited, or funds transferred electronically, cannot normally be withdrawn until cleared. If we allow withdrawal of the proceeds before clearance occurs, you must repay or we may debit that amount if the cheque, payment instrument or transfer is dishonoured. Please also see clause 32.

37. Withdrawal methods

Payments (other than cheque payments) from your account

37.1 Withdrawals from an account we maintain for you are subject to conditions we impose in these booking centre terms and conditions, including notice requirements, compliance with our security requirements and you providing us with the information which we require to carry out the instruction, including the account name, the sort code, account number and any other details we ask you for so that we can make the payment. We will take the provision of these details as evidence of your consent to the transaction.

37.2 Deposits cannot be withdrawn until they are cleared and subject to any prevailing charges. Withdrawals by other methods, for example by other payment instruments, are subject to availability and other conditions. For details, please enquire with your Private Banker.

37.3 We normally allow withdrawals by telegraphic or electronic transfer. Please enquire with your Private Banker for withdrawals by other methods.

37.4 If you ask us to make a payment between accounts we maintain for you, we will take the money from the relevant account and it will be credited to the other account on the same banking day.

37.5 If you instruct us to do so, we will set up standing orders from an account we maintain for you.

37.6 All amounts credited to an account are payable only at the booking centre in which the account is maintained. This is the case whether that money is in the currency of the country from which we provide services to you or in any foreign currency and whether the money is held in your name or held for your account. You may not request that any such money be repaid to you at another booking centre or the relationship centre.

Cancelling or changing a payment

37.7 If you ask us to make a payment immediately, we cannot change or cancel the payment instruction once we have started processing it, and we normally start processing your payment instruction when we receive it.

37.8 You can change or cancel any instructions to set up standing orders as long as you tell us 3 banking days before the date on which the standing order is due to be processed. For any other payment which you asked us to make on a future date, once we have started processing it with the counterparty, we cannot guarantee such payment instruction can be cancelled or changed.

Telegraphic or electronic transfers

37.9 You may ask us to effect telegraphic or electronic transfers for you. We need not agree to your request, for any reason including where our policy, security procedure, any order of court or applicable law, or a requirement of any authority, including any sanction, prohibits us from executing the request. We may set a minimum amount or maximum amount for telegraphic or electronic transfers.

37.10 If a telegraphic or electronic transfer is made in a currency other than the currency of the destination country, you may be required to pay multiple charges for the transfer. For details of these charges, please contact us.

37.11 Where we agree to effect your request, you agree and authorize us to debit upfront the amounts to be transferred and any fees or costs payable in connection thereto from any of your account(s) we maintain for you.

37.12 You consent to us disclosing any information in connection with the telegraphic or electronic transfer to the correspondent or intermediary bank.

37.13 If a telegraphic or electronic transfer cannot be completed, we are not required to refund the charges paid by you unless the failure to complete was solely and directly due to our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

37.14 Where a telegraphic or electronic transfer cannot be completed or is cancelled, currency conversions or reverse currency conversions may be required. You agree that you shall bear all costs relating to such conversions.

37.15 We may suspend or terminate any transfer instructions pursuant to any changes to laws, or the occurrence of circumstances beyond our control.

37.16 You indemnify us, the Standard Chartered Group, and any director, officer, employee or agent of any of them against, and must pay us on demand for, any loss we reasonably incur in connection with any telegraphic or electronic transfer.

When we may refuse to make a payment

37.17 We may refuse your instruction to make a payment (including cheques, sending money outside the location of your booking centre(s), and /or sending money within the location of your booking centre(s)) in the following circumstances:
- where the request is for an unusually large amount;
- in order to comply with anti-money laundering procedures;
- if we reasonably suspect that the instruction is fraudulent or unauthorised by you;
- if there is a lack of funds on the relevant account we maintain for you to satisfy the instruction;
- if your instruction is not clear or you have not provided us with the correct details; or
- there is a legal requirement or a court or other authority that tells us to act in that way.
38. Reversals

38.1 We may cancel, reverse or debit any payment we make (including any interest paid) and make any corresponding adjustments to an account we maintain for you:
   - to correct an error;
   - where we have not received cleared and unconditional funds in full or promptly;
   - where we are required to return the funds to the relevant payer; or
   - where we have reasonable grounds for doing so.

39 Uncleared payments

39.1 If:
   - any uncleared sums credited to an account we maintain for you are subsequently dishonoured; or
   - we are called upon to repay to any relevant party any amounts credited to an account we maintain for you,

you must repay us any reasonable costs which you owe us as a result (including if your account goes into debit, or fails to meet the minimum balance as a result), unless we agree otherwise.

39.2 If a payment is recalled by a bank that made it, because that bank’s customer did not have enough money for the payment, sometimes a payment may be made into an account we maintain for you by mistake. If this happens, we will take the payment out of that account, even if we allowed you to make a payment or to take cash on the assumption that the payment would not be recalled. If this results in that account becoming overdrawn when you do not have an agreed credit facility on the account we maintain for you, or utilising any agreed credit facility limit we have set or you fail to meet the minimum balance, you will have to pay interest. If we debit a payment from an account we maintain for you by mistake, and if our debit results in that account becoming overdrawn when you do not have an agreed credit facility on the account we maintain for you, or utilising any agreed credit facility limit we have set or you fail to meet the minimum balance, we will credit that account with the amount we mistakenly debited. This process will also apply where we credit or debit an account we maintain for you in error for any other reason.

40. Liability for payments

Liability for authorised payments

40.1 We will not be liable to you for any losses you suffer or costs which you incur because:
   - we do not act on your instruction to make a payment for any of the reasons set out in these booking centre terms and conditions; or
   - the details which you have given us to make the payment are not correct.

Liability for unauthorised payments

40.2 Other than in the circumstances which are set out in clause 40.3 below, if you tell us without undue delay that a payment from an account we maintain for you was not authorised by you, or if we incorrectly execute a payment instruction received from you, we will immediately and in any event no later than by the end of the following banking day after being notified of the unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment, refund the amount deducted and will return that account to the position it would have been in as if the unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment had not taken place (except where we have reasonable ground for suspecting fraud and communicate these grounds to the relevant authority in writing). This means, for example, that we will pay any interest on the amount incorrectly paid and/or refund interest or charges which we made because the account we maintain for you became overdrawn. We will have no further liability to you. If you wish us to refund the unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment to you, you must tell us about the unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment without undue delay on becoming aware of any such transaction giving rise to a claim.

40.3 You will be liable for:
   - all payments made from an account we maintain for you if you have acted fraudulently;
   - payments that take place until you notify us under clauses 11.5 and 11.6 of these booking centre terms and conditions that someone else may have had access to your security information or an account we maintain for you, but only if the payment was made because you deliberately or very carelessly failed to keep your security information secret or failed to notify us as soon as you should have done.

Hong Kong identity card - HKID card holders (for individuals)

40.4 If you are a holder of a valid Hong Kong identity card and you are opening an RMB account with us for Hong Kong residents, you represent that you have a valid Hong Kong identity card. You must immediately inform us in writing if you no longer have a valid Hong Kong identity card. Without limiting our other rights, we may suspend or terminate the RMB account if you no longer have a valid Hong Kong identity card or we have reason to suspect that you do not or may not continue to have such a card, or convert your RMB account into another type of account (with relevant restrictions and requirements as may be applicable) at our sole and absolute discretion.
Hong Kong identity card - Non-HKID card holders (for individuals)

40.5 If you are not a holder of a valid Hong Kong identity card and you are opening an RMB account with us for non-Hong Kong residents, you represent that you do not hold such a card. You must immediately inform us in writing if you become a holder of a valid Hong Kong identity card. In such circumstance, or if we have reason to suspect that you have become a Hong Kong resident, we may (without limiting our other rights) suspend or terminate or convert your RMB account into another type of account (with relevant restrictions and requirements as may be applicable) at our sole and absolute discretion.

Transactions using RMB

40.6 We may but need not accept deposits or allow withdrawal by any cheques, drafts, payment orders or other monetary instruments in RMB.

Conversion to Hong Kong Dollars

40.7 If you ask, we may (but need not) convert a deposit in an RMB account we maintain for you into Hong Kong Dollars.

Not to be used as security

40.8 Unless we agree, the balance of an RMB account we maintain for you cannot be relied upon by you as collateral for any credit facility or trading facility and will not be considered in calculating the available limit for any credit facility or trading facility we offer.

Payment into suspense account

40.9 If an RMB account we maintain for you is closed, we may place any credit balance into a non-interest bearing suspense account. We may convert the credit balance into Hong Kong Dollars before doing so.

Reference rates of RMB investment products

40.10 Unless otherwise communicated to you, the RMB exchange rate and/or interest rate referred to in our RMB investment products are the offshore ("CNH") rates.

Precious Metals

40.11 Except where we otherwise agree, there will be no physical delivery by us or you in respect of any transaction in relation to precious metals. We will:

• in respect of a purchase of precious metals, credit the amount of precious metals purchased by you in our records as a notional quantity bought and held for you and debit the account we maintain for you for the equivalent value; and
• in respect of a sale of precious metals, credit the account we maintain for you for the equivalent value, and debit from our records the notional quantity of precious metals sold on your behalf.
SECTION 3 – INVESTMENT TERMS

PART A: SECURITIES DEALING

These booking centre terms and conditions apply to all transactions in securities, including collective investment schemes and funds. You should also see Part B, for additional terms that apply specifically to collective investment schemes and funds.

41. Our services

41.1 Our investment services consist of a non-advised dealing service which you can use to execute transactions in investments.

42. Non-advised service

42.1 We may, on your specific instructions, provide you with execution, clearing and settlement services for securities, on your behalf and at your risk, provided that we are prepared at our discretion to transact such securities. We may, on your instructions, carry out such transactions on any market or with such counterparty, negotiate and execute counterparty and account opening documentation on your behalf.

Termination

42.2 The terms in clause 19 will apply to the termination of the non-advised dealing service which you can use to execute transactions in investment.

43. Your relationship with us

Transactions

43.1 All transactions in securities are subject to:

- the rules of the relevant exchange, clearing house, depository, custodian or regulatory authority;
- any applicable constitutive and/or offering document for the securities, which we can make available to you at your request; and
- applicable law, including any general requirement that we pay due regard to the interests of our customers and treat them fairly.

Nature of relationship

43.2 We will execute or arrange for you the execution of transactions in investments in accordance with your instructions. We may, at our absolute discretion, accept standing instructions from you in relation to investments or trade transactions for any duration as we may agree with you. You acknowledge that once you provide standing instructions, we will execute relevant subsequent transactions in accordance with those standing instructions without advance notice or further confirmation with you.

43.3 When dealing in securities for you, we may:

- transact on our own account (as principal) and then enter into another transaction with you to offer the investment to you; and/or
- act as your agent and transact on your behalf.

43.4 You acknowledge and agree that, unless restricted by applicable law, we owe no fiduciary or other equitable duties to you with respect to transactions. If we or another member of the Standard Chartered Group act on behalf of another person in any capacity in relation to a transaction (for example, we may have given financial advice to the issuer of the securities you wish to purchase), or if we or another member of the Standard Chartered Group transact in the same or similar securities for other customers or for our or its own account (for example, we may have issued structured investments linked to such securities), we need not inform you unless required by applicable law. However, we will act in accordance with our internal policies to manage any conflicts of interest.

43.5 In making use of our investment services, you acknowledge and confirm that you will only ever act on your own account and never for another person (acting as an agent for another).

Your relationship with other members of the Standard Chartered Group

43.6 Other members of the Standard Chartered Group may provide investment services or relationship services to you. Where they do so, they will be providing such services directly, and not on our behalf. Their direct relationship with you will be governed by a separate agreement and not by these booking centre terms and conditions.

43.7 Some members of the Standard Chartered Group may be located outside the jurisdiction from which we provide the services to you and as a result, may not be required to comply with applicable law in the country from which we provide the services to you.

Execution

43.8 We may execute your orders through our affiliates, connected parties or third-party brokers and will take into account relevant execution factors including price, costs, speed of execution, likelihood of execution and speed of settlement, size and nature of order to achieve the best available result for you. When an external quote is not available for your order due to circumstances including insufficient pricing information, or insufficient immediately available liquidity, the order may be executed through us internally (the “best execution arrangement”).
43.9 You expressly consent and authorise us to execute deals on your behalf outside of a regulated market, multilateral trading facility or organised trading facility.

43.10 If you provide us with specific instructions in relation to the execution of a deal for you, this may prevent us from following our best execution arrangement in relation to that deal in respect of the elements of execution to which your specific instructions refer.

43.11 You undertake at all times to maintain sufficient monies in an account we maintain for you for the purpose of making payment for any purchase and for the payment of any fees, costs or other expenses. If you are selling securities, you undertake that you have or will have such securities in your account.

43.12 Without limiting the generality of clause 5 of these booking centre terms and conditions:

- we may refuse to carry out an instruction to deal in securities, or terminate a transaction, if there are insufficient monies held in cleared funds or due to be received to the credit of an account we maintain for you to meet any purchase price (or any other amount payable by you under the relevant transaction) together with any estimated expenses to be incurred in connection with the relevant transaction. Where you have placed several orders or instructions and there are insufficient monies or available credit facilities to meet the resulting obligations, we may in our discretion decide which of the orders or instructions will be executed, irrespective of the order in which, or dates on which we received them. We shall also be entitled to (in our discretion and without any obligation to do so):
  - transfer monies as necessary from any other account(s) we maintain for you; or
  - allow that order or instruction despite lack of funds, resulting in the account we maintain for you being overdrawn; and/or
  - if you have available credit facilities, utilise such credit facilities to meet the payment obligations; and
- we may refuse to carry out any instruction to sell or deliver any securities if insufficient securities are held in or for the account we maintain for you or are due to be credited to the account we maintain for you. We will only place orders for the sale of securities provided such securities are in the account we maintain for you, free of all liens and other encumbrances whatsoever. On receipt of any instruction to sell the securities, we shall be entitled to debit any account we maintain for you with the relevant securities on or (at our discretion) at any time before completion of the said sale. You acknowledge that you shall not be entitled to withdraw or in any way deal with all or any part of such securities until completion of the said sale. If for any reason there are insufficient securities in the account we maintain for you, we may or may be required to acquire securities on your behalf in order to complete the transaction.

You shall be responsible for all costs or losses incurred as a result of us taking any of the above actions.

43.13 You should note that we may have deadlines (including internal deadlines) for taking certain actions (for example, for making subscriptions, redemptions or withdrawals) and that the relationship centre and us may operate in a different time zone. When giving us instructions, you should ensure that you allow reasonable time for us to process your instructions in order to meet the relevant deadlines. We will not be liable for any failure to meet a deadline for any reason, unless such failure is directly due to our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

43.14 If we accept your instruction which contains a limit order request, by reason of rapid changes in prices of investment products (including any foreign exchange transactions) and/or physical restraints on trading platforms (both on and off-exchange), we will only accept limit order instructions on the condition that we will use our best efforts to execute transactions at the specified price or limit, but cannot guarantee that transactions will be executed at such price or limit, or on time, or at all. By providing us with any such instruction, you acknowledge that we will act on a “best effort” basis only. We are also entitled to refuse to act on such instruction.

43.15 You agree that:

- we may aggregate any orders received from you and may aggregate your orders with the orders of our other customers; and/or
- we may execute any order received from you as a series of transactions over a period of time and report to you an average price for such transactions instead of the actual price for each transaction.

Prices

43.16 Prices we quote to you may be obtained from a price quoting agency or other third party source, or from a market that changes rapidly or where prices are delayed. They are indicative and for information only. They may not be the price or value at which we would be able to transact in the relevant securities. They may not reflect redemption charges or other fees, costs or other factors. They should not be relied on for any trading, hedging or investment decision. By reason of physical restraints on the relevant exchange and rapid changes in the prices of securities, there may be a delay in making prices or in dealing at any specific time or “at best” or “at market” on occasions and despite our reasonable endeavours. You agree to be bound by dealings transacted by us on your behalf, and that we are not liable for any loss arising from us failing or being unable to comply with any terms of your order unless directly arising from our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

43.17 Unless you give us specific instructions to the contrary and subject to our absolute discretion, all orders or requests are good for the day only and that to the extent unfulfilled they will lapse at the end of the official trading day of the relevant exchange.

Trading / Position limits

43.18 You undertake to comply with any trading restrictions or position limits under applicable law, including those imposed by any relevant exchange, market or clearing house, and irrespective of whether you trade through one or more banks or brokers. If any such trading restriction or position limit is exceeded, we are authorised to disclose your identity and your positions, and/or liquidate any of your positions, if we are requested to do so by any court, regulatory or quasi-governmental authority, exchange, market or clearing house or as otherwise required under applicable law. We may, upon request and the payment by you of relevant processing fees, provide you with information with respect to any of your positions.
43.19 In addition to any trading restrictions or position limits under applicable law, we may, at any time in our discretion, impose any position or transaction limits, or any trading or transaction restrictions. Such limits may include minimum sizes for transactions, specified times or procedures for communicating orders to us or otherwise. We may, at any time in our discretion, vary any such limits or restrictions. In placing orders with us, you shall not exceed any such limits or breach any such restrictions, whether imposed by us, any relevant exchange, market or clearing house or otherwise imposed under applicable law.

Settlement

43.20 You are responsible for paying for each order which we execute for you, whether by payment of the purchase price, delivery of the relevant assets, or otherwise as required by the terms of the transaction which you have instructed us to enter into.

43.21 Except where we agreed otherwise with you, you must pay for any investments which we purchase for you on or before the time by which payment is due for the relevant investment. You must make all payments for transactions which we execute for you to us or to a third party as your Private Banker instructs.

43.22 You must not deduct any tax or other amount from any payment which you make to us or to a third party for a transaction which we execute for you unless you make up the shortfall.

43.23 If you fail to meet your own obligations in relation to a particular transaction, you will reimburse us for all direct losses which we incur as a result.

43.24 We shall be entitled to debit or credit any account(s) we maintain for you with the amount payable or received for any transaction and all other fees and costs. This applies even if debiting the account would place it in overdraft.

43.25 You acknowledge that our sole responsibility with regard to the proceeds of any sale of securities is to receive payment from the purchaser (or its agent) of the relevant securities, and we will not be liable to pay to you any such proceeds of sale or be liable to you in any other way if such payment to us by any purchaser (or its agent) is not honoured. You acknowledge that we may, in any case, make delivery of the relevant securities contemporaneously with the receipt of such payment or purported payment or in such manner as is customary for such securities on the relevant exchange, market, clearing house or depository.

43.26 If we or our correspondent broker shall for any reason fail to receive payment of any amount due to be paid, or fail to receive delivery of any securities (whether from the relevant exchange, clearing house, and/or any other person) due to be delivered to you, on the due date for payment or delivery, our obligations to make payment or to deliver securities to you shall at such time, and by virtue of such failure, become obligations to make payment of such amount or delivery of such quantity of securities as is equal to such payment or such quantity as is actually received by us or our correspondent broker (as the case may be).

43.27 If we credit the account we maintain for you with the receipt of assets before their actual receipt, we may reverse such credit at any time before actual receipt.

43.28 We may debit the account we maintain for you with assets on or before the date they are due to be transferred to a third party even though actual settlement has not yet occurred. We may reverse such debit at any time before actual settlement.

43.29 You accept that you may not rely on any such debit or credit referred to in clauses 43.27 and 43.28 until actual settlement. These procedures are of an administrative nature and do not amount to an agreement by us to make loans or investments available to you.

44. Transaction confirmation

44.1 Unless an exemption applies under applicable law, we will supply you with confirmations after each transaction you enter into using the securities dealing service. These confirmations will be provided:

- no later than two banking days following the day a transaction is executed; or
- if the confirmation is received by us from a third party, no later than the first banking day following receipt from that third party.

45. Allocation

45.1 If for any reason we need to allocate securities to or between our customers, we do so in accordance with our internal policy on allocations.

45.2 This policy provides for the prompt, fair and expeditious execution of your orders relative to our other orders or trading interests. When carrying out your orders, we will ensure the following:

- your orders are executed promptly and accurately recorded and allocated;
- otherwise comparable orders are carried out sequentially and promptly, unless the characteristics of the order or prevailing market conditions make this impracticable or your interests require otherwise; and
- we will inform you of any material difficulty relevant to the proper carrying out of your order(s) promptly upon becoming aware of the difficulty.

45.3 In accordance with applicable law, our order allocation policy establishes terms for the fair allocation of aggregated orders and transactions, including how the volume and price of orders determines allocation and the treatment of partial execution.

46. Limitations of liabilities, responsibilities and indemnities

46.1 You retain full responsibility for making all investment decisions to buy or sell or otherwise deal in the securities and will not hold us liable for any losses as a result of your investment or dealing. We will only enter into transactions as you instruct.

46.2 We are not obliged to keep your holdings in any investments under review for you or to monitor their performance. In addition, we are not obliged to bring investment opportunities to your attention or to continue to monitor or update any information or investment advice which we have provided to you, unless we have agreed to do so as part of an on-going service.
46.3 If we give you investment advice, this does not provide any guarantee that any investment recommended will provide a return or that it will meet your investment objectives. It is important to remember that investments may go down as well as up and that past performance is not a guarantee of future performance.

46.4 You agree and acknowledge that we shall not be liable to you for any loss incurred by you arising from changes in market conditions or market movements.

46.5 You acknowledge that you will be liable and that we shall have no responsibility for any liabilities in respect of unpaid calls or any other sums, costs or expenses payable in respect of any securities held by us on your behalf.

46.6 You agree and acknowledge that we shall not be liable to you for any loss arising in whatever manner directly or indirectly from, or as a result of, any act or omission of or delay by the seller/issuer (or its agent) of the securities, or our broker, to make valid or timely payments/payouts or delivery of the relevant securities to us, or of any other obligation of the seller/issuer or broker.

46.7 Where any jurisdiction restricts foreign ownership of securities, we shall have no duty to ascertain the nationality of the owner of the securities or whether securities deposited or received by you are approved for foreign ownership.

46.8 You remain responsible for compliance with all disclosure obligations that apply to the securities you transact. You agree to comply with all rules relating to market conduct, including applicable laws on insider trading that may apply.

46.9 You shall indemnify us and keep us indemnified in full against any costs or losses, whether then existing or resulting from the exercise of our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions.

46.10 You will not be entitled to claim any money, fees or costs paid to you by a purchaser or any other person by reason of any defect in your title (or lack thereof) to any of the securities or by reason of any of the securities not being genuine.

47. How to terminate the investment services

47.1 If you wish to terminate any of the investment services which we provide to you, you may do so at any time by giving us written notice in accordance with clause 6 of these booking centre terms and conditions. Before the investment services are terminated, you must pay us any amounts outstanding in relation to any adviser charges and/or transaction which you have entered into through our securities dealing service.

47.2 Unless we also provide you with custody services under the custody terms (set out in Part C Custody Services), any notice of termination which you provide to us will not take effect until such time as any investments or documents subject to the custody terms have been transferred out of our custody. We will arrange for the transfer of any investments or documents subject to the custody terms as soon as reasonably practicable after we receive notice of termination from you.

48. Consequences of ceasing to provide the investment services

48.1 On termination:

- any orders or instructions given in respect of the investment services prior to the receipt of the notice of termination will not be affected; and
- we will be entitled to exercise any rights which we might have to sell your investments or to close out all open positions, whether then existing or resulting from the exercise of our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions.

48.2 The giving of a notice of termination by either you or us will not affect any legal rights or obligations which have already arisen prior to the receipt of the notice.

48.3 No penalty will become due from either you or us in respect of the termination of the investment services. However, we may require you to pay an amount in respect of:

- any fees which you pay to us for providing the investment services that have accrued up to the date of termination; and
- reasonable charges for transferring your investments to a third party.
49.3 You represent and/or warrant that (which representations and warranties shall be deemed repeated in relation to each instruction in relation to the fund and on a continuous basis so long as we are maintaining an account for you):

- you will comply with all sale and/or transfer restrictions, undertakings, representations, warranties and indemnities set out in the fund documentation and the constitutive documents of the fund, and you agree to be bound by the terms thereof;
- you are an eligible investor of the fund;
- we may rely upon valuations from the fund and/or other third parties for the purposes of reporting to you the value of your beneficial interest in the fund. We shall not be under any duty to seek to verify the accuracy of such valuations;
- representations made by us and/or our nominees in relation to you (if any, relying on information provided by you) are accurate and correct and you shall not do any act which may as a consequence cause a breach of such representations;
- you shall indemnify us and/or our nominees for any losses that we or they may incur as a consequence of acting on your behalf in subscribing, selling, transferring, switching or otherwise dealing in an interest in the fund; and
- we and/or our nominees shall have no responsibility for the performance of your investment in the fund.

Fund subscription

49.4 We are authorised to take such actions (including execution of documents on your behalf) as we consider necessary or appropriate to subscribe to the fund.

49.5 We have the discretion to purchase interests in the fund on your behalf based on the price of such interests as designated by the fund from time to time.

49.6 No certificate will be issued in respect of the interests in the fund but you shall receive:

- a confirmation statement from us in respect of any subscription of interests in the fund by you; and
- a statement of holdings indicating the number of interests in the fund issued to us as nominee for you, periodically.

49.7 Dividends declared by the fund will be disbursed according to any valid dividend instruction from you. If you:

- have a “cash” dividend instruction, all dividends will be credited to the relevant account we maintain for you;
- have a “reinvestment” dividend instruction, all dividends will be automatically reinvested in the fund through the subscription of additional interests in the fund and we will hold the same for your account as your nominee; and
- have not provided any instruction within the timeframe specified by us, we may disburse the dividends in the manner as we consider appropriate.

Fund switching

49.8 Where switching is permitted by a fund, you may from time to time instruct and authorise us on your behalf, and as your agent, to place a switching order and switch interests in the fund to interests in another fund provided that such other fund is distributed by us and you have complied with all relevant requirements under the fund documentation and the constitutive documents of the fund in relation to such switching.

49.9 The provisions of clauses 49.4 to 49.7 shall apply as if all references therein to the order were references to an application to switch an interest in the fund.

Fund redemption

49.10 If at any time you wish to redeem all or any of the interests in a fund, you shall instruct us to apply to the fund for the redemption of such interests.

49.11 Upon any redemption of interests in the fund, we will credit to the relevant account we maintain for you such monies (net of any fees, charges or expenses incurred in connection with the redemption) as may be received in consideration for the redemption of the interests in the fund. We have no duty to ascertain, nor will it be responsible for, the adequacy of the consideration received.

Transfer

49.12 After we receive transfer instructions from you, we may (but will not be obliged to) act upon any further instructions from you relating to the interests in a fund, subject to our discretion and within the timeframe permitted by the fund.

49.13 Any instruction given by you to us to transfer interests in a fund shall be deemed to be an instruction to transfer all your interests in that fund unless otherwise agreed by us at our discretion.
Cancellation rights

49.14 Subject to clause 49.2 on the cancellation of collective investment scheme, you may have a right to cancel any agreement to purchase any fund. Please refer to the fund documentation for further information about cancellation rights and the period in which you have to cancel the agreement.

Acceptance of instructions

49.15 You acknowledge that the fund is not obliged to accept any instruction received from us in part or whole. We shall not be liable or responsible for any action, rejection or delay on the part of the fund or agents of the fund in respect of any such order, or for any loss which you may suffer or incur as a result of the foregoing.

PART C: CUSTODY SERVICES

50. Custody Services

How we hold your investments

50.1 Unless we agree with you otherwise, we will serve as your custodian for investments you may acquire from or through us or, with our agreement, deposit with us from time to time. We may do so in accounts with us, our nominee, another member of the Standard Chartered Group or with third party sub-custodians we appoint. The investments may also be deposited with or held by a central securities depository. How and where the investments are held may depend on where:

- the principal trading market for the investments is located;
- the investments may be presented for payment; or
- the investments were acquired.

If we hold investment(s) through a nominee, references to "we", "our" or "us" in this Section 3 Part C shall include the nominee or sub-custodian (as the case may be).

50.2 We will use reasonable skill and care in the selection of a sub-custodian and will make appropriate enquiries to ensure that it competently discharges its obligations. We are not otherwise responsible for the acts or omissions or insolvency of the sub-custodian, or if it ceases to carry on business. Our custody services are subject to the terms and conditions of our agreements with the sub-custodians, the customary terms of any securities depository, and the applicable law (including insolvency law) of the jurisdiction in which the investments are held.

50.3 Subject to applicable law, securities may, in our discretion, be held (i) in our name or the name of our nominee, (ii) in the name of the sub-custodian, or (iii) in your name. You agree to complete all instruments of transfer or other document we require to enable us to hold and deal in the securities. We may delay registering the securities in our name or in the name of our nominee or sub-custodian, at our reasonable discretion. We may not be in a position to carry out all our obligations prior to such registration.

We will not be liable for any loss you may suffer as a result.

50.4 If securities are held in our name or in the name of our nominee or the sub-custodian, they may be commingled with securities belonging to other customers. This means that we may not be able to attribute specific securities to you. We also have no obligation to deliver to you securities in their present form, but rather only securities of the same number, class, denomination and issue as original deposited with us.

50.5 We will, or we will procure that our nominee or the sub-custodians will, identify in our/their books that the investments belong to you or your customers generally, as the case may be. We will, or we will procure that our nominee or sub-custodian will, keep a separate record of all investments you hold with us. The purpose of this is to make it clear that you own the investments, so that if the nominee or the sub-custodian becomes insolvent, your investments will not be available to the creditors of the nominee or sub-custodian.

50.6 We hold the investments as bare trustee. You bear all risks associated with the investments.

50.7 We can provide individual segregated accounts to hold your investments at central securities depositaries, upon request. Please speak to your Private Banker for further information.

50.8 We will not investigate ownership or title to the investments. We will not be liable for any defect in ownership or title.

51. Overseas custody

51.1 Where we arrange for one or more of your investments to be held in safe custody outside the country from which we provide services to you, there may be different or additional legal requirements which apply to your investments. This may affect the way in which your investments may be used and administered and your rights relating to your investments may differ.

51.2 There may also be different practices for the identification of investments from those of other of our customers or the other customers of nominees or sub-custodians.

52. Statements relating to your investments

52.1 We will send you a statement detailing all of your investments that we hold for you as custodian at least once a month. You should also see clause 10.3.

52.2 Your statement will show your investments that we hold for you as custodian at their most recent market value. In preparing your statement, we will only use up-to-date information obtained from sources we reasonably believe to be reliable.
53. Scope of authority

53.1 You authorise us (but we are not obliged) to do the following in respect of your investments:

- to surrender or deliver an investment against receipt of monies payable at maturity, redemption or sale or against any other investment upon any exchange of the investment;
- where interest, dividends, distributions, income or other payments (whether in cash or in kind) are payable in respect of any investment, including at maturity, redemption or sale, to collect them, convert them into the currency of the relevant account we maintain for you at our prevailing rates and deposit them into your account;
- to make any withholding or deduction, and pay the same, as may be required by applicable law;
- to do any administrative act in relation to the investments (for example, consolidating or splitting investments into marketable lots, exchanging investments in temporary form for investments in definitive form, or delivering investments in scrip form to a central depository (or similar system) for the purposes of scripless trading);
- to disclose your interests in the investments as may be required by applicable law or rules of the relevant exchange or regulatory authority;
- to deal with the investments or to do any administrative act on your behalf for the purposes of carrying out your instructions (such as completing or submitting any document); and
- to take any action as we think necessary to preserve the integrity of the investments or to protect your interests or our interests.

Accounts

53.2 We will, as soon as practicable, account to you for any income received and rights conferred to you in respect of your investments.

Rights issues, takeovers, etc.

53.3 Subject to clause 53.4, unless we receive instructions from you or from the person whom we reasonably believe to be the legally appointed executor or administrator of your estate (which must be given in accordance with clause 5 of these booking centre terms and conditions and be given in sufficient time for us reasonably to act upon them), we will not be responsible for exercising any of the rights which you may have in your capacity as owner of a particular investment, such as (without limitation):

- exercising any rights to convert your investment into another kind of investment or any rights to subscribe for further investments;
- dealing with the consequences of a takeover, merger or other reorganisation of the issuer; or
- exercising any rights which you may have to vote on the actions of the issuer.

53.4 If we do not receive instructions from you in accordance with clause 53.3:

- where you have been provided by the issuer with a default option in respect of how you may vote, we will act on that default option; or
- where there is no default option, we will not exercise your rights.

53.5 Where any of your investments are registered in our name or in the name of a nominee we will endeavour to procure that:

- all material notices, reports, circulars and other documents, which relate to each investment, received by us or a nominee, are forwarded to you as soon as reasonably practicable, if you have requested them or if we in our discretion think it is expedient to do so. Except in the case of our negligence, wilful default or fraud, we are not liable to you if we do not receive such communications or if by the time we receive them and forward them to you, you do not have sufficient time to act on them;
- if it becomes possible (for example, under the terms of the investment or as a result of a takeover, merger or other reorganisation of the issuer) to convert your investment into another kind of investment or to exchange or cash in your investment, your investments are converted, exchanged or cashed in;
- in the event that any takeover offer is made in respect of your investments or a proposal is made to vary or cancel any rights you have in your investments, we will take no action unless we receive written instructions to the contrary from you; and
- all voting and other rights and powers which may be exercisable by you in relation to your investments shall only be exercised in the way you direct us in writing, provided that in each case:
  - where the action you direct us to take means that we must make a payment or accept liability on your behalf, we have received sufficient funds from you to make such a payment or to cover the cost of accepting such liability; and
  - in the event that an action you direct us to take is not taken within the relevant time limits or at all, we will not be liable to you for any loss or damage caused, except where such a loss or damage is caused as a result of our breach of these booking centre terms and conditions or our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

53.6 If you do not receive a communication under clause 53.5 in time for you to take action upon it, we shall not be liable to you for any loss or damage caused, except where such a loss or damage is as a result of our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

Dividends, interest payments and other entitlements

53.7 Unless we receive instructions from you (or from the person whom we reasonably believe to be the legally appointed executor or administrator of your estate) in relation to such matters (and which allow us reasonably sufficient time to act upon them), we may in our discretion act on your behalf without your instructions with regard to:

- the collection and cashing in of income, interest or other payments which you receive as a result of owning an investment;
- the recovery of and exchange of investments, provided that such action does not require the exercise of business discretion; and
- taking the default option of any corporate actions in relation to your investment.
53.8 You authorise us to:

- where your investments include bonds or other debt instruments, deal as your agent with the administrative procedures with regard to the payment to you of interest;
- hand over your investments upon their maturity once we have received any money which you are due on their maturity; and
- deduct or withhold any sum on account of any tax:
  - which, acting reasonably, we consider that we are required to do by applicable law; or
  - which, acting reasonably, we consider that you are liable or accountable to pay under applicable law.

Discrepancies

53.9 If there are discrepancies between monies or investments due and monies or investments actually received, we may withhold payment or delivery to the relevant account(s) we maintain for you until such discrepancies are resolved.

53.10 If an issuer, exchange or operator of a clearing system requests the return of monies or investments already paid or delivered to an account we maintain for you, we are authorised to debit the same from that account.

54. Commingled investments

54.1 In some cases, we, nominees or sub-custodians may pool your investments with those of one or more other clients. This means that your individual entitlements under those investments may not be clearly identifiable.

54.2 In these circumstances, the following provisions apply:

- if an investment fails, and there is an irreconcilable shortfall, you may have to share in that shortfall proportionately with other clients who have their investments pooled with yours. This may mean that you do not receive your full entitlement or that you lose your entitlement to particular investments;
- if there is an event which affects some but not all of the investments pooled together, we will allocate the investments affected to our customers in a way that we reasonably believe to be fair and appropriate. We may use, amongst other things, a proportionate method of distribution or random lottery, for this purpose; and
- we will distribute all other entitlements and benefits on a pro-rata basis.

55. Liability

55.1 We accept responsibility for the obligations, set out in these booking centre terms and conditions, of any nominee controlled by us or an affiliate.

55.2 However, we do not accept responsibility for losses covered by the acts or omissions of any sub-custodian, other than for losses arising out of our breach of these booking centre terms and conditions (for example, where we have failed to use reasonable skill and care in selecting a sub-custodian) or out of our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

55.3 Notwithstanding the above, applicable laws relating to insolvency differ between countries and so your investments held in custody may not always be protected in this way if they are held by a nominee or sub-custodian in a jurisdiction where the principles of insolvency law are different.

55.4 Unless we are in breach of these booking centre terms and conditions, or we have been negligent, in wilful default or fraudulent, we shall not be liable to repay to you the whole or part of any investment which is held by a sub-custodian who becomes insolvent. In the event of such insolvency, you may lose all or part of the investment held by that sub-custodian.

56. Termination

56.1 We may decline to provide, or continue providing, custody services in relation to particular investments at our discretion. If we do so, or if our custody services are terminated altogether, you shall make arrangements for the transfer of the investments to you or another custodian of your choice. You agree to complete all documents required to effect such a transfer.

56.2 If you fail to make such arrangements, we may (at your expense) transfer, redeem or sell the investments at our discretion and pay the proceeds into an account we maintain for you. We may take any action and complete all documents on your behalf in order to do so. We will not be liable for any losses you suffer, unless such loss is directly caused by our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

57. Security interest

57.1 For the avoidance of doubt, any investment we hold as custodian may be subject to a security interest in our favour.

57.2 We may create (or allow to be created) a security interest, lien or right of set-off in favour of a third party (including a custodian or depositary) (a “third party security interest”) over or in respect of any investment we hold for you as custodian where either:

(a) the third party security interest arises to facilitate the clearing or settlement of transactions that refer only to you or our other clients; or

(b) we are reasonably satisfied that the creation of such third party security interest is required by the applicable law.

57.3 Where third party security interests are created there is the risk that where we (or any other person whose obligations are secured by, or set-off against pursuant to, such third party security interests) default on our obligations towards the relevant third party, or in other circumstances, including where the third party anticipates that such obligor may default on its obligations (including due to the onset or potential onset of insolvency proceedings), then such third party may enforce its rights over (or set-off its obligations against) your investment and, as a consequence, you may lose and not be able to recover such investment from us or from the third party, regardless of whether you are in actual or potential default of your obligations to us or any other person.
57.4 You agree that a third party security interest may be created (or may already have been created) and that a person, entity or undertaking other than us may therefore have a security interest, lien or (if applicable) right of set-off over your investment where allowed under applicable law.

58. Compliance with laws

59. You are responsible for compliance with all disclosure obligations under the relevant provisions of Part XV of the SFO, the Securities and Futures (Contracts Limits and Reportable Positions) Rules, the Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and Share Repurchases, and all other applicable law relating to disclosure of interests in securities in Hong Kong or elsewhere. You acknowledge that neither we nor any other member of the Standard Chartered Group, or their respective directors, officers or employees shall be liable for any loss, cost or expense arising from any failure or delay by you or any other person to disclose in accordance with any such law.

60. You undertake not to engage in any activity which may constitute market misconduct under the SFO, and you shall inform us immediately if you become aware of any activity by any person that may result in you being involved in market misconduct.
SECTION 4 – CREDIT FACILITY AND TRADING FACILITY TERMS

61. General

61.1 If we agree to make a credit facility or trading facility available to you incorporating these credit terms, we will enter into a facility agreement with you. The facility agreement and these credit terms shall constitute the relevant product terms and together with the documents set out in clause 1.11 of these booking centre terms and conditions shall constitute an agreement between us regarding the provision of credit facilities or trading facilities. Where credit facilities are made available as a temporary arranged overdraft, these credit terms will also apply, irrespective of whether the arrangement is documented in a facility agreement.

61.2 Credit facilities may be available to you by way of:
- Arranged overdrafts;
- Loans, which are advances for a fixed period of time; and
- Issuance of standby letters of credit (SBLC) or bank guarantees by us (SCB Guarantees), on your behalf or on behalf of named parties.

61.3 Credit facilities or trading facilities are uncommitted and are available to you at our absolute discretion. This means that we may review the credit facilities or trading facilities at any time and may terminate or (subject to these credit terms) amend the terms of any credit facility or trading facility at our absolute discretion. We do not have to make or continue to make any credit facility, trading facility or any part of any credit facility or trading facility or any utilisation of any credit facility available to you. We will give you notice of such termination or amendment.

61.4 You acknowledge that Part 5 and Part 8 of the Banking (Exposure Limits) Rules (Chapter 155S of the Laws of Hong Kong) impose on us certain limitations on advances to persons (including firms, partnerships and companies) related to its directors, employees with lending authority or controllers, or to our employees (each a “related person”). You confirm that you are not a related person and undertake to advise us promptly in writing if you become aware that you have become or will become a related person.

62. Facility amount

62.1 The total aggregate amount you can utilise under any credit facility is limited to the facility amount stated in the relevant facility agreement. We may review the facility amount at any time at our absolute discretion. The facility amount is subject to us holding sufficient collateral. You should see clause 70 of these Credit Terms.

63. Purpose

63.1 Credit facilities or trading facilities may only be used for legitimate purposes in accordance with applicable law.

63.2 We do not have to enquire or monitor and we are not responsible for your use of credit facilities. You agree to provide us with such information as we may request from time to time concerning the purpose or use of the credit facilities.

64. Interest, fees and costs

64.1 You must pay the interest, fees and costs applying to the credit facilities or trading facilities. These will be at the rates or in the amounts specified in the facility agreement or our prevailing fee schedule, or informed to you from time to time. Subject to applicable law, we may change the rates and/or amounts at any time at our absolute discretion.

64.2 The total interest rate apply to your credit facilities will be the aggregate of the applicable base interest rate and the loan margin and/or the overdraft margin specified in the facility agreement.

64.3 Interest we charge under any facility documentation will accrue daily and on the basis of a 365 day year (for HKD, GBP, SGD and other currency we may designate from time to time), or a 360 day year (for other currencies), in both ordinary or leap years on which interest is charged. Commission, fees and other costs are payable in accordance with the facility agreement.

64.4 You will not be entitled to any refund of any fees or costs should a credit facility or trading facility be terminated, cancelled or prepaid prior to the facility expiry date.

65. Arranged overdrafts

65.1 Arranged overdrafts are repayable on demand. This means that if we make a demand, you must immediately repay any such arranged overdraft in full, together with all unpaid interest, fees and costs on such overdrafts.

65.2 Interest on arranged overdrafts accrues daily and shall be debited on the first day of each calendar month. Any unpaid interest shall be compounded monthly.

65.3 Interest on any arranged overdraft shall be calculated on the amount standing to the debit of the relevant account(s) we maintain for you being the cleared daily overdrawn balance on each relevant account.

66. Loans

66.1 Loans shall be in amounts and for periods acceptable to us. Subject always to our right to demand repayment at any time as mentioned in clause 61.3, each loan shall be repaid on the last day of the loan period, being its maturity date. In respect of any Loan with a tenor of monthly multiples with auto-rollover, if the maturity date is not a banking day, then the maturity date shall be the next banking day, unless that day falls in the next calendar month, in which case the maturity date shall be the preceding banking day. In respect of other Loans, if the maturity date is not a banking day, then the maturity date shall be the next banking day.
69. Conditions precedent

69.2 The availability of

68.1 Unless otherwise specified,

68.2 If you utilise a credit facility in an alternative currency, and that alternative currency subsequently appreciates in value against the base currency such that your total outstandings exceed the base currency amount, we may ask you to repay the credit facility, or reduce the total outstandings in base currency to less than the facility amount. Alternatively, we may increase the facility amount and you agree to such increase.

67. SBLC and SCB Guarantees

67.1 We will only issue SBLC and SCB Guarantees in a form and substance satisfactory to us.

67.2 If a demand for payment is made on an SBLC or SCB Guarantee issued on an account we maintain for you, we will pay the amount demanded in accordance with the terms of the SBLC or SCB Guarantee to the debit of that account. We are not required to investigate the validity of the demand or ask if you agree with it. We will pay the amount demanded even if you inform us that you dispute the demand.

67.3 You agree to reimburse us for all amounts we pay on an SBLC or SCB Guarantee issued on an account we maintain for you, regardless of whether we have on the SBLC or SCB Guarantee. You further agree to indemnify us in full against all demands, claims, costs or proceedings in connection with the SBLC or SCB Guarantee. This indemnity is independent of the performance of the contract between the party on whose behalf we issued the SBLC or SCB Guarantee, and the beneficiary of the SBLC or SCB Guarantee.

67.4 If we are required to receive documents prior to making payment on an SBLC or SCB Guarantee, regardless of whether we have paid on the SBLC or SCB Guarantee, you agree that

67.5 If you ask us to issue an SBLC or SCB Guarantee to support the obligations of a named party other than yourself, you agree that

68. Currencies

68.1 Unless otherwise specified, credit facilities may be utilised in the base currency or in any alternative currency.

68.2 If you utilise a credit facility in an alternative currency, and that alternative currency subsequently appreciates in value against the base currency such that your total outstandings exceed any facility amount, we may ask you to repay the credit facility in such amount as to reduce the total outstandings in base currency to less than the facility amount. Alternatively, we may increase the facility amount and you agree to such increase.

68.3 Utilisations in any currency are subject to applicable legal and regulatory restrictions relating to that currency.

68.4 For the purposes of calculating or assessing the amount of credit facilities available for utilisation, the total outstandings, any lending value, or for any other purpose, we may make notional conversions between the base currency, the alternative currency and any other currency at our discretion, at any rate and at any time we reasonably consider to be appropriate.

69. Conditions precedent

69.1 A utilisation request must be made in such form and manner, and must be received by us at such time prior to the utilisation date, as we require. All utilisations are subject to our prior approval.

69.2 The availability of credit facilities or trading facilities is subject to us having received to our satisfaction:

• if we require, an application for credit facilities or trading facilities, duly completed;
• A duplicate copy of the facility agreement, duly signed;
• All duly signed or executed collateral documents or guarantees we require;
• Payment of our fees and charges;
• Such information as we may require on your affairs and financial condition, or that of any other collateral provider;
• Where you are a corporate entity, such copy corporate resolutions and authorities, certified as true copies by one of your directors, as we may require;
• Any other authorisation, document, information, legal opinion or other assurance we may consider necessary or desirable in connection with the entry into and performance of the transactions envisaged by the facility documentation, or for the validity or enforceability of the same;
• Any additional items as detailed in the facility agreement.

69.3 In addition, you may only utilise a credit facility or trading facility if:

• All terms of the facility documentation have been satisfied;
• All representations, warranties and undertakings in the facility documentation are complied with and correct as at the date of each utilisation;
• No default is continuing or in our opinion is likely to occur; and
• We are satisfied we hold sufficient collateral. You should refer to clause 70.
70. Collateral

70.1 Without prejudice to Section 1 Part F (Collateral) of these booking centre terms and conditions, you will ensure that we hold sufficient collateral. This means that:

You must at all times ensure that the collateral we hold is at least the amount we require. For a credit facility, this means that the total lending value of the collateral we hold (excluding any collateral we have earmarked for collateralised margin products) needs to be equal to or more than your total outstandings. For a collateralised margin product, this means that you agree to us earmarking (or setting aside or transferring to us) sufficient collateral in respect of such product, where the total lending value of the earmarked collateral needs to be equal to or more than the amount we require for that collateralised margin product (i.e., you must always maintain the required margin of collateral).

Collateral we earmark for a collateralised margin product does not count towards the calculation of the total lending value of the collateral we hold for your credit facilities, and vice versa, unless we agree otherwise.

You may only utilise a credit facility up to (i) the total lending value of the collateral we hold (excluding any earmarked collateral for a collateralised margin product), or (ii) the facility amount, whichever is lower.

Collateral must be in the form of cash or other assets acceptable to us or, in certain cases, specified by us.

If at any time the collateral we hold is less than the amount we require, we may at our discretion (and notwithstanding any delay on our part in doing so or any intervening fluctuation in the total lending value of the collateral or the facility amount):

• demand (in writing or orally and confirmed in writing) that you promptly furnish us with additional collateral acceptable to us together with such collateral documents as we may require, and/or repay all or part of the credit facilities, such that the total lending value of the collateral we hold is equal to or more than your total outstandings. You must comply with our demand within the time period we give you in the demand; and/or

• in the case of a collateralised margin product, we may demand (in writing or orally) that you promptly furnish us with additional collateral acceptable to us and/or terminate all or some of the derivative contracts, such that the total lending value of the collateral we hold is at least the amount we require (to maintain the margin of collateral) and/or the amount of the mark-to-market loss on an outstanding derivative contract, as the case may be. You must comply with our demand within the time period we give you in the demand; and/or

• declare that any credit facility or trading facility shall immediately terminate; and/or

• immediately enforce all or any of our rights under the facility documentation and/or terminate outstanding derivative contracts. We may do so unilaterally. This means that we do not have to give you notice (either in advance or at the time) or make a demand on you. We may also exercise this right even if we have given you a time period within which to furnish us with additional collateral and/or repay the credit facility and/or terminate outstanding derivative contracts, and that time period has yet to expire. We will notify you promptly after we have exercised any such right.

In addition, if you fail to comply with any demand by us to provide additional collateral and/or to repay the credit facilities and/or to terminate outstanding derivative contracts as mentioned above, we may also, without prior notice or demand on you, enforce all or any of the rights to the extent we consider necessary to put us in the position we would have been in had you complied with our demand.

Any breach of this clause 70.1 shall constitute a default for the purposes of any collateral document in addition to those listed in clause 19.2 and whether or not we shall terminate any credit facility or trading facility.

We do the above acts without prejudice to any of our other rights under the facility documentation. For the avoidance of doubt, we do not have to terminate a credit facility or trading facility in order to enforce all or any of our rights under the relevant facility documentation, or to terminate outstanding derivative contracts. If we choose not to terminate a credit facility or trading facility, we may at our discretion enforce our rights under the relevant facility documentation or terminate outstanding derivative contracts until the total lending value of the remaining collateral is equal to your total outstandings.

70.2 Notwithstanding any other term in the facility documentation whether express or implied, in writing or otherwise, we may determine or at any time review or change the approved LTV and/or the lending value of any item of collateral at our absolute discretion.

70.3 In doing so, we may, acting reasonably and in good faith:

• in determining the market value of any item of collateral, treat all items of collateral representing rights against the same company or group of companies as collateral of the same company; or

• attribute lower or no lending value to any item of collateral (or reduce or set to zero the approved LTV of such item of collateral) at our sole discretion if:
  – it forms a significant proportion of the collateral you furnish us, and we determine it to be in excess of an amount we can accept;
  – we already hold a significant amount of such item as collateral for our other customers;
  – you already directly or indirectly control significant voting rights in connection with such item of collateral;
  – we consider such item of collateral illiquid;
  – we consider such item of collateral volatile;
  – we consider the enforcement risk in respect of the value of such item of collateral has become or will become higher;
  – we consider market conditions to warrant such a determination; or
  – for any other reason.

70.4 For the avoidance of doubt, even if we do not attribute any lending value to an item of collateral, such item continues to be collateral held by us on the terms of the collateral documents.
71. Representations, warranties and undertakings

71.1 You repeat the representations and warranties in clause 8.7 of these booking centre terms and conditions.

71.2 In addition to your obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions, you undertake:

- not to create, or permit to subsist, any security interest (i.e., any mortgage, charge, pledge, lien or other security interest) over the collateral or part of the collateral other than in our favour;
- that your liabilities and obligations under each facility agreement and collateral document shall not at any time rank after or lower in priority to any of your other liabilities and obligations to other lending institutions or your other creditors;
- to take all steps to comply with all formalities required by or desirable under applicable law to perfect the security interests created by the collateral documents;
- at our request, to provide us with any authorisation, document, information (including information on your affairs and financial condition, or that of any collateral provider or guarantor), legal opinion or other assurance we may consider necessary or desirable in connection with the entry into and performance of the transactions envisaged by the facility documentation, or for the validity or enforceability of the same;
- to use the credit facilities for lawful purposes only;
- you shall acquire valid insurances for all properties through an insurance company as approved or arranged by us in order to cover our and your respective rights and interests throughout the tenure of the credit facility. The insurance policy shall cover against risks of fire and extraneous perils and such other risk(s) as we may reasonably require and determine fit. The insurance policy shall provide our interest as loss-payee and/or mortgagee and shall have the non-cancellation and mortgagee clauses endorsed thereon.

All premiums unless otherwise stated or agreed by us shall be payable by you and shall be debited from an account we maintain for you. All renewal certificates and all premium receipts shall be deposited with us to:

- procure the payment of all rents in respect of all properties direct to an account we maintain for you;
- ensure that at all times, we hold sufficient collateral. You should also see clause 70;
- immediately notify us of any material change in any information provided to us; and
- immediately notify us whenever anything happens which is or could result in a default.

72. Payments

72.1 You must promptly pay to us all amounts due to us and all amounts we demand from you.

72.2 Payments must reach us on or before the due date (or immediately, on demand) to such account as we may from time to time notify to you. If any interest is payable on the amount due, interest shall be computed up till the time payment is actually received by us. You should also see clause 72.6.

72.3 We may debit any amount due to us, including any interest payment, from any account we maintain for you, including if this would place your account in authorized overdraft (as applicable) or unauthorized overdraft.

72.4 All payments made under the facility documentation shall be made in full without any set-off or withholding for taxes or other deductions. If you are compelled by applicable law to make a payment subject to any set-off, withholding or deduction, then you shall account for the same as and when required by applicable law, and you shall pay to us all necessary additional amounts to ensure that we receive and retain (free from any liability) the full amount that we would have received had the payment not been subject to the set-off, deduction or withholding. You shall promptly provide to us certificates of deduction or such tax receipts or other documents as we may require.

72.5 If any applicable law, enacted or issued by any governmental or other authority causes the cost to us of funding any credit facility to increase, you will pay to us on demand the amount of such increased costs.

72.6 If you fail to pay any amount due to us under the facility documentation, we shall be entitled to charge you interest on such amount from the due date to the date of actual payment (whether before or after any demand or judgment), at the default rate. In respect of any loan in default, we have the absolute discretion to change the rollover period for any amount you owe us as we deem appropriate and interest on such sums will accrue daily and be compounded in accordance with such rollover period.

72.7 All payments made to us shall be made in the currency of the outstanding amount, or relevant cost or expense incurred. We may ask that you make payment in another currency we consider appropriate.

72.8 If any payment is made to us in a currency other than the currency in which such payment obligation is due, whether pursuant to our request, or a judgement or order being made against you or in connection with your bankruptcy, liquidation, désastre, administration or otherwise, we may convert the payment received into the currency in which such payment obligation is due in accordance with our usual practice, and you shall indemnify us fully against any shortfall between that converted amount and the payment obligation in the contract currency.

72.9 If the amount we receive from you is less than the amount due to us, we may apply the amount we receive towards the payment of interests, fees, costs or principal in any order or proportion we choose.

72.10 In any litigation or arbitration proceedings arising out of or in connection with the facility documentation, the entries made by us in the accounts we maintain for you are prima facie evidence of the matters to which they relate.

72.11 Any certification or determination by us of a rate or amount under any facility documentation is, in the absence of manifest error, conclusive evidence of the matters to which it relates.
73. Termination and enforcement

73.1 We may terminate any credit facility or trading facility and demand repayment of any total outstandings at any time. Without prejudice to that right, any credit facility or trading facility may also be terminated by us in accordance with clause 19 of these booking centre terms and conditions or if any event listed in clause 19 of these booking centre terms and conditions occurs in relation to any collateral provider, or any guarantor. Any termination shall be without prejudice to any of our other rights under or in respect of the facility documentation or the collateral.

73.2 In addition to our rights under clause 19 of these booking centre terms and conditions and your obligations to repay the credit facilities, if for any reason, any credit facility is terminated:
   • You shall procure the release of any SBLC or SCB Guarantee we may have issued on your behalf but we may in any event demand that you immediately provide us with cash cover for the SBLC or SCB Guarantee by paying us an amount in the currency of the SBLC or SCB Guarantee to an account with us and subject to such security interest in our favour as we may require.
   • You shall procure the discharge or release of all liabilities we incur on your behalf that are contingent or have yet to mature; and
   • We may enforce all or any of our rights under the facility documentation.

73.3 We may take any action we consider appropriate to recover any amount owing to us or to enforce a facility documentation. You should also see clause 20 of these booking centre terms and conditions.

73.4 To the extent allowed by applicable law, we may apply the proceeds from the enforcement of our security interest in collateral, or of the collateral documents or any guarantee, towards payment of interest, fees, costs or principal in any order or proportion we choose.

73.5 You may terminate all or any part of a credit facility or trading facility by giving written notice to us, and you shall bear all costs and fees that may arise (directly or indirectly) as a consequence of such termination. Termination will not affect the customer's liabilities in respect of any outstanding SBLC Guarantee or SBLC.

74. Miscellaneous

74.1 The collateral documents and any guarantee apply to all transactions under the facility agreement and the credit terms. We may hold all collateral, collateral documents and guarantees in our possession and not discharge or release them until we are satisfied that the total outstandings have been unconditionally and irrevocably repaid, all SBLC or SCB Guarantees we may have issued on your behalf have been released, all liabilities we incur on your behalf have been discharged or released, and no further liabilities are capable of becoming outstanding.

74.2 Our calculation of the amount of collateral, market value, lending value, and total outstandings shall be made in such manner and at such times as we in our absolute discretion determine and shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on you.

74.3 You will reimburse us (regardless of whether any credit facility or trading facility becomes available) for all reasonable costs and expenses, including legal fees, valuation fees, bank charges, custody fees, stamp duty and other duties and taxes, incurred by us in the negotiation, preparation, execution, perfection and performance, of the facility documentation and in relation to the collateral, and for all costs and expenses incurred by us in the preservation and enforcement of the facility documentation or the collateral.

We may in our discretion meet any such costs and expenses by debiting an account we maintain for you and shall be reimbursed by you in accordance with the preceding sentence.

74.4 We reserve the right to assign, transfer or sub-participate all or any of our rights or obligations under the facility documentation to any other financial institution (including any of our affiliates). For this purpose, we may disclose to a potential assignee, transferee or sub-participant such information about you, a collateral provider, a guarantor and the facility documentation as we may consider appropriate.

74.5 You may not assign or transfer any of your rights or obligations under the facility documentation.

74.6 No failure or delay by us in exercising any right or remedy we may have pursuant to the facility documentation shall operate as a full or partial waiver of such right or remedy, nor shall a single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise or the exercise of any other right or remedy. Our rights and remedies in the facility documentation are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by applicable law or under any other agreement.

74.7 If, at any time, any provision of the facility documentation is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under applicable law, neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions nor the legality, validity or enforceability of such provision under applicable law will in any way be affected or impaired.

74.8 Time is of the essence under the facility agreement and these credit terms. It is fundamental that you perform your obligations on time. Otherwise, we may exercise our rights without the need to give further notice to you.

74.9 You certify that all information and particulars given to us in relation to the credit facilities or trading facilities is true and accurate and that we are authorised to conduct all necessary due diligence for the purposes of anti-money laundering controls and credit evaluation, and you agree to submit such further information, details and documentation as we may require for such purposes.

74.10 The facility agreement and these credit terms do not exclude booking centre terms and conditions implied by applicable law, but if there is an inconsistency the facility agreement and these credit terms shall prevail where they may lawfully do so.

74.11 The facility documentation executed by you shall remain our property at any time (including such time after relevant credit facilities or trading facilities are terminated or matured). We may provide you with copies of the facility documentation upon request for records.
75. Amendments

75.1 Additional terms applicable to the credit facilities or trading facilities are set out in the facility agreement and any amendment or supplement from time to time.

75.2 Subject to clause 61.3 we may, acting reasonably and in good faith, amend these credit terms from time to time by giving you notice in writing.

82. Suitability

82.1 Although we will comply with our obligations under applicable law to assess the suitability of an investment for you (to the extent applicable), we are not obliged to identify your wider wealth planning needs when we provide our product or service to you unless you expressly request that we do so and we agree to do so. If we agree to advise you on your wider financial planning needs, you agree to provide us with such information as we reasonably consider necessary in order to provide you with such wealth planning recommendations.

82.2 We are not obliged to keep your holdings in investments or other assets under review, to monitor their performance for you, or to determine whether the assets which you hold in the account we maintain for you remain invested in a manner which is consistent with your investment objectives. In addition, we are not obliged to bring investment opportunities to your attention or to continually update any information we may have previously provided you. Any information we give is only valid at the point in time it is given.

82.3 If we are not exempt from having to comply with clause 82.3 of the SFC Code of Conduct and we solicit the sale of or recommend any financial product (as defined below) to you, the financial product must be reasonably suitable for you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives. No other provision of these relationship centre terms and conditions or any other document that we may ask you to sign, and no statement that we may ask you to make, derogates from this clause 82.3. For the purposes of this clause 82.3, “financial product” means any securities, futures contracts or leveraged foreign exchange contracts, as defined under the SFO. Regarding “leveraged foreign exchange contracts”, this clause 82.3 is only applicable to those traded by persons licensed for Type 3 regulated activity (leveraged foreign exchange trading) (as defined under the SFO). Unless restricted by applicable law, we do not owe you any fiduciary duties.

Examples of when we may be exempt from having to comply with paragraph 6.2(i) of the SFC Code of Conduct include circumstances where:

(a) you are a knowledgeable and experienced corporate professional investor and we have complied with the incidental procedures set out in paragraph 15.3B of the SFC Code of Conduct; or

(b) we are entitled by applicable law to be exempt from having to comply with paragraph 6.2(i) of the SFC Code of Conduct.

82.4 You agree to regularly provide us with information relating to your risk tolerance, investment objective, investment experience or sophistication, financial situation and financial needs. We use and rely on this information to help you make investment decisions that meet the appropriate risk profile and to ensure, to the extent required by applicable law, that any financial product (as defined in clause 82.3) which we proceed on an execution-only basis for you are reasonably suitable for you at the point of sale. If there are circumstances or other considerations that you feel are relevant, you should inform us.
