Key words

The meaning of key words printed in italics like this are explained in Section 5.

SECTION 1: GENERAL TERMS

PART A: OUR PRIVATE BANKING RELATIONSHIP

1 The terms of our relationship

1.1 Welcome to Standard Chartered Private Bank. We welcome this opportunity to provide private banking services to you. The private banking services offered by the Standard Chartered Group are made up of: (i) general execution and custody services, which are provided by us as your booking centre, and (ii) relationship and advisory services, which are provided by a Private Banker from a relationship centre. Your booking centre(s) and the relationship centre may be in the same location, or may be located separately. These arrangements are described in more detail below.

To open a private banking account with us in Jersey, you should complete an appropriate account opening application and submit it to your Private Banker together with the supporting documents that we may require. We reserve the right to decline to accept your application to open an account.

The booking centre – Jersey

1.2 When your account opening application has been approved, we will open and maintain a private banking account in your name with Standard Chartered Bank, Jersey Branch. This will be your booking centre, which is responsible for carrying out execution, clearing and settlement services and providing custody services for the account(s) we maintain for you. You may give instructions to us directly or through your Private Banker located in your relationship centre. You should also see clause 1.7.

1.3 These booking centre terms and conditions, read with your account opening application, the fee schedule and any additional agreements or forms related to our services or your relationship with us set out your banking agreement with Standard Chartered Bank, Jersey Branch as the booking centre. They govern your and our rights and obligations with regards to your account and also apply to products and services offered by the booking centre.

The relationship centre

1.4 A Private Banker will be assigned to assist you with your relationship with the private banking division of the Standard Chartered Group. Your relationship centre will be responsible for providing you with relationship services. You should be aware that your relationship centre has no authority to commit us to execute any transactions on your behalf, and we may exercise our independent discretion to decline to act on any instruction.

1.5 Your relationship centre need not be in the same location as your booking centre. You should also see clause 1.7.

1.6 There are separate relationship centre terms and conditions which apply between you and the relationship centre.

Product agreements and service agreements

1.7 A product agreement or service agreement entered into with a booking centre binds that booking centre only (unless expressly stated otherwise), and not other booking centres or your relationship centre. Similarly, an agreement with a relationship centre binds that relationship centre only. Neither your relationship centre nor your Private Banker has the authority to act or enter into a product agreement or service agreement on behalf of a booking centre.

1.8 If you are not domiciled in the same location as your booking centre, additional terms and conditions may apply as notified by us.

1.9 While your relationship centre is authorised to give you information about products or services offered by us, neither your relationship centre nor the Private Bankers or other employees or agents have any authority to make representations or agree to terms that are not already set out in a product agreement or service agreement.

1.10 If we agree to provide a product or service to you, the terms and conditions on which you may purchase or use the product or service will form our product agreement or service agreement, as the case may be. Each product agreement or service agreement is made up of the following documents, as may be applicable:

- the application;
- the product terms or service terms;
- any letter of offer;
- any approval, confirmation or transaction record;
- the fee schedule;
- these booking centre terms and conditions read with the account opening application;
- any disclosure statements or guidelines we issue in connection with use of a product or service (for example, guidelines for use of electronic banking services); and

- any other terms and conditions that form part of our product agreement or service agreement as varied or replaced from time to time.

In these booking centre terms and conditions, where we use the words “product” or “service”, we do so interchangeably for convenience. If the context allows, a reference to a product includes a service, a reference to product terms includes service terms, and a reference to product agreement includes service agreement. The reverse also applies.

- 1.11 The terms of our product agreement or service agreement apply to each purchase or use of a product or service by you or any authorised person. If you do not agree with or understand the terms of our product agreement or service agreement, you should not carry out the transaction or access any account we maintain for you.
- 1.12 If you have any concerns about these booking centre terms and conditions, any product or service, or any product agreement, service agreement or collateral document, we recommend you seek assistance from independent financial, tax or legal advisers as may be appropriate.
- 1.13 In relation to any products distributed or referred by us which originate from third party service providers, we may or may not act as your agent, any dispute over the contractual terms or performance of such products should be resolved between you and the third party service providers, and you agree that we owe you no liability with respect to the products except as otherwise explicitly indicated in the applicable product agreement or herein.

Interpretation

- 1.14 If there is any inconsistency between:
- these booking centre terms and conditions and any specific terms (such as product terms, service terms or any letter of offer or collateral document), the specific terms prevail; and
 - the English version of these booking centre terms and conditions and any translations, the English version prevails.
- 1.15 These booking centre terms and conditions and your account are subject to applicable laws. If and to the extent that any provision of applicable law conflicts with any provision of these booking centre terms and conditions and such provision of applicable laws cannot be varied contractually, such provision of applicable law shall prevail.

2 Pre-conditions to use of any product or service

- 2.1 We need not provide any funds to you or otherwise allow you to use a product or service if:
- we consider you may be in default;
 - you have not satisfied any pre-conditions to us set out in our approval, the applicable product terms or service terms, elsewhere in our product agreement or service agreement or as we notify you at any time;
 - you have not given us the collateral we require in addition to the collateral set out in Section 1 Part F (Collateral);
 - we consider that you may not be able to satisfy your obligations to us under our product agreement or service agreement. We may determine this is the case if, for example, there has been a change in your financial position since the date of your application;
 - we advise you that funds can only be provided or the product or service can only be used during a specified period (for example, the availability period), and that period has expired;
 - you have not provided us with all documents and information we reasonably request;
 - you give us any incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or document or make an incorrect or misleading representation or warranty;
 - circumstances beyond our control occurs which prevents us from providing the product or service to you; or
 - if we reasonably determine that it would involve a breach of any law or code of practice or be inconsistent with our policy or prudent banking practice.
- 2.2 In addition, for some products and services, we need not provide funds to you or otherwise allow you to use the product or service if, in our absolute discretion, we decide not to do so. You should check the applicable product terms or service terms.

3 Minimum account balance

- 3.1 We may require you to maintain a minimum account balance. If you do not maintain any minimum account balance set by us, we may charge a fee in order to maintain the account or your Private Banker may move your account to another business segment which requires a lower minimum account balance. If your Private Banker moves your account to another business segment, we will notify you, but these booking centre terms and conditions will continue to apply to your account(s) with the Jersey Branch of Standard Chartered Bank. For details of the minimum balance or applicable fee, please contact your Private Banker or refer to our fee schedule.

4 Review

4.1 We may review these booking centre terms and conditions, the product terms or the service terms at any time. We may, subject to applicable law or the product terms or service terms:

- terminate any banking relationship (including closing any account we maintain for you) without giving reasons;
- terminate or cancel a product agreement or service agreement;
- adjust any limit or interest rate applying to the product or service or vary its term;
- ask you to place additional assets with us in order for us to continue to provide you with any product or service or continue our banking relationship with you;
- require additional collateral; and/or
- otherwise vary these booking centre terms and conditions or the terms of our product agreement or service agreement.

PART B: INSTRUCTIONS, NOTIFICATIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

5 Instructions

Form of instructions

5.1 You may provide instructions to us through your relationship centre (by providing instructions to your Private Banker) or directly through any electronic banking service. Unless we as your booking centre, or your relationship centre, tell you that instructions must be given in a particular way, we will accept instructions by telephone, fax, email or other electronic form, or through any electronic banking service, subject to the execution and provision of any documents we may require. All instructions must be sent to the address, telephone or fax number, or email address designated by us to receive such instructions. We may designate different addresses, telephone or fax numbers, or email addresses, for different types of instructions and for different booking centres. We reserve the right to act on any instructions only after we have verified them. You are responsible for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of instructions. You should also see clause 8.

5.2 You acknowledge that your relationship centre and we, as your booking centre, may treat all instructions you, or an authorised person give us on your account, as irrevocable and binding on you.

How we may act

5.3 You authorise us to act on instructions from you (including any instructions we believe to have been given by you) or from your relationship centre on your behalf.

5.4 We may at our absolute discretion:

- complete, clarify or correct any incomplete or unclear instructions if we reasonably believe we can, or your relationship centre can complete, clarify or correct the information without referring to you. Notwithstanding this discretion, we may refuse to act on incomplete or unclear instructions;
- refuse to act or act on one or more instructions which conflict with each other;
- determine the order of acting if multiple instructions are received;
- specify conditions on which we accept any instructions, including the execution or provision of additional documents;
- act or refuse to act if we have suspended your account or if we placed limits on a sub-account for a particular product which would otherwise be breached;
- require verification of any instruction we receive before acting on it;
- act on instructions which we reasonably believe to be authentic as long as we have acted in good faith and in accordance with our usual business practice and procedure in verifying the authenticity of the instructions;

- act as otherwise set out in service specific terms (e.g. investment terms and custody terms);
- refuse to act if we reasonably believe that you have no legal or mental capacity to give instructions; or
- act in accordance with our usual business practice and procedure and we need only accept instructions if we consider it reasonable and practicable to do so. For example, we may refuse to act if an instruction may involve a breach of our policy, any security procedure or any applicable law or any sanctions, is inconsistent with prudent banking practice, would result in an unarranged overdraft or if we believe or suspect the instruction is unauthorised.

5.5 We will not be liable for any loss you incur as a result of us acting or not acting (as the case may be) on the instruction for any of the above reasons, unless such loss is directly caused by our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

Inability to process

5.6 If we cannot process instructions, we will attempt to notify you within a reasonable time in accordance with applicable law.

Timing

5.7 We do our best to process instructions within a reasonable period of time, but processing times may vary. We will not be liable for any loss you incur as a result of a delay in processing your instructions, unless such loss is directly caused by our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

5.8 If we receive an instruction on a non-banking day or after our “cut-off time” for a product, we may treat it as having been received on the next banking day.

5.9 Please contact us if you need to confirm that an instruction has reached us and, subject to clause 6.8, that it will be carried out by a particular time.

Stopping a transaction

5.10 If we are instructed to stop a transaction, we will attempt to do so. However, we are not liable for any loss you incur if we cannot do so.

Instructions from us

5.11 You must follow our instructions in connection with a product and comply with all applicable laws. For example, we may require you to open a further account, to execute documents or provide express consent in connection with a transaction or product agreement.

6 Notices and communications

Contact information

6.1 You must give us in writing your address, telephone number, mobile phone number, fax number and/or email address for receipt of notices and other communications. Unless otherwise agreed, notices and communications will be sent to the address, telephone number, mobile phone number, fax number and/or email address designated by you. If these details change, you must tell us so that you can continue to receive notices and communications from us. We are entitled to treat the most recent address and/or email address that you provided to Standard Chartered Group as your current address and/or email address, until you tell us otherwise in accordance with this clause, and to provide this information on your behalf to the relationship centre.

6.2 If you do not provide us with your updated address or contact information, you will bear any loss that may arise from you not receiving notices and communications. We may suspend or stop sending you notices and communications if we reasonably believe that you are no longer reachable at the address or contact information last notified to us. In such event, you waive all requirements of notice applicable under these booking centre terms and conditions.

In such cases, they are effective at the time of publication or posting, or such other time that we may state in the communication.

Notices and communications to joint account holders

6.5 If you are joint account holders, notices and communications (including notice of any variation to these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement, or any confirmations, advices or statements) sent to the contact details you have notified us for receipt of notices and other communications in connection with your account are taken to be given to all of you.

Notices and communications to us

6.6 Your notices and communications to us should be addressed to and are effective when received in legible form by the relevant department designated to receive them or act on them.

7 Instructions and communications by post, telephone, fax, electronic form etc.

Risks

7.1 You acknowledge and accept the risks of giving instructions to us or communicating with us by post, telephone, fax or electronic means (including by email or electronic banking services). These include, but are not limited to:

- the risk of any instruction being intercepted or given by an unauthorised person;
- the risk that we may not actually receive the instructions, or that they are delayed or incomplete when received;
- the risk that we may process instructions twice if you send the same instructions to us in different forms; and
- the risk that any information sent electronically or by any electronic equipment you use cannot be guaranteed to be secure or free from virus.

You agree to bear all such risks and agree to indemnify us for any loss incurred as a result of us acting on such instructions or communications unless the loss is directly caused by our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

7.2 In order to protect yourself against such risks,

- you can call us to check if instructions sent by post, fax or electronic means have reached us in a timely manner;
- you should mark all duplicate confirmations to us as such; and
- you should check all statements and transaction records for errors and report any to us as soon as possible. You should also see clause 12.

Recording of telephone conversations and other electronic communications

7.3 Subject to any applicable law, you consent to us recording and/or monitoring our telephone conversations and / or other electronic communications with you (and you confirm you are authorised to and do provide consent on behalf of all account signatories or authorised persons). We may not inform the caller/user when we do. We may also keep records of such telephone conversations and/or of other electronic communications. A copy of such recordings and communications will be available to you on request for a period of five years, and, where required by applicable law, for a period of up to seven years. We may use the recorded conversations or communication (or transcripts of such conversations or communications) in any dispute and you agree not to challenge their validity or admissibility. You agree that the recorded conversations and communications remain our property and we may dispose of them after such period as we may determine. Not all telephone conversations and electronic communications will be recorded.

Electronic communications and contracts

7.4 You acknowledge that all instructions and communications in electronic form (and our records of those instructions) are original documents in writing. You agree not to challenge their validity, admissibility or enforceability on the basis they are in electronic form or that they were sent electronically. You should also see clause 12.6.

7.5 You understand that electronically executed contracts are enforceable despite the risks associated with them.

Digital signatures

7.6 Instructions and communications digitally signed and supported by a digital certificate will have the same validity, admissibility and enforceability as if signed in writing.

7.7 Any communication that is digitally signed must comply with any applicable law.

8 Hold Mail Service

8.1 We may make a hold mail service available to you on request (for example, if you are concerned about the security of information which we would ordinarily send to you through the post) for certain products and services.

8.2 If you request the hold mail service:

- all the mail withheld by us shall be deemed to have been served on and received by you on the date on which we withhold the mail. We will not act as your agent and will not be deemed to have received the mail on your behalf;
- you agree to waive any requirement that we notify or inform you of any information or notices contained in the mail. Notwithstanding this, we reserve the right to send you such notices and communications (including demand notices) which we reasonably consider necessary or appropriate;
- you must collect or give written instructions as to the disposal of all the mail at least once every twelve months. If you fail to do so, we will hold your mail for the maximum period which we permit from time to time (details of which will be available from your Private Banker). After such maximum period has expired, we may destroy the mail;
- you may appoint an agent to collect or dispose of your mail. Where you do so, you must provide us with the names and specimen signatures of each such agent. We may require the agent to present us with identification documents which are satisfactory to us and we may refuse to release the mail if we are not satisfied with the documents produced or have any reasonable doubts about the identity of the agent;
- you may from time to time authorise one of our officers to deliver the mail personally to you;
- you agree to pay the charges applicable to the hold mail service from time to time, which we will notify you of in writing, and you authorise us to debit your account for all such charges;
- you agree that all mail held by us will be at your sole risk and we will not be responsible to open the mail. As a result of using the hold mail service, you may not be aware of amendments to these booking centre terms and conditions or the products or services and you also may not be able to monitor the transactions which may lead to a delay in the detection of any fraud, omission or errors that may occur or arise; and
- we shall not be liable for any loss arising out of your use of the hold mail service, except where such loss is caused directly by our gross negligence, fraud or wilful default.

8.3 The hold mail service is only available to clients who subscribe to our online banking service. The online banking service will enable you to check your account statements on a regular basis and we recommend that you do so at least once a month to ensure that there are no discrepancies on those statements. If you cease to subscribe to our online banking service, we may withdraw the hold mail service. In this event, we will continue to hold your mail for the maximum period described in clause 8.2 above, after which we shall destroy the mail.

In any event, we will only pass on your information to a person or business that is listed below:

- 10.5 You consent to the recipients of the information we disclose, using and transferring the information where it is necessary to provide you with relationship services and/or products and services in connection with any of the account(s) your booking centre maintains for you, to monitor Standard Chartered Group's compliance with applicable law, agreements with any regulator or authority and any relevant policies or procedures of the Standard Chartered Group, or to support the Standard Chartered Group's business, financial and risk monitoring, planning and decision making or in such manner allowed or required under applicable law.

- 10.7 In accordance with this clause 10 you consent to any member of the Standard Chartered Group providing or making public your information where, in its reasonable opinion, it is required to do so under applicable law. You represent and warrant that all information provided by you to Standard Chartered Group and held by Standard Chartered Group is and will be complete, up-to-date and accurate at all times.
- 10.8 We may make searches about you at credit reference agencies and using other sources for the purposes of identity verification, credit assessment, fraud and crime prevention or debt collection. Credit reference agencies record details of searches and default information, which other financial institutions may access for their own purposes. Banks and credit reference agencies may link your information to records relating to other persons with whom you have a financial relationship (this link will remain until you or the other person files for disassociation).

Retention of information

10.9 We will keep information relating to you for as long as it is necessary for legal or business purposes.

11 Statements and records

11.1 We issue the official statements for most accounts we maintain for you at least once every six months, unless you specify a different period that is acceptable to us and these may or may not be consolidated statements of all your accounts or product agreements with us. We may choose not to issue statements for a dormant account or where we are not required by applicable law to do so. Information about accounts (including the balance owing) may be obtained at any other time by contacting us. Other than where we are required by applicable law to do so, we may also choose to issue transaction records in the form of confirmations and advices for individual transactions. You are responsible for checking all statements and transaction records for errors. You must notify us without undue delay if you query or dispute any item on your statements and transaction records. Unless you report any error to us within the period stated in the statements or transaction records, or any minimum period required under applicable law, we treat the statement or transaction record as correct. To the extent your relationship centre provides any summaries, consolidations, excerpts or any other report or information with respect to the accounts we maintain for you, or products, you acknowledge that such information may not be consistent with your official statements and transaction records, and will only be provided to you on a non-reliance basis. We will not be liable for any such inconsistencies.

11.2 We will send the statements and transaction records to the mailing address you provide to us unless you instruct us otherwise.

11.3 You can ask your Private Banker for more frequent statements for accounts if you require this, but there may be a charge to cover the cost of providing this service. Your Private Banker can provide you with further details if you request these.

If you think there is any error

11.4 The date which appears on the transaction record may vary from the date that appears on your statement. This is because transactions completed on non-banking days and after “cut-off” time on banking days may be held over to be processed on the next banking day.

Our records are conclusive

11.5 Unless there is an obvious error:

- our records (whether in paper, electronic, data or other form) of an instruction, report, statement or other communication are conclusive evidence of their contents or our receipt or non-receipt of them; and
- any certificate we issue, or decision we make, about a matter or an amount payable in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement is conclusive evidence.

You acknowledge that we may destroy, erase or otherwise cease to maintain any records (whether in paper, electronic, data or other form) as we consider appropriate after such time as permitted by applicable law and in accordance with the Privacy Statement.

12 Security requirements

12.1 When providing services to you, we want to reduce the risk of fraud against us, your relationship centre and you. We will, therefore, ask you to comply with certain security requirements.

12.2 The form that these security requirements will take will depend on the services which we provide to you. When we contact you or you contact us, we will need to check your identity before you can give us instructions or before we can disclose or discuss confidential information about the services which we provide to you. In order to help us with this:

- you must sign instructions which you give to us in writing;
- we may ask you for proof of your identity (e.g. a passport, photo driving licence or other photo identification) when you come into a branch and wish to give us instructions or discuss the services with us; and
- if you are permitted to give us instructions about your account over the telephone, we will require you to identify yourself by means of a password, passcode or other personal identifier. We will agree any password, passcode or other personal identifier with you personally.

Any security procedure which is described in this clause 12.2 including but not limited to any password, passcode or other personal identifier is referred to in these booking centre terms and conditions as your security information.

12.3 If we have checked your identity in one of the ways set out above, we are entitled to assume that we are dealing with you.

12.4 Your Private Banker will provide you with further details about the security requirements. We may introduce new or different security requirements in the future.

12.5 You must keep all your security information secret and not disclose it to anyone. You must also take all reasonable care to prevent unauthorised or fraudulent use by others of your security information. If you know or suspect that someone knows your security information or is impersonating you, you must contact your Private Banker without undue delay. If you fail to do so, you may be liable for all transactions arising since the time when you should have contacted us.

12.6 You must also tell your Private Banker without undue delay if:

- any statement for account or cheque book includes an item which appears to be incorrect; or
- you become aware of or believe there is an error or other irregularity in relation to the operation of your account.

13 Information we give

Prices

13.1 We may from time to time provide you with prices quoted from a price quoting agency or third party source. They are indicative and for information only. They may not be the price or value at which we would be able to purchase, sell or otherwise deal in the relevant product.

Information or prices over the telephone or other electronic means

13.2 If we provide account information or prices to you over the telephone or other electronic means, their accuracy is not guaranteed. The statements, confirmations and transaction records sent to you represent the formal record of your account or product agreement with us. You are advised to refer to them. You should also see clause 11.

Third party reports

13.3 Any report we obtain from any valuer or consultant is for our use only. Even if we give you a copy of the report, you cannot rely on it. You cannot sue us, the valuer or consultant if the report is wrong.

PART D: CHARGES, INTEREST AND PAYMENTS

14 Commissions

14.1 When conducting business for you, we or your relationship centre may receive commissions or other benefits from third parties, such as brokers, in relation to that business to the extent permitted by applicable law. We may also pay out commissions or other benefits to third parties when conducting business for you. We will never allow an arrangement for such commissions or benefits to prevent us from acting in your best interests.

14.2 Unless required by applicable law, neither we nor your relationship centre have to account to you for such fee or commission, nor will we set off the fee or commission against any fees you owe us.

15 Interest, fees and costs

15.1 You need to ensure you are aware of and understand the commissions, interest (including negative interest), fees and costs referred to in these booking centre terms and conditions or that may be payable by you in connection with an account or product agreement. These are set out in our fee schedule, facility agreement, or other product agreements or materials, or are available by contacting us.

15.2 Our fee schedule is revised periodically and you must pay the commissions, interest, fees and costs applying at the relevant time.

15.3 You must pay the commissions, interest, fees and costs applying to a product from time to time. Commission, interest rates (including our base lending rates), fees and costs are revised periodically. We will periodically notify you in writing of our commissions, interest rates, fees and costs from time to time, alternatively you can find out our current commissions, interest rates, fees and costs by contacting us at any time.

15.4 Unless expressly stated otherwise, any fees or costs of which we notify you in relation to these booking centre terms and conditions or that may be payable by you in connection with an account we maintain for you or product agreement do not cover the interest, fees and costs chargeable in relation to the relationship services provided by the relationship centre. For further details on the interest, fees and costs chargeable by the relevant relationship centre, please refer to your relationship centre terms and conditions.

Service fees

15.5 Additional fees and costs may apply in the case of services provided in connection with a product, for example, certain types of deposits and payments such as foreign currency deposits and telegraphic transfers (including fees and costs charged by third party service providers).

Default interest

15.6 From the time any amount under a product agreement is overdue for payment until it is paid, you must pay interest at the default rate on the overdue amount when we ask. The Bank may change the default rate at any time at its absolute discretion, acting reasonably and in good faith, and any such change will take effect upon the date of our notice.

Calculation

- 15.7 Any interest or fee payable under a product agreement accrues, and is calculated, in accordance with our usual practice. If we agree to capitalise interest (or if default interest is charged under clause 16.5), we may add to the outstanding principal amount any interest under this clause which has not been paid. You are then liable for interest under this clause on the total amount.
- 15.8 Unless otherwise stated, interest we charge is calculated on a compound basis and on the basis of a 365 day year (for GBP, and any other currency we may designate from time to time), or a 360 day year (for USD and EUR and any other currency we may designate from time to time), in both ordinary and leap years. Interest accrues before and after any judgment we obtain.
- 15.9 Interest rates applicable to a product may be based on or may reference a base rate. If, in each case in our reasonable opinion: (i) a base rate has or will be permanently or indefinitely discontinued; (ii) the methodology, formula or other means of determining a base rate has materially changed; (iii) a base rate is otherwise no longer appropriate for the purposes of calculating interest under any product agreement or (iv) we are unable to determine a base rate for any other reason, we may substitute such base rate with a standard market interest rate generally accepted, in our reasonable opinion, in the international or domestic markets for such product as the appropriate successor to such base rate or we may calculate such base rate with reference to any appropriate source or method as determined by us.

No refund

- 15.10 You are not entitled to any refund of any interests, fees or costs you have paid or subsidy you have received including where you do not use a product or a product agreement ends.

Costs on cancellation

- 15.11 If you end a product agreement or cancel a product before using it, we may require you to pay interest, fees and costs incurred in connection with the product agreement or product. This includes any legal fees and costs in connection with preparation of documents even if these documents have not been signed.

16 You indemnify us

- 16.1 You indemnify us, the Standard Chartered Group and any director, officer, employee or agent of any of them against, and must pay us on demand for, any loss we reasonably incur in connection with:
- any account, the establishment and provision of any product or any other transaction contemplated by a product agreement;
 - searches and enquiries we make in connection with you or a collateral provider (including checking for insolvency);
 - instructions you give us;
 - any product or service provided by a third party for your benefit (including legal fees and costs);
 - any tax payable by us on, or calculated by reference to, any amount paid or payable by you under a product agreement (excluding any tax payable by us by reference to our net income);
 - us acting on, delaying or refusing to act on instructions from you or taking action against you;
 - a default;
 - any amount payable by you under a product agreement being repaid, discharged or made payable before its due date (the loss we incur includes our loss in connection with unwinding, terminating or changing arrangements we have made to fund or maintain our funding of any product);
 - an increased cost in our funding in connection with a change in law;
 - any person exercising, or not exercising, rights under a product agreement or against any collateral (including enforcement action and debt collection costs, such as valuation fees and auctioneer's charges); and
 - any litigation brought by you or any third party about any account we maintain for you, product, service or the relationship services where we are joined as a party to the proceedings.
- 16.2 If we ask, you must appear and defend at your own cost and expense any action which may be brought against us in connection with a product agreement. If you ask us to commence legal action on your behalf in connection with a product agreement, you must indemnify us fully for all losses that may arise.

16.3 You must sign any document we reasonably require to give effect to this clause.

17 Payments - generally

Payments in full

17.1 All payments you must make to us under a product agreement or service agreement must be received by us on the due date in full in immediately available funds in the currency we specify and without set off, counterclaim or deduction or withholding (including on account of any tax). If you are required to deduct or withhold any amount, the payment you must make to us must be increased so that the amount of the payment we receive after the deduction or withholding is equal to the amount otherwise payable.

Independent payment obligations

17.2 Your obligation to pay any amount under a product agreement is separate from each other obligation to pay.

Right to withhold

17.3 We may withhold payment of any amount due to you until we are satisfied that we have received or will receive payment of any amount due from you to us.

Banking days

17.4 Unless otherwise stated in the product terms, if an amount is due on a day which is not a banking day, you must pay it on or before the next banking day unless that day falls in the next calendar month, in which case you must pay it to us on or before the preceding banking day.

For example, if a payment is due on Friday, 27 February and that day is a public holiday, then because the next banking day Monday, 1 March falls in the next calendar month, payment must be made on or before Thursday, 26 February.

Debiting accounts

17.5 We may debit (without prior notice to you) any interest, fees, costs or any other amount you owe us in connection with a product to any account.

Insufficient funds

17.6 If you have insufficient funds in any account in respect of which we are entitled to debit amounts you owe us, yet we still decide to debit the account, our action does not constitute a waiver or otherwise affect our rights under a product agreement.

Honouring payments

17.7 You must ensure that any payment instrument or payment instruction for a payment to us is honoured. For example, you must:

- ensure that you have sufficient funds in the account to be debited (including any account with another financial institution);
- not stop payments to us; and
- not cancel or vary any payment arrangement (unless we ask you to do so to reflect a change in the instalments).

17.8 If we think that any payment obligation may not be honoured (for example, if there are insufficient funds in the account to be debited), we may choose to:

- decline to act further on any instruction or cancel any transaction;
- transfer funds from any other account to the account to be debited;
- allow a payment despite a lack of funds by lending you funds on our usual terms (either in the form of an arranged overdraft or an unarranged overdraft depending on the circumstances); or
- suspend the account or any product.

How we apply payments

17.9 Payments are taken to be made when we credit them to the account. We do this as soon as practicable after receipt.

17.10 Unless set out in the product terms, we may use amounts we receive to pay amounts you owe us in any order we choose.

Payments into suspense account

17.11 We may place in a suspense account any payment we receive for so long as we consider appropriate. This is to protect our rights against other amounts you or a collateral provider may owe us.

Insolvent payments

17.12 Under insolvency law, a person may demand the refund of a payment we have received under a product agreement. To the extent we are obliged to do so or we agree to make a refund, we may treat the original payment as if it had not been made. We are then entitled to our rights against you under the product agreement as if the payment had never been made.

Amounts only payable at relevant booking centre

17.13 All amounts credited to an account are payable only at the booking centre where we maintain the account for you.

Time of the essence

17.14 Time is of the essence in respect of your obligations to pay any money.

Payment by us to you

17.15 All payments we must make to you under a product agreement or service agreement will be made to such sub-account of your account as we deem appropriate. If, on any date, amounts are due and payable by us to you and vice versa in the same currency in respect of any one or more products, such amounts shall be automatically satisfied and discharged and only the net amount owing on that day shall be paid by the party owing the larger amount to the other party.

Settlement of derivative contracts

17.16 If you enter into a derivative contract with us on a “fully-funded” or non-margin basis, you must, before the start date of the derivative contract (in whatever way described) and/or other date or dates we require:

- deliver the underlying asset to us (where appropriate, as custodian or to our custodian), in the amount we require, to hold, earmark, lien or set aside, in anticipation of settlement of the derivative contract;
- irrevocably and unconditionally charge, pledge, assign or otherwise create security interest in our favour over the underlying asset (and any proceeds) and agree that you will not be able to deal freely with the underlying asset for the duration of the derivative contract;
- irrevocably instruct the custodian to deliver the underlying asset to us on the maturity date or upon exercise or deemed exercise of the derivative contract (in whatever way described), for settlement of the derivative contract, following which you have no further interest or right to the underlying asset. You agree that you will not give any contrary instructions to the custodian and the custodian will not be required to give effect to any contrary instructions; and
- give us any other document or do any other act that we consider necessary or desirable to carry out the above.

17.17 You also agree that you will at all times maintain the underlying asset in an amount that is at least the investment or notional amount of the derivative contract, or such amount we require depending on the derivative contract. Otherwise, we may in our discretion, require you to furnish us with further or additional collateral or take any action we consider appropriate to enforce our rights, including unwinding the derivative contract.

18 Currency conversion and indemnity

Currency of payment

18.1 We may make currency conversions in respect of any amount received by us from you or due to you from us at a rate we reasonably consider appropriate. You indemnify us for any shortfall arising from the conversion.

Payment in other currency

18.2 You waive any right you have in any jurisdiction to pay any amount other than in the currency in which it is due. If we receive from you or from a third party on your behalf an amount in a currency other than that in which it is due:

- we may convert the amount into the due currency on the date and at rates we reasonably consider appropriate. We may deduct our fees and costs incurred in the conversion; and
- you satisfy your obligations to pay in the due currency only to the extent of the amount of the due currency obtained from the conversion after deducting the fees and costs of the conversion.

Conversion after default

- 18.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of a product agreement, at any time after you are in default, we may convert to the base currency (at an exchange rate determined by us) any part of the balance owing that is due to us in any other currency. In addition, where the collateral includes property and a credit facility is drawn in a currency other than the property currency, we may convert to the property currency (at an exchange rate determined by us) any part of the balance owing that is due to us in any other currency.
- 18.4 The foreign currency obligation is then taken to be replaced with an obligation to pay us the amount of the base currency after conversion, plus the fees and costs of the conversion.

Conversion on judgment debt, orders, directives issued under law or regulator

- 18.5 If a judgment, order, directive issued under any law or by any regulator, pursuant to agreement with any regulator or any authority, or proof of debt for or the recovery of an amount is expressed in a currency other than that in which the amount is due, then you indemnify us against:
- any difference arising from converting the other currency if the exchange rate we use for converting currency when we receive a payment in the other currency is less favourable to us than the exchange rate used for the purpose of the judgment, order, directive issued under any law or by any regulator, pursuant to agreement with any regulator or any authority or acceptance of proof of debt; and
 - the fees and costs of conversion.

Currency restrictions

- 18.6 If a country restricts the availability or transfer of its currency, we may designate that any payment to us be made in another currency we reasonably consider appropriate. Similarly, if we cannot pay you for this reason, or because of government restrictions beyond our control, we may discharge our obligations by paying you or paying to your order such funds at any time (whether before, on or after maturity), in any currency and in such manner as we may determine in its discretion. We may use any exchange rate we choose for this purpose.

PART E: TERMINATION, SUSPENSION AND ENFORCEMENT

19 Termination and suspension

How to close an account

- 19.1 You may close an account with us by giving 30 days' notice in writing. When the account has been closed, these booking centre terms and conditions will end. If all your account(s) at each of your booking centre(s) have closed your relationship centre terms and conditions will end. If you provide notice of termination of the relationship services to your relationship centre, that shall be deemed to be your irrevocable notice to us and each of your booking centres to close the accounts maintained for you, unless you have agreed that a different relationship centre will provide you with relationship services immediately after the termination of the relationship centre terms and conditions. You will only be able to terminate the terms and conditions if the conditions in any relevant service specific terms (e.g. banking terms; investment terms) have been satisfied.
- 19.2 We may close an account and end your banking agreements with us at any time by giving you 30 days' notice in writing. We do not need to give you any reasons.
- 19.3 In exceptional circumstances, we may close the account immediately and notify you afterwards, if we reasonably believe that you have seriously and/or persistently broken any terms of these booking centre terms and conditions, for example by:
- giving us any false information at any time;
 - using (or allowing someone else to use) the account or service illegally or for criminal activity;
 - inappropriately authorising a person to give instructions to operate your account or any other service which we provide to you;
 - behaving in a manner (for example by abusing people who work for us) that makes it inappropriate for us to maintain your account or to continue to provide you with a service; or
 - putting us in a position where we might break a law, regulation, code or other duty which applies to us if we maintain your account or service.

What happens on closure of an account

19.4 After your account has been closed:

- you must not use the account or any benefits in connection with the account that we provide; and
- we will pay to you the amounts owing to you less all amounts owing by you to us, including the balance owing for all accounts for all products with us. We may do so by sending you a cheque to your last known address at the time of closure of your account.

19.5 These booking centre terms and conditions will continue to apply to your account until all the cheques drawn on it, card liabilities and other amounts you owe on the account and any other amounts which you owe us have been paid, and all the unused cheques, cards and other documentation relating to that account have been returned to us.

Suspension

19.6 We may suspend an account at any time for any reason (even if there is no default). If we do, and if permitted by law, we will notify you as soon as practicable. If we suspend an account, you may not be able to use some or all products and you will not be able to enter into any new product agreements with us.

19.7 We may suspend an account in the following circumstances:

- where you fail to provide us with any information which we reasonably require from you in order to provide products and services to you;
- where we reasonably consider that it appears unlikely that you will be able to repay any amounts which you owe to us (for example in the case of your bankruptcy or insolvency);
- in the event of your incapacity or death, until a person responsible for administering your affairs is appointed;
- where continued provision of products and services would be illegal or in violation of applicable law, regulation, order, sanction or where we reasonably believe that by continuing to provide products and services to you may damage our reputation;
- where we reasonably suspect unauthorised or fraudulent behavior; and
- in the event of circumstances beyond our control.

Blocking accounts or withholding of funds

19.8 We may block any account (and later remove the block) at any time or withhold amounts in any account at any time, if an authority requires us to do so, or we are otherwise required by law or pursuant to agreements with any regulator or any authority to do so, or if we need to comply with internal policies associated with any applicable order or sanction of an authority.

No effect on rights and liabilities

19.9 Ending a banking agreement or suspending an account does not affect any of the rights and obligations of either you or us which arose before it ended or was suspended. You are not entitled to any refund of any fee or amount paid or subsidy received in connection with any product. All provisions in our product agreements in connection with claw-backs, indemnities, limitation of liability, disclosure of information, set off, currency conversion, tax, and the provisions in Section 1 Part F (Collateral) and Section 1 Part G (General) survive termination of a banking relationship or suspension of an account.

20 Moving your account

20.1 If you decide to move your account to another bank, we will provide them with details of your standing orders and direct debits as soon as reasonably possible.

20.2 We will close your account, in accordance with the terms of these booking centre terms and conditions, when you ask us to do so.

20.3 We will cancel any bank charges you would have to pay as a result of any mistake or unnecessary delay by us when you transfer your account from us.

21 Termination or suspension of a product agreement or your use of a product or service

How a product agreement or your use of a product ends

21.1 Either you or we may end your use of a product or a product agreement or a service in accordance with the terms of the relevant product agreement or service agreement. We will usually give you not less than 30 days' written notice of termination, although in some circumstances the terms of the relevant product agreement or service agreement require that we provide you with more than 30 days' written notice or allow us to terminate the provision of a service without notice.

21.2 In addition, we may end any (or all) of our product agreements or service agreements, without prior notice to you, if:

- you do not comply with or are in breach of these booking centre terms and conditions, the relationship centre terms and conditions, product agreement or service agreement and/or any other undertaking with any member of the Standard Chartered Group;
- you do not pay, or make any delivery to, us or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group on the due date or on demand (as the case may be) any sums of money, or of any asset, outstanding under, any product agreement or service agreement or any other arrangement you have entered into with a member of the Standard Chartered Group (this includes if you have not ensured there are sufficient funds available in an account which has been nominated for debiting payment) or you do not furnish us with adequate collateral acceptable to us promptly upon our demand;
- you or a collateral provider does not comply with or has breached any term of any facility documentation, or any facility documentation ceases to be in full force and effect;
- you or a collateral provider have given us incorrect, incomplete or misleading information or made a representation or warranty that is incorrect or misleading in any material respect;
- you have breached any term of any arrangement you have with another financial institution or another financial institution has exercised its right to suspend or terminate your use of any banking facility;
- legal proceedings to recover debts are commenced against you or any collateral provider, or any of your or any collateral provider's property is subject to enforcement of a judgment by any party;
- you or a collateral provider is unable or deemed to be unable to pay your or its debts when they fall due, becomes insolvent, or any of your or their assets are subject to insolvency proceedings;
- your or a collateral provider's credit standing or financial position becomes, in our opinion, materially weaker;
- you or any collateral provider dies or becomes incapacitated (where you or the collateral provider are natural persons);
- you or any collateral provider acts fraudulently or dishonestly or behaves in a manner that makes it inappropriate or illegal for us to continue to provide you with a product or service;
- criminal investigations or proceedings are commenced against you or a collateral provider or you or a collateral provider are convicted of a crime;
- any business you or a collateral provider own or operate is not carried on in a proper manner or you or a collateral provider cease to own or operate it or a substantial part of it, or change it significantly without our consent;
- we consider that a product or service is being used in an irregular or improper manner;
- you or any collateral provider are a corporate entity, and there is any change of control of you or any collateral provider, without our prior written consent;
- a material adverse circumstance occurs which in our opinion gives reasonable grounds to believe that you or a collateral provider may not or may be unable to perform your or its obligations under a product agreement, service agreement or collateral document; or
- we in good faith, and in our absolute discretion, consider that the performance of any obligation by either you or us under a product agreement, service agreement or collateral document is likely to breach a law, or would be inconsistent with prudent banking practice, or may damage our reputation.

21.3 Our rights under this clause are in addition to and do not affect any of our other rights under any product agreements.

What happens on termination

21.4 After a product agreement for a product or service agreement for a service ends, you must:

- not use the product or service or any benefits in connection with the product or service;
- immediately repay all amounts owing to us under the product agreement including the balance owing for the account for the product as well as any unwind costs for terminating a product early and any costs, expenses, taxes, duties, fees, commission, losses incurred or suffered by the Standard Chartered Group as a result of and/or in connection with unwinding any hedge relating to the product;

- do any other thing which the product agreement or service agreement requires to be done when your right to use the product or service ends.

No effect on rights and liabilities

21.5 Ending a product agreement or the right to use a product does not affect any of the rights and obligations of either of us which arose before it ended. You are not entitled to any refund of any fee or amount paid or subsidy received in connection with the product. All provisions in the product agreement in connection with claw-backs, indemnities, limitation of liability, disclosure of information, set off, currency conversion, tax, and the provisions in Section 1 Part F (Collateral) and Section 1 Part G (General) survive termination of the product agreement.

21.6 Any of our obligations to make payment of or deliver assets to you is subject to you not being in default.

Suspension

21.7 We may suspend providing a service at any time for any reason (even if there is no default). If we do, and if permitted by law, we will notify you as soon as practicable. We agree to suspend provision of a service if you ask us to do so in writing. We will not be liable for such suspension.

22 Enforcement action

22.1 Any member of the Standard Chartered Group may take any action it considers appropriate to recover any amount owing to it or to enforce these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or service agreement or any collateral document including:

- employing any third party agent to collect any amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group;
- disposing of all or any part of the collateral to pay any amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group, or setting off any amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group, against all or part of the collateral;
- subject to applicable law, attaching the amount owing to any member of the Standard Chartered Group to your or a collateral provider's assets;
- taking steps to enforce our rights of any member of the Standard Chartered Group against your or a collateral provider's assets such as by lodging caveats; and/or
- commencing legal proceedings against you or a collateral provider.

22.2 When enforcing our rights on or against any collateral, we are entitled to do so at the prevailing market price, or where one is not available, reasonably attribute a nominal value to the collateral. You should also see clauses 32.18 to 32.24 and clause 79 in Section 4.

PART F: COLLATERAL

23 Collateral

Adequate collateral

23.1 You agree to provide us with collateral we consider adequate to secure any amount you owe us at any time, including any amount you may owe us in the future. From time to time, we review the collateral required and may require you to provide further or alternative collateral. We may at any time change the manner in which we decide if collateral is adequate or inadequate.

Banker's lien

23.2 In addition to any other collateral we require, all assets we hold for you (other than assets which you have delivered to us for mere safe custody on terms which make this expressly clear) are subject to a banker's lien to us. Without limiting our other rights, we may set off any such asset against, or apply the lien as collateral for or in or towards satisfaction of, any amount you owe us, including any amount you may owe us in the future, or for the performance of your obligations, including any future obligations. We may sell or deal with the assets to pay such amounts or satisfy such obligations, and may do so without notifying you. You may not be able to withdraw the assets until these amounts are paid or obligations satisfied. You should also see clauses 17.3, 26.1 and 26.2.

Further collateral

23.3 In addition to any other collateral we may require, you agree to do all necessary acts (such as obtaining consents, signing and delivering documents (including any collateral documents) and getting such documents completed and signed) to:

- provide further or alternative collateral to us to secure any amount you owe us, including any amount you may owe us in the future; and
- allow us to exercise our rights in connection with your assets.

23.4 We may also, without prior notice to you, move any asset you may have in any account with any member of the Standard Chartered Group to your account with us, and hold the same as collateral. We may also transfer any assets you have in any account held with us to any account you may hold with any other member of the Standard Chartered Group. We may do so in our reasonable discretion, in order to avoid a default under this agreement or under any agreement with any member of the Standard Chartered Group.

No dealing or encumbrance

23.5 You must not (and you must procure that each collateral provider does not) create or allow to exist any security interest, or otherwise deal with any collateral without our written consent.

23.6 You must not (and you must procure that each collateral provider does not) create or allow to exist any security interest over any account in favour of any other party without our written consent.

Ensure compliance by collateral provider

23.7 You must ensure that each collateral provider complies with their obligations under the collateral they have provided to us.

Collateral continues until release

23.8 Any security under any collateral document continues until we have released it.

Appointment as attorney

23.9 You irrevocably appoint us and any other person we nominate as your attorney to execute documents (including any collateral document) and take other action that we consider necessary to create, enhance, perfect and enforce your security under any collateral document (including dealing with any collateral). You confirm that the power of attorney granted in this clause, shall come into effect immediately on the date of the opening of your account and after that such power of attorney, shall be affirmed and renewed automatically by you, without any further act, on each anniversary of such date.

24 Valuations

24.1 If we ask, you must arrange, pay for and provide us with a valuation report in connection with any assets that are the subject of our collateral. Any valuation report must be in accordance with any requirements we specify. Alternatively, we may obtain a valuation report at your cost.

24.2 We may arrange for further valuation reports in connection with any asset the subject of our collateral at any time. We debit the cost of the valuation report from your account.

24.3 If as a result of the further valuation report, we consider that the collateral is inadequate, you must provide us with further collateral in form and substance we specify and is satisfactory to us.

PART G: GENERAL

25 Client money

25.1 Any money held by us for your account and/or received from you by us, will be held as banker and not trustee.

25.2 On your instructions, we may pass money received from you to a third party to hold or control in order to effect a transaction through or with that person or to satisfy your obligation to provide collateral (e.g. initial margin requirement) in respect of a transaction.

25.3 Where we receive assets (including money) as collateral, margin, or on the basis of any other security arrangement in connection with transactions such that the arrangements confer upon us a right to use any such assets as our own, we will exercise such rights immediately upon receipt of such assets, notwithstanding our regulatory responsibilities to record and meet our future liabilities to repay such collateral or margin under the terms of the arrangements and transactions. Accordingly, such assets will not be treated as custody assets or client money whilst under our control, from the time that we receive them from you to the time that we return equivalent assets to you.

25.4 Where applicable, we will inform you about the existence and the terms of any security interest or lien which we or any custodian or depositary has or may have over your money or assets or any rights of retention, sale or set-off we or they hold in relation to your money or assets.

26 Right of set-off

Set-off

26.1 We have rights in certain circumstances, to use your assets or money which we hold for you to satisfy your liabilities to us and/or third parties. We (and any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) may set-off any amount we (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) owe you against any amount you owe us (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) whether or not the obligation is matured or contingent. We (and each other member of the Standard Chartered Group) may also combine or consolidate all accounts. After an injunction, a garnishee order or similar order of court is served on a member of the Standard Chartered Group, such member may set off any amounts you owe any member of the Standard Chartered Group before a final order is made. If any member of the Standard Chartered Group combines accounts, any credit funds held by you in your accounts may be applied to adjust the amount owing by you in relation to your other accounts. Each member of the Standard Chartered Group may exercise its rights under this clause at any time (even if you are not in default or an event of default has occurred or is continuing).

26.2 If you have a joint account, we (and each other member of the Standard Chartered Group) may set-off any amount we (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) owe you against any amount owing to us (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) in any one account holder's account.

26.3 We can use our right of set-off without telling you in advance if we reasonably think you will do something to prevent us from obtaining repayment by set-off. Otherwise, we will give you reasonable prior notice of our intention to exercise the right of set-off.

26.4 If we are legally required to hold money in an account in your name for someone else, or pay it to someone else, then unless otherwise required by applicable law, we will only hold for, or pay to, that person what is left after we have used our set-off rights to repay what you owe us.

26.5 For the purposes of clauses 26.1 and 26.2, each member of the Standard Chartered Group may make any necessary currency conversions at the rate we or they reasonably consider appropriate.

Our rights to sell your assets

26.6 We may sell or transfer any of your assets so far as is necessary to enable us to settle any transaction entered into on your behalf under these booking centre terms and conditions and to pay any outstanding liabilities arising under or in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions, including any liability you have to us.

27 Conflicts of interest

27.1 We will take all reasonable steps to identify conflicts of interest between:

- us (or any member of the Standard Chartered Group) and our clients; or
- one client and another.

27.2 We will maintain and operate effective organisational and administrative arrangements with a view to taking all reasonable steps designed to prevent conflicts of interest from causing or giving rise to a material risk of damage to your interests. We have procedures in place to manage conflicts of interest and we keep these regularly under review. A copy of our detailed policy can be obtained from your Private Banker.

27.3 If a potential conflict of interest arises, we will always ensure that transactions into which we enter on your behalf are on terms that are materially more favourable to you than if no potential conflict had existed.

28 Taxation

Income tax

28.1 We may deduct and report income tax in cases where we consider that we are or may be legally obliged to do so. If we ask you to do so, you must accurately complete any relevant declarations of non-residence and other documents to enable us to determine whether we are obliged to deduct tax.

Government charges

28.2 You must also pay us an amount equal to any government charges and taxes (however described) on or in connection with your account, a product agreement or service agreement. These are payable whether or not you are primarily liable for those charges and taxes.

Your tax affairs

- 28.3 You are responsible for all taxes on your account. We may require you to provide us information to help us ascertain your tax status. You must provide us with complete, accurate and up to date information. If information relating to you changes, if you withhold information from us or if you give us incorrect or misleading information relating to you, you may become subject to charges or penalties, or you may be liable for an increased amount in taxes, or we may be required to withhold a higher amount of tax from you. You should seek independent professional tax advice.
- 28.4 You are responsible for your own tax affairs. You understand that we take a firm stance on tax-illicit activities. This includes, but is not limited to, income tax, capital gains tax, inheritance tax, property or wealth tax, value-added tax, goods and services tax or stamp duty, regardless of where they apply. Our products and services are provided to you on the basis that you are fully tax compliant and that you have not committed nor have you ever been convicted of any serious tax offences in any country. To the best of your knowledge, you have not committed nor have you ever been convicted of any serious tax offences in any country.

Tax advice

- 28.5 We do not offer you tax advice of any nature. If you are in doubt as to the tax implications of any product or in relation to the account, you should seek independent professional advice. You should remember that any tax treatment depends on your individual circumstances and may be subject to change.

Withholding tax

- 28.6 Interest earned by you for a product may be subject to withholding tax in accordance with applicable law.
- 28.7 If a law requires us to withhold or deduct any tax from a payment due to you, you will receive the amount less the amount for the tax. If you have already received the amount for the tax, you will promptly pay that back to us. We will pay the amount for the tax in accordance with applicable law.
- 28.8 If a law requires you to deduct any tax from a payment to us, you must increase the amount payable so that, after making the deduction, we receive the amount we would have received if no deduction had been required. You agree to pay an additional amount for the tax to the relevant authority in accordance with applicable law and give us the original receipts.

Value added tax

- 28.9 All payments to be made by you in connection with a product agreement are calculated without regard to any goods and services tax, consumption tax, value added tax or any tax of a similar nature. If any of these types of taxes is payable in connection with the payment, you must pay us an additional amount equal to the payment multiplied by the appropriate rate of tax. You must do so at the same time as making the payment.

30.1 In the event that we are unable to meet our obligations to you, you may have a right to seek compensation from the Jersey Bank Depositors Compensation Board (the JBDCB). The JBDCB is governed by specific rules on compensation which determine eligibility and the circumstances in which compensation will be available. The JBDCB will only pay compensation if it is satisfied that you are an eligible claimant. In practice, JBDCB protection is generally limited to private individuals.

31 Cancellation rights

31.1 You have a right to cancel these booking centre terms and conditions or, if you do not want to cancel the booking centre terms and conditions in full, you may cancel any of the service specific terms or close any account you subsequently open under them, within 14 days from the later of:

- the date of these booking centre terms and conditions (or the relevant service specific terms) or the account being opened; and
- the date on which these booking centre terms and conditions (or the relevant service specific terms) were received by you.

31.2 By cancelling these booking centre terms and conditions or any of the service specific terms or closing the account you will withdraw from the agreement and the relevant agreement will be terminated. You will not incur any cancellation fee, charge or penalty except for any shortfall (where we carry out transactions on your behalf during the cancellation period you will bear the applicable market risk).

31.3 If you wish to cancel these booking centre terms and conditions or any of the service specific terms or close your account, you must send a notice in writing to your Private Banker.

31.4 If you do not exercise your right to cancel, these booking centre terms and conditions and the service specific terms will remain in effect until otherwise terminated in accordance with their terms. 31.5 If you decide to cancel the booking centre terms and conditions or any of the service specific terms or close your account, termination will be subject to the termination provisions set out in the booking centre terms and conditions and/or the service specific terms as applicable.

32 General

Exclusion of liability

32.1 Unless a law prohibits us from excluding or limiting our liability, we (and any member of the Standard Chartered Group, and our or its directors and employees) are not liable for any loss you incur in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement or a service agreement (including in connection with the provision of any product, unavailability or improper functioning of an electronic banking service, delay or error in the transmission of any electronic payment transfer, delay in providing you funds under a product agreement, misrepresentation, your or an account signatory's or an authorised person's instructions or any unauthorised instructions, suspension or termination of an account or product agreement, our refusal to act on any instruction, or any other thing we do or do not do).

32.2 This applies where the loss arises for any reason, including:

- your own failure to comply with your obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions;
- your own gross negligence, fraud or wilful default; or
- our taking an action, or failing to take an action, where in our reasonable opinion our taking or failing to take such an action (as the case may be) is necessary to avoid a breach of any applicable law;
- and even if the loss was reasonably foreseeable or where we had been advised of the possibility of the loss.

32.3 This further applies to any losses you suffer that:

- were not, at the time you entered into these booking centre terms and conditions, a foreseeable consequence of our breaching these booking centre terms and conditions;
- arise from any act or omission caused by circumstances beyond our control, including any act of God, government or state, natural disaster, war or other hostilities, terrorist activity, industrial action and any failure of power supplies, computer systems or communication lines, exchange closure, industrial action, acts and regulations of any public, regulatory or governmental authorities or clearing houses or settlement systems or failure by any third party for any reason to perform its obligations;
- are caused by any other person, system, institution or payment infrastructure beyond our control or the control of anyone working for us or on our behalf;
- as a result of the suspension of a service or the operation of your account; or
- are business losses, as opposed to your personal losses.

32.4 We are liable for your direct loss to the extent it is directly caused by our gross negligence, fraud or wilful misconduct.

32.5 You acknowledge that if any representation made by your relationship centre to you with respect to a product or service is not set out in a product agreement or service agreement, you may not rely upon such representation. We are not liable for any loss if your Private Banker, or any of our other employees or agents of your relationship centre, acts without authority.

32.6 You will reimburse us for any loss which we may suffer as a result of your breaching these booking centre terms and conditions, your relationship centre terms and conditions, and/or any other agreement, obligation or undertaking with any member of the Standard Chartered Group.

Circumstances beyond our control

32.7 We are not liable for any loss you incur in connection with our inability or delay in receiving or executing instructions due to any circumstances beyond our control. This includes any loss you suffer that is caused by any other person, system, institution or payment infrastructure beyond our control or the control of anyone working for us or on our behalf.

32.8 If any circumstances beyond our control occur, we may take any action we consider appropriate in connection with your account or any product.

No knowledge of trust

32.9 Where you act in the capacity of a trustee (whether or not you tell us), we shall not be deemed to have knowledge (whether actual, constructive or otherwise) of the terms of the trust.

Conflicting claims

32.10 If we consider any funds in any account may be subject to conflicting claims, we may take action (including getting legal advice or taking legal proceedings) to determine the matter. We may act in accordance with any determination and we are not liable to you for any loss you incur.

Changes to these terms and conditions

- 32.11 You acknowledge that various features of a product may be changed from time to time, including the commissions, fees, interest rates, the basis for calculating interest rates and the credit margin without prior notice to you. The product terms may set out additional steps we must follow to effect a variation.
- 32.12 We may also vary these booking centre terms and conditions for any of the following reasons by notice to you in accordance with our usual practice and in accordance with any applicable law. This may include giving notice to you by public announcement as set out in clause 6.3:
- where we reasonably consider that the change would make the terms easier to understand or fairer to you or the change would not be to your disadvantage; or
 - to cover the improvement of any service or product we supply in connection with the account or the introduction of a new service or product or the replacement of an existing service or product with a new one; or
 - the withdrawal of a service or product which has become obsolete, or has ceased to be widely used, or has not been used by you at any time in the previous 2 years; or
 - to enable us to make reasonable changes to the way we look after your account or the way we provide products and services to you as a result of changes in the banking or financial system, technology or the systems we use to run our business; or
 - as a result of a requirement under applicable law (or where we reasonably expect that there will be a change in the requirements under applicable law).
- 32.13 We may upgrade your account or enhance the service we provide to you if we reasonably consider this is to your advantage and there is no increased cost to you. We may make any change to any product or service (other than for accounts) which we reasonably consider not to be to your disadvantage immediately and tell you about it within 30 days of making the change.
- 32.14 Terms regarding making changes to your account are contained in clause 52. If a change is to your disadvantage, for any products or services (other than accounts) we will give you at least 30 days written notice before we make the change. When we give you written notice we will tell you when it comes into effect. You will be treated as accepting the change on the day we tell you it comes into effect unless you request that we cease to provide a service before then. You will not have to pay any extra charges or interest for doing this.
- 32.15 If we have made a major change or a lot of minor changes in any one year, we will provide you with an updated copy of these booking centre terms and conditions, as amended, or a summary of the changes.

Waiver

- 32.16 A provision of these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement, or right created under it, may not be waived except in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound and is only effective for the purpose for which it is given.
- 32.17 If we fail to exercise any right or power under these booking centre terms and conditions or delay our exercise of such right or power, that shall not amount to a waiver of such right or power. That means that we can still exercise that right or power against you even if we have not done so previously.

How we may exercise our rights

- 32.18 We may exercise a right or remedy, give or refuse our consent or approval in connection with these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document in any way we consider appropriate, including by imposing conditions. We need not give you reasons for any decision we make.
- 32.19 If we do not exercise a right or remedy fully or at a given time, we can still exercise it later.
- 32.20 Except for a variation or waiver in accordance with clauses 32.11 or 32.16, nothing we do suspends, varies or prevents us from exercising our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document.
- 32.21 If we waive a right against one joint account holder or release one joint account holder from his obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document, our rights against the other joint account holder(s) are not affected.
- 32.22 We are not liable for any loss caused by the exercise or attempted exercise of, failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, a right or remedy, whether or not caused by our gross negligence.
- 32.23 Our rights and remedies under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document:

- are in addition to other rights and remedies given by law independently of these booking centre terms and conditions, product agreement or collateral document;
- do not merge with and are not adversely affected by any other collateral and may be executed independently or together with any rights or remedies including our holding of any other collateral;
- may be exercised even if this involves a conflict of duty or we have a personal interest in their exercise; and
- are not affected by any payment, settlement or anything which might otherwise affect them at law including:
- us varying our product agreement such as by providing you with additional products or replacing existing products;
- us releasing you or a collateral provider or giving them a concession, such as more time to pay;
- the fact that we release or lose the benefit of any collateral; or
- the death, mental or physical disability or insolvency of any person (including you or a collateral provider).

32.24 Our rights and remedies under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document may be exercised by any of our authorised employees or any other persons we authorise.

Further steps

32.25 You agree to do all necessary acts (such as obtaining consents, signing and producing documents and getting documents completed, signed, stamped, filed or registered):

- to bind you and any other person intended to be bound by these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document;
- to show whether you are complying with these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document; and
- to confirm anything done by us in the proper exercise of our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions, a product agreement or a collateral document.

Indemnities

32.26 The indemnities in these booking centre terms and conditions are continuing obligations, independent of your other obligations under them. It is not necessary for us to incur expense or make payment before enforcing a right of indemnity.

We act on banking days

32.27 We only act on certain instructions or provide a product on a banking day.

Prompt performance

32.28 If these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement specifies when you must perform an obligation, you must perform it by the time specified. You must perform all other obligations promptly.

Our other dealings

32.29 We or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group may have an interest in a product or act in another capacity in relation to a product we provide to you, unless required by law, we do not have to specifically disclose this to you.

32.30 We do not have to inform you of anything or any information that comes to our notice in the course of us providing services to any other person in any other capacity.

Outsourcing

32.31 We may employ independent contractors and agents (including correspondents) to perform any of our obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement or provide a product on terms we consider appropriate. In particular, we may appoint any agent to take delivery and to be registered as nominee of any of your assets in any part of the world.

Delegation

32.32 We may delegate any of our obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions to any other person(s), who may or may not be a member of the Standard Chartered Group. For example, we may fully and/or partially delegate our execution obligations in respect of certain derivative contracts, structured investments and/or other financial instruments to another member of the Standard Chartered Group. We will use reasonable care in the selection of the agents and delegates and will monitor their actions. We will be fully liable to you for their actions. Therefore if they do something that we asked them not to do or they don't do something that we did ask them to do, and this causes you loss, we will compensate you. However, we will not be liable for their bankruptcy or insolvency.

Incentive programmes and additional services

32.33 From time to time we offer incentive programmes or value added services in connection with a product offered by us or a third party. We may vary or withdraw the programmes or services at any time. We do not guarantee or warrant their quality and, if they are provided by a third party, they are provided on the terms offered by the third party (including the third party's privacy policies). Please contact us if you want to find out more information about the terms of the programmes or services.

Hyperlinked sites

32.34 We are not responsible for, do not endorse, and make no representation or warranty in connection with, any hyperlinked internet sites on our website. We are not responsible for any loss you incur in connection with those hyperlinked sites.

Standard Chartered Intellectual property

32.35 You will not use the "Standard Chartered Bank" name, logo or trademark or any other intellectual property belonging to the Standard Chartered Group for marketing or publicity purposes without our prior written consent.

Insurance

32.36 Unless required by law, we do not insure any assets held with us, except that we may in some circumstances in connection with credit facilities. You should also see clause 80.

Assignments and transfers

32.37 These booking centre terms and conditions are personal to you. You must not in any way encumber, charge, declare a trust over, assign or transfer your rights and obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement to anyone.

32.38 We may assign or otherwise deal with our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement (including any particular product or account) in any way we consider appropriate. If we do this, you may not claim against any assignee (or any other person who has an interest in the product or account) any right of set off or other rights you have against us. If we ask, you must execute and give us or any other person we specify any document we reasonably require for this purpose.

Change in constitution

32.39 You must not change your constitution by amalgamation, consolidation, reconstruction, admission of any new partner or otherwise, without informing us. You must also ensure that each collateral provider does not do so without informing us. All collateral documents, agreements, obligations given or undertaken by you or a collateral provider remain valid and binding despite any change in our, your or a collateral provider's constitution by amalgamation, consolidation, reconstruction, death, retirement, admission of any new partner or otherwise.

Third party rights

32.40 These booking centre terms and conditions do not create or confer any rights or benefits enforceable by any person not a party to it except:

- a person who is a permitted successor or assignee of the rights or benefits of these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement may enforce those rights or benefits.

No consent from the persons referred to in this clause is required for the parties to vary or rescind these booking centre terms and conditions or product agreement (whether or not in a way that varies or extinguishes rights or benefits in favour of those third parties).

We declare that we hold the benefit of the indemnities hereunder as bare trust severally (and not jointly) for ourselves and each other member of the Standard Chartered Group and you acknowledge and agree to the application and extent of the benefit of the indemnities to such persons. These several bare trusts shall carry no duty to preserve or enhance the value of the trust property pursuant to the Trusts (Jersey) Law 1984.

Complying with a court order or regulatory request

32.41 If we (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) are served with a court order or a regulatory request from a governmental or regulatory authority, we act in accordance with the court order or regulatory request and you must not commence proceedings against us in relation to our actions under the court order or regulatory request.

32.42 You also agree to do all necessary acts to allow us to act in accordance with the court order or regulatory request.

Compliance with laws

32.43 Nothing in these booking centre terms and conditions or a product agreement requires us to do or not do anything if it would or might in our reasonable opinion constitute a breach of our policy or any applicable law, regulation, code of practice or requirement of any authority.

32.44 You agree that you are solely responsible for and that neither Standard Chartered Private Bank, nor Standard Chartered Group has any responsibility for your compliance with any laws, regulations or rules applicable to your use of the services provided by us under this agreement including, but not limited to, any laws, regulations or rules, in your or any other jurisdiction, relating to tax, foreign exchange and capital control, and for reporting or filing requirements that may apply as a result of your country of citizenship, domicile, residence or tax-paying status.

Severability

32.45 If and to the extent that an applicable law is inconsistent with these booking centre terms and conditions in a way that would otherwise have the effect of making:

- a provision illegal, void or unenforceable; or
- a provision contravenes a requirement of that law or impose an obligation or liability which is prohibited by that law,

then the law overrides these booking centre terms and conditions to the extent of the inconsistency, and these booking centre terms and conditions are to be read as if that provision were varied to the extent necessary to comply with that law and avoid that effect (or, if necessary, omitted) and the remainder of these booking centre terms and conditions will stand and be read as if that part were not included.

If any term of these booking centre terms and conditions are invalid, unenforceable or illegal in a jurisdiction, that term is read as varied or severed (as the case requires) only for that jurisdiction and the remainder of these booking centre terms and conditions will stand and be read as if that part were not included.

Anti-money laundering and counter terrorism financing and sanctions

32.46 In order to comply with anti-money laundering laws, counter terrorist financing laws, regulations and policies, including our policies, reporting requirements under financial transactions legislation and requests of authorities, the Standard Chartered Group may be:

- prohibited from entering or concluding transactions involving certain persons or entities;
- required to report suspicious activities, including transactions to an authority. Transactions impacted include those that may:
- give rise to grounds for suspicion of actual or attempted money laundering, or be relevant to an investigation into such;
- give rise to grounds for suspicion of actual or attempted terrorist financing, or be relevant to an investigation into such;
- be relevant to investigation of an actual or attempted evasion of tax law, investigation of or prosecution of a person for an offence against any applicable law; or
- involve persons, entities, countries, goods or services which are suspected to be the subject of, or connected to the subject of sanctions or embargoes imposed by any national or supranational body.

32.47 A member of the Standard Chartered Group may intercept and investigate any payment messages and other information or communications sent to or by you or on your behalf and may delay, block or refuse to make any payment. The relevant member of the Standard Chartered Group is not required to inform you or give reasons for doing so unless required by applicable law. Payment screening may cause a delay in processing certain information.

32.48 No member of the Standard Chartered Group is liable for any loss arising out of any action taken or any delay or failure by us, or a member of the Standard Chartered Group, in performing any of its duties or other obligations, caused in whole or in part by any steps taken as set out above.

Counterparts

32.49 Any agreement with us, including any product agreement or facility documentation may consist of a number of copies, each signed by one or more parties. The signed copies form one document.

Governing law

- 32.50 These booking centre terms and conditions (including, unless otherwise specified, credit agreements and credit terms) and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them with Standard Chartered Bank in Jersey are governed by the laws of Jersey.
- 32.51 Except as otherwise provided in the relevant product terms, each product agreement entered into with the booking centre is governed by the laws of Jersey.
- 32.52 If you do not have an address in Jersey, you agree to appoint and maintain an agent with an address in Jersey to accept service of any legal process in Jersey, and give us confirmation of such appointment. You irrevocably consent to the service of process outside of Jersey by registered mail to your last known address. We may serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

Jurisdiction

- 32.53 The parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Jersey. We may take enforcement action and initiate proceedings in the courts of any other jurisdiction where you may have assets. To the extent allowed by law, we may take proceedings in any number of jurisdictions at the same time. You may only initiate an action in the courts of Jersey.

Serving documents

- 32.54 Without preventing any other method of service, any document in or initiating a court action may be served on a party by being delivered to or left at that party's address last notified.

Waiver of immunity

- 32.55 You irrevocably agree to waive all immunity you or your assets may enjoy in any jurisdiction.

Guarantees and Waivers of Rights

- 32.56 You irrevocably and unconditionally waive and abandon any and all rights or entitlements which you may have under the existing or future laws of Jersey whether by virtue of the customary law rights of droit de discussion or otherwise to require that recourse be had to the assets of any debtor or any other person before any claim is enforced against you under or in connection with any guarantee provided by you to us (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group). You irrevocably and unconditionally undertake that if at any time proceedings are brought against you in respect of your obligations under any such guarantee and any debtor and/or any other person is not also joined in such proceedings, you will not require any debtor and/or any other person be joined in or otherwise made a party to such proceedings whether the formalities required by any law of Jersey whether existing or future in regard to the rights and obligations of sureties shall or shall not have been complied with or observed.
- 32.57 You irrevocably and unconditionally waive and abandon any and all rights or entitlements which you may have under the existing or future laws of Jersey whether by virtue of the customary law rights of droit de division or otherwise to require that any liability under any guarantee to us (or any other member of the Standard Chartered Group) be divided or apportioned with any other person or reduced in any manner.

Powers of Attorney

- 32.58 Any authorisations to undertake actions on your behalf and/or any powers of attorney given to us by you shall so far as the context allows and in so far as applicable in Jersey, be deemed to be powers of attorney and be deemed given for the purpose of facilitating the exercise of powers of a secured party under the Security Interests (Jersey) Law 1983 or the Security Interests (Jersey) Law 2012 or of powers given pursuant to a security agreement (as therein defined) or pursuant to or in connection with or for the purpose of or ancillary to security governed by foreign law (as therein defined) and accordingly shall be irrevocable. You confirm that the power of attorney granted in this clause, shall come into effect immediately on the date of the opening of your account and after that such power of attorney, shall be affirmed and renewed automatically by you, without any further act, on each anniversary of such date.

Contractual recognition of bail-in

- 32.59 We are required by UK law and regulation to ensure that our clients and counterparties recognise and accept that certain of our liabilities under contracts governed by the laws of a jurisdiction outside the European Economic Area may be 'bailed in' under the UK Banking Act 2009 by the Bank of England.

You acknowledge and accept that certain of our liabilities to you under any contract between us may be:

- written down in full or in part (including reduced to zero);

- converted, in full or in part, into other obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership in us or another entity; and/or
- amended or modified (including amendments to amounts due or the dates on which any payments are due, or any other amendment to any contracts between us), (together 'bail-in powers') by the Bank of England exercising powers under the Banking Act 2009.

You acknowledge and accept that you are bound by the exercise and effect of bail-in powers. This section prevails over any other agreement, arrangement or understanding we may have with you.

For the avoidance of doubt, this clause does not apply to agreements governing the following excluded liabilities:

- deposits from individuals and entities with an annual turnover not exceeding EUR50 million or its equivalent taken in our branches outside the EEA that would be covered by the UK financial services compensation scheme if they were taken in the UK without any financial limit;
- certain fully secured liabilities;
- liabilities that arise as a result of holding client money;
- liabilities that arise as a result of a fiduciary relationship;
- interbank liabilities with an original maturity of less than seven days;
- liabilities to critical commercial or trade creditors and;
- liabilities created on or before 31 December 2015, until such time as there is a material amendment to the agreement governing the liability after 31 July 2016, then, this clause will automatically apply.

"material amendment" means an amendment to an agreement, including an automatic amendment, which affects the substantive rights and obligations of a party to the agreement. Amendments which are not material amendments include a change to the contact details of a signatory or the addressee for the service of documents, typographical changes to correct drafting errors or automatic adjustment to interest rates.

The Bank Recovery and Resolution (Jersey) Law 2017 (the BRR(J)L) will (it being not currently not in force) provide a new bank resolution regime reflecting and similar to the UK Banking Act 2009 (as amended).

Like the UK Banking Act 2009 (as amended), the BRR(J)L aims to ensure the continuity of critical banking functions to preserve financial stability and to protect public funds by mitigating the use of public finances to support failing banks, its principal objectives are:

- (a) to ensure that Jersey can assist a foreign jurisdiction in respect of resolution action being taken on a failing bank conducting business in Jersey; and
- (b) to deal with the scenario where a bank in Jersey fails and additional powers are needed to resolve the local banking business, for instance either as a result of the home jurisdiction not taking action which satisfactorily deals with the local business or because Jersey is the home jurisdiction of the bank.

The BRR(J)L also seeks to protect, amongst others, retail customers who are currently protected under separate Jersey legislation relating to depositors compensation.

The BRR(J)L is expected to establish the Jersey Resolution Authority (the Authority) which will be granted administrative powers to stabilise and/or resolve distressed banks and to establish a new fund (the Resolution Fund), which will be capped at £100 million, to provide short-term funding and the provision of guarantees or capital to enhance the effectiveness of the various resolution tools and powers that may be deployed by the Authority. The Authority will be permitted to recognise foreign resolution actions, or, where the foreign resolution actions might endanger financial stability in Jersey or where Jersey depositors would not receive equal treatment with the depositors in the bank's home or other jurisdictions, to undertake its own action in respect of such branches or subsidiaries of foreign banking groups.

The Authority is expected to have a number of resolution tools available to it in the event that an entity to which the BRR(J)L applies is failing or is likely to fail. Therefore, in addition to the BRR(J)L applying as a consequence of such an entity being cash flow or balance sheet insolvent, the BRR(J)L could also apply where that entity is not technically insolvent; for instance where it has failed to satisfy the JFSC that it is a fit and property person to carry on deposit taking business or where it requires extraordinary public financial support.

The tools will include:

- (a) the power to sell all or part of the bank's business to another bank;
- (b) the power to sell all or part of the bank's business to a bank established by the Authority (referred in the BRR(J)L as a "bridge bank");
- (c) the power to separate performing from underperforming assets by way of transfer to a bridge bank or assets management vehicle (for instance, to establish "good" and "bad" banks); and
- (d) the bail in of shareholders and creditors (including writing down or converting debt into equity), excluding protected retail customers and secured/guaranteed claims. The bail in tool is likely to be used in a failing bank scenario.

In each case, the deployment of a tool is subject to resolution safeguards, for example:

- (a) safeguards for shareholders and creditors (particularly in the case of partial transfers and application of the bail in tool);
- (b) safeguards for partial transfers;
- (c) protection for security arrangements; and
- (d) protection for title transfer collateral arrangements, set-off arrangements and netting arrangements.

We may offer, issue, or provide other services in relation to instruments which are subject to the provision of the BRR(J)L and our liabilities and obligations may be subject to the provisions of the BRR(J)L. In deciding to deal with us generally, and in any particular case, you confirm that you are aware of the resolution tools and powers under BRR(J)L which may be exercised in respect of us and the potential consequences on any instrument or other liability or obligation to us. In particular, you also agree and confirm that (i) any eligible liability as defined in the BRR(J)L and will agree to be bound by any resulting reduction of the principal or outstanding due, conversion or cancellation that is effected by the exercise of that power (ii) we may amend or vary these booking centre terms and conditions in order to ensure that at all times we are in compliance with the provisions of the BRR(J)L.

SECTION 2: BANKING TERMS

PART A: DEPOSITS, INCLUDING TERM DEPOSITS

33 Deposits

Accounts

33.1 We will open an account in your name for the purpose of crediting deposits. Upon receipt of any deposit from you or payment due to you (for example, from settlement proceeds, interest, income or dividends) we will credit the relevant account with such sums.

33.2 We may refuse to accept any deposit. We need not give any reason for doing so.

Currencies

33.3 We accept deposits in the local currency and in selected foreign currencies only. The conditions on which we accept foreign currency deposits (including term, interest rates and minimum deposit amounts) may differ depending on the currency.

33.4 Foreign currency accounts, and all transactions under them, are subject to any applicable exchange control laws. If due to reasons beyond our control we cease to maintain foreign currency deposits in a particular currency, we can convert the foreign currency deposit into another freely transferrable currency.

Interest

33.5 If you have a credit balance in an account you may be entitled to receive interest depending on the type of account. The rate of interest may be fixed or varied as we determine and publish or make available to you from time to time. Interest only accrues on cleared funds credited into an account. Your Private Banker will be pleased to provide you with details of the interest rate applicable to your account.

33.6 Interest is calculated on the cleared amount in your account at the end of each day and accrues daily on the basis of a 365 day year (for GBP and any other currency we may designate from time to time) or a 360 day year (for other currencies) in both ordinary and leap years. We pay interest quarterly in arrears, at the end of the months of March, June, September and December. For term deposits, see clause 34.4.

33.7 We will only pay interest to you without deducting taxes from it where we reasonably believe that you are entitled to this under applicable laws and based on the information which you have provided to us in your account opening application or to your Private Banker.

33.8 Only amounts held in interest bearing accounts are eligible for interest.

33.9 In certain circumstances (including as a result of changes by rate setting authorities), you will need to pay us negative interest on credit balances, which means that negative interest will be applied to and deducted from a credit balance in your account. The calculation of the interest will vary currency by currency. The negative credit interest rate applied to your account will be shown on your bank statement and the calculation and deduction of negative interest is as set out in clause 34.6 above.

34 Term deposits

34.1 You may request that we provide you with an account in which you are required to keep your money for a fixed period of time in order to benefit from the full range of its features. Your Private Banker can provide you with further information about the product terms available for a term deposit account and the interest rate payable. The interest rate payable is generally determined by the size and term of the deposit.

34.2 If you withdraw money from a term deposit account before the fixed term has been completed:

- you will lose some of the interest that would otherwise have been payable to you;
- you may have to pay us an administration fee; and
- where we have invested your funds, you may have to pay us any costs to unwind such investments which we may incur as a result.

Interest on term deposits

34.3 Interest on a term deposit is paid at a rate that is agreed at the start of the term. Interest rates are generally determined by the size and term of the deposit and are published from time to time. The applicable interest rates and corresponding terms are available by contacting your Private Banker.

34.4 Interest on a term deposit is calculated on a simple interest basis and accrues daily on the basis of a 365/360 day year depending on the type of currency in both ordinary and leap years. It is paid at the end of the term, when the term deposit matures.

Maturity of term deposit

34.5 If a term deposit matures on a day that is not a banking day, then the date will be extended to the next banking day, with the exception that if the term deposit matures on the last banking day of the month, the date will be brought forward to the previous banking day.

34.6 You must instruct us at least 3 banking days before the maturity date whether you want:

- to renew the term deposit; or
- us to pay you the principal and interest on the maturity date.

Otherwise, we may (but have no obligation) to renew the term deposit for a similar term with interest at the prevailing interest rate for that term.

34.7 Interest ceases to be payable after the maturity date unless the term deposit is renewed.

Withdrawal

34.8 Term deposits may not be withdrawn before the maturity date. If you wish to withdraw a term deposit before the maturity date, we may agree to do this in our sole discretion and there may be reduced or no interest and additional conditions (including requiring a period of notice and paying us an administration fee). Where we have invested your funds, you may have to pay us any costs to unwind such investments which we may incur as a result.

35 Credit Interest

35.1 When you have cleared funds in your account and your account is one that pays interest on amounts in credit, you will be eligible for interest on the amounts in credit (credit interest). Credit interest is calculated on the cleared amount in your account at the end of each day. Credit interest will be paid:

- quarterly in arrears, at the end of the months of March, June, September and December; or
- in respect of a term deposit, in accordance with the product terms.

35.2 We will only pay credit interest to you without deducting taxes from it where we reasonably believe that you are entitled to this under applicable law and based on the information which you have provided to us in your account opening application or to your Private Banker.

36 Foreign currency accounts

36.1 This section is relevant to you only if you open a foreign currency account with us.

36.2 If you open a foreign currency account with us, there are limitations on our obligation to repay the balance on any such account to you. Please read this section carefully, and if you are unsure as to its meaning or effect, please discuss it with your Private Banker before opening a foreign currency account with us.

36.3 If you open a foreign currency account with us, we are permitted to hold the balance on that account with a bank or financial institution, or a number of banks or financial institutions, in the country in which such foreign currency is legal tender (a third party bank). We are not obliged to tell you that the balance is being held with a third party bank.

36.4 If the foreign currency is legal tender in more than one country, we may select a third party bank in such country or countries as we, using reasonable discretion, decide.

36.5 If we do hold the balance of a foreign currency account with a third party bank, please note that the foreign currency account will not only be subject to the applicable laws of the country from which we provide the services but may also be subject to applicable laws in the country in which the third party bank carries on business or is registered, incorporated or resident, or to which it is subject.

37 Foreign currency transactions

37.1 In respect of transactions in a foreign currency, if any payment is made into your account in a different currency to that of your account, we may convert the currency of that payment into the currency of your account. This will be done in accordance with clause 18.1 of the booking centre terms and conditions. If the sender has agreed to pay all the charges, we will not take off any charges when we pay the money into your account.

37.2 You may ask us to transfer money outside the location of your booking centre. If you ask us to do so, your Private Banker will be able to provide details about when any money transferred should arrive, and the exchange rate which will apply. We make a charge for transferring money outside the location of your booking centre. Your Private Banker will provide you with details of the charges on request.

Foreign exchange risk

37.3 You acknowledge that:

- you are aware of the risk of interest rate and exchange rate fluctuations and the effect that such fluctuations may have on the credit balances in an account;
- adverse exchange rate movements could result in the credit balance (even after interest is credited) being less than the amount you deposit;
- if for any reason we convert an amount from one currency to another, we do so at our usual exchange rate.

39 Debit Cards

39.1 If you request a Standard Chartered Bank, Jersey Branch debit card the clauses in this section apply. They explain the bank's obligations to you and your obligations to the bank. Where you are issued with more than one Standard Chartered Bank, Jersey Branch debit card, these clauses shall apply to all cards issued.

39.2 Card facilities

- (a) As long as you have sufficient cleared balance in your account, you may use the card to pay for goods or services at retailers or suppliers worldwide who accept the card by:
 - (i) signing a sales voucher,
 - (ii) signing a mail order purchase form showing the number printed on the card;
 - (iii) using the PIN; or
 - (iv) placing an order by telephone, fax, e-mail, mail or over the Internet and quoting the number printed on the card. The bank will debit to the account the amount of any such payment authorised in this way.
- (b) The card may be used at any bank in the British Isles (which expression means the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man) and in most countries overseas which accepts the card, to withdraw money or make payments, the amount of which will be debited to the account, by signing a voucher or by using the PIN.
- (c) You may use the card in conjunction with the PIN to withdraw money, the amount of which will be debited to the account, from card operated cash machines (ATMs) which accept the card when they are operating. The bank charges a flat fee (as set out in the fee schedule) in respect of each cash withdrawal made using the card at an ATM situated outside the British Isles. The operator of the ATM may also charge you for using it.
- (d) The bank reserves the right to impose and subsequently alter spending and cash withdrawal limits applicable to the card at its discretion. The bank will advise you of these limits, which apply to both domestic and international withdrawals.
- (e) The bank shall not be liable for any loss resulting from the refusal of any retailer, supplier, other bank or card operated machine to accept use of the card in connection with any transaction.

39.3 The card

- (a) The card belongs to and remains the property of the bank. The bank or any authorised officer, servant, employee, associate or agent of the bank may retain the card, require you to return the card or suspend the use of the card at any time in its absolute discretion and the bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by you as a result thereof. Where possible, the bank will tell you before taking this action unless the bank is unable to do so, or there is a legal reason or some other circumstance which is beyond the bank's control which prevents it from doing so.
- (b) The card will not become valid or operational until you sign in the space provided on the reverse of the card and acknowledge receipt of the card by contacting the bank by telephone on the number provided and stating the password specified by you in the card account opening application or by any written notice that includes your original signature. The card is only valid for the period shown on it. The card must not be used outside that period or if the bank has required by notice in writing to you that the card be returned to the bank. When the period of validity of a card expires or the bank requires you to return the card, it must be destroyed by cutting it in half through the black strip and cutting it once through the chip.

- (c) You must take all reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorised use of the card. These shall include:
 - (i) signing the card as soon as it is received;
 - (ii) keeping the card secure at all times and not allowing anyone else to use the card;
 - (iii) following the PIN precautions noted at clause 39.4 (below) ; and
 - (iv) telephoning or writing to the bank, in accordance with clause (b) above, to acknowledge receipt of the card as soon as possible.

Failure to follow these precautions may affect your liability for unauthorised use of the card.

- (d) If the card is lost or stolen, or if you know or suspect that someone knows your PIN, you or any other person authorised to act on your behalf shall immediately notify the bank by calling the dedicated debit card telephone number 00 44 1534 704335.
- (e) You shall co-operate with any officers of the bank and/or the police in any efforts to recover the card if it is lost or stolen. The bank may also disclose relevant information about you and the account to appropriate third parties if the bank thinks it will help avoid or recover any loss to you, or the bank resulting from the loss, theft, misuse or unauthorised use of the card.
- (f) Once the bank has been notified that the card has been (or is suspected to be) lost, stolen or misused, the bank will cancel the card. If the card is found after the bank has been given such notice, you must not use it again. The card must be cut in half through the black strip and cut once through the chip and returned to the bank immediately.

39.4 The PIN

- (a) The bank will issue a PIN to you, unless you instruct the bank that a PIN is not required. If the bank issues a PIN, you must take all reasonable precautions to avoid unauthorised use. These shall include:
 - (i) never writing the PIN on the card or any other item normally kept with the card;
 - (ii) never writing the PIN in a way that can be understood by someone else;
 - (iii) never disclosing the PIN to someone else;
 - (iv) notifying the bank as soon as possible if someone else knows or is suspected of knowing the PIN;
 - (v) memorising the PIN and destroying any PIN advice slip issued to you by the bank promptly after receipt.

39.5 General

- (a) The bank will issue a card only if you have completed the card account opening application (or have otherwise requested a card in a form acceptable to the bank) and it has been accepted by the bank, or if the bank at its discretion is replacing or renewing a card.
- (b) You must not use the card to borrow from the bank unless an overdraft has been agreed separately. The account will be charged interest at the bank's unauthorised borrowing rate (as set out in the fee schedule) in respect of unarranged overdrafts, unless otherwise agreed. The bank may also charge to the account its usual management fee for unarranged overdrafts.
- (c) If the bank is asked to authorise a card transaction, the bank may take into consideration any other card transaction which has been authorised but which has not been debited to the account and if the bank determines that there are or will be insufficient available funds to pay the amount that would be due in respect of such card transaction, the bank may in its own absolute discretion refuse to authorise such card transaction.
- (d) In the event that there are insufficient available funds in the account to pay any card transaction, or other amount payable from the account, including any interest, fees, charges or other payments due to the bank, the bank may in its own absolute discretion transfer sufficient funds from any other account maintained by you with the bank to the account.
- (e) If the bank is asked to authorise a card transaction, the bank may in its absolute discretion refuse to authorise any such card transaction if:
 - (i) the card has been reported as lost or stolen, or the bank has reason to suspect that the card has been lost or stolen; or

- (ii) you have broken this agreement, for example, by using the card fraudulently or inappropriately.
- (f) You may use the card to obtain the services described herein and such other services as the bank may provide from time to time.
- (g) The card may not be used by any person, other than you.
- (h) You shall notify the bank:
 - (a) within 30 days of the date stated on the statement of account if an entry appears on the statement of the account which is believed to be incorrect; and
 - (b) as soon as possible, if your address has changed.
 - (i) A card transaction cannot be cancelled after it has been completed.
- (j) The bank will normally debit the amount of any card transaction to the account as soon as the bank receives complete instructions, provided that the bank will not be liable for any loss resulting from any delay.
- (k) If a retailer or supplier makes a refund by means of a card transaction, the bank will credit the account when it receives the retailer's or supplier's proper instructions and the funds in respect of such refund, provided that the bank will not be responsible for any delay in receiving such instructions and funds.
- (l) When the card is used to effect a card transaction (whether with a retailer or supplier, a bank or from a card operated cash machine) in a currency other than the account currency, the amount of the card transaction will be converted into the account currency at the applicable exchange rate on the day upon which notification of the card transaction is received by the bank. The exchange rate is calculated by Visa and if you require additional information, please contact your Private Banker.
- (m) The bank shall charge a foreign exchange conversion fee (as set out in the fee schedule) in respect of every card transaction made in a currency other than the account currency.
- (n) 3D secure service is a security feature intended to improve the security of online transactions effected at designated online merchants using the card. The 3D secure service shall be subject to the 3D secure terms and conditions (which are supplemented by and read together with these booking centre terms and conditions, including but not limited to Section 2 of these booking centre terms and conditions. In the event of any inconsistency, the 3D secure terms and conditions shall prevail over these booking centre terms and conditions).

39.6 Liability for unauthorised card transactions

- (a) Unless you have acted fraudulently, the bank will be responsible for any money lost as a result of the card being lost, stolen or misused in despatch from the bank to your normal mailing address or to any other address to which you instruct the bank to send the card.

The bank will also be responsible for any money lost as a result of use of the card without your authorisation which takes place:

- (i) after it has been reported to the bank that the card has been lost or stolen or after the bank has been notified that the card is suspected of having been misused, copied, cloned or some unauthorised use had been made of the card or card details; or
- (ii) after it has been reported to the bank that the PIN is known (or suspected of being known) by someone else, unless the bank can show that you have acted fraudulently, negligently or otherwise contrary to the booking centre terms and conditions and agreement.

The bank will credit the account with any amount for which the bank is responsible pursuant to this clause, including any related interest and charges.

- (b) You will be responsible for any money lost by you and any other person including the bank, as a result of the use of the card without your authorisation which takes place after it has been delivered to your normal mailing address or to any other address to which you instruct the bank to send the card:
 - (i) before it has been reported to the bank that the card has been lost or stolen or is suspected of having been misused, copied, cloned or some unauthorised use has been made of the card or card details; and
 - (ii) before it has been reported to the bank that the PIN is known (or suspected of being known) by someone else.

- (c) Your responsibility for losses pursuant to this clause will be without limit but the bank may, at its discretion, waive payment of the amount for which you are liable to the bank if there has been no fraud or gross negligence on your part. Your liability may nevertheless be limited by law.
- (d) The bank shall not be liable to you for any loss suffered as a result of the bank being prevented from or delayed in providing any banking or other services to you due to strikes, industrial action, failure of power supplies or equipment or causes beyond the bank's control.

39.7 Card charges

- (a) You will have to pay charges if you use the card in certain ways. All fees and charges which apply to the card are listed in the bank's fee schedule.
- (b) Charges set out in the Bank's fee schedule are subject to review and may change in accordance with the booking centre terms and conditions.

39.8 Card termination

- (a) The bank may terminate the agreement relating to the provision of the card by notifying you in writing to that effect at any time. You may terminate such agreement by notifying the bank in writing and returning the card to the bank (cut in half through the black strip and once through the chip). Such termination shall be effective, subject to the provisions of the following paragraphs of this clause, upon receipt by the other party of such notice.
- (b) This agreement shall be deemed to remain in full force and effect if and in so far as any transaction has been completed using the card, but has not been debited to the account prior to termination thereof.
- (c) Termination of such agreement shall not prejudice any liability in respect of things done or omitted to be done prior to termination thereof.

PART B: OPERATING ACCOUNTS

40 Account operating authority

Account mandate

- 40.1 In order for us to set up an account for you, you must give us account operating authority details in the form of an account mandate. This includes details of:
- all account holders (for joint accounts), all account signatories (if you are a corporate entity) and all authorised persons (if you appoint any); and
 - any signature requirement (for example, whether any one account holder may sign instructions that require confirmation by signatures or all account holders to sign such instructions jointly).
- 40.2 We will act on the account mandate until you vary (by adding or removing account signatories or authorised persons, or by changing the signature requirement) or cancel it. You must do so by giving us instructions in writing. The variation or cancellation will become effective within a reasonable time (within 7 banking days) after we accept your instructions, and in the meantime, we may continue to act in accordance with the existing account mandate. Unless you expressly tell us, if you have multiple accounts, varying or cancelling the account mandate for one account does not vary or cancel the account mandate for other accounts.
- 40.3 We rely on and are authorised to act on any instructions given in accordance with the account mandate. You must act in accordance with the account mandate. You must use the same signature as used on the account mandate.
- 40.4 We may in our discretion require more than one or all account holders, account signatories or authorised persons to confirm any act if we think it is necessary or prudent to do so.

Scope of account operating authority

- 40.5 Depending on the account operating authority, any account holder may:
- open, close and operate the account;
 - purchase, sell or in any other way deal in any product, service or asset;
 - enter into, act on or terminate any agreement with us, including any product agreement or service agreement, give any indemnity or make any representation or provide any information;

- transfer or withdraw any asset in any manner;
- create encumbrances over the account or assets in the account;
- obtain statements or any information concerning the account generally;
- appoint or cancel the appointment of authorised persons; and
- give us any other instruction.

40.6 If you are a corporate entity, each account signatory may act on behalf of the account holder as if he were the account holder. For joint accounts or where you appoint more than one account signatory, for instructions we require to be confirmed by signatures, the account holders or account signatories must act in accordance with the signature requirement. In the event of liquidation, where you are a corporate entity, the funds credited to the account may only be withdrawn by, and the funds payable will only be paid to, the liquidator.

Conducting an account in joint names

40.7 Unless otherwise agreed with us, when a joint account is opened:

- we need not enquire into the circumstances of any instructions any of you may give in relation to the conduct of the account, including an instruction to close the account;
- we are authorised to accept for credit of the joint account, any amount payable to one or more of you;
- each of you is liable to us jointly and separately for all obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions and/or a product agreement, for the balance owing, and any other liabilities in relation to the account. This includes any unarranged and arranged overdraft, loan or other credit facilities or trading facilities granted to you jointly (as well as interest, commissions and other related charges). This means each of you is liable for the actions of any other joint account holder;
- if permitted under the terms of your joint account mandate, any joint account holder is entitled to withdraw the entire balance of the joint account;
- each joint account holder has full authority on behalf of the other joint account holders to give or receive any instruction, notice, request or acknowledgement in relation to the joint account without obtaining the consent of the other joint account holders, including an instruction to close the joint account; and
- if one joint account holder dies or is legally declared unable to handle his affairs, the other account holder(s) may give instructions and obtain title to the account, subject to us receiving such documents we may require. Any payment we make to the other account holder(s) or a court discharges any obligations we owe to you.

40.8 If one joint account holder dies or is legally declared unable to handle his or her affairs, the obligations of the other account holder(s) and our rights (including set off) under our product agreement are not affected.

40.9 Further terms and conditions applying to your joint account with us are set out in the joint account mandate you sign.

40.10 In the event of a breakdown in the relationship between you and any other joint account holder, you should contact us as soon as possible to arrange for the joint account to be closed and new terms and conditions to be entered into in sole names. We reserve the right to refuse to act on the instructions of any one of you and we may choose to act only on the joint instruction of all of you where more than one joint account holder has given separate instructions and those instructions are in conflict.

Conducting an account in the name of a partnership

40.11 Unless otherwise agreed with us, when an account is opened in the name of a partnership:

- the provisions relating to the conduct of an account in joint names apply, as if each partner were a joint account holder; and
- a person who ceases to be a partner will remain liable for all obligations under a product agreement, for the balance owing and any other liabilities in relation to the account accruing up to the date of his cessation as partner.

Conducting an account for a trust relationship

40.12 Unless otherwise agreed with us, when an account is opened for a trust relationship:

- we shall not be deemed to have knowledge (whether actual, constructive or otherwise) of the terms of the trust;

- if the trustee retires, dies or becomes insolvent, we are entitled to hold the assets in the account until we are able to determine who is entitled to them; and
- the trustee shall indemnify us against any loss we incur from us acting on the instructions of the trustee.

Conducting an account in the name of a sole proprietorship

40.13 Where an account is opened in the name of a sole proprietorship, the individual constituting the sole proprietorship is liable for all obligations under these booking centre terms and conditions and/or a product agreement, for the balance owing, and any other liabilities in relation to the account. This means we treat the account holder as if it were the individual.

Authorised persons

40.14 You may appoint authorised persons to have the authority to operate and give instructions on your account. If you do, you should be aware of the risks involved, including the possibility that an authorised person may act without first consulting you. You should consider seeking independent legal advice before appointing authorised persons.

40.15 You are responsible for ensuring that each authorised person complies with our product agreement or service agreement and for anything an authorised person does in connection with our product agreement or service agreement. You must ensure that each authorised person is given a copy of the terms and conditions that apply to any product or service they use.

41 Conversion of accounts

41.1 At any time we may convert, re-designate or consolidate any account into another type of account or with another account, or give the account a new account number, if we consider it appropriate to do so and we give you reasonable notice in writing before we do so. If you do not instruct us that you want to close the account before expiry of the notice period, we will proceed to convert, re-designate or consolidate the account.

42 Insufficient Balances

42.1 If you have no credit facilities agreed with us beforehand, and you instruct us to pay a sum from an account in excess of the balance of that account, we may:

- decline to make any such payment;
- where there are several instructions for payments which in aggregate exceed the balance of that account, select which payment(s) to make without reference to the date of despatch, or the time we receive your instructions;
- allow that payment despite lack of funds, resulting in the account being overdrawn. In respect of such unarranged overdrafts, we will charge you a rate of interest which may be higher than the rate of interest for arranged overdrafts. The rate of interest will be our standard rate for unarranged overdrafts, details of which can be obtained from us at any time on request; and/or
- transfer funds from any other account, to your account in order to carry out your instructions.

42.2 If we allow an unarranged overdraft on an account we maintain for you (for example, where we allow a payment despite lack of funds):

- this only applies for that particular instruction and this does not mean that we will allow a similar unarranged overdraft in the future;
- the amount of that unarranged overdraft is treated as an advance by us to you and you owe us a debt equal to that amount;
- when we ask, you must repay that unarranged overdraft and any interest which is calculated in accordance with our usual practice (which may be at a default rate) and at the interest rate that we notify to you; and
- we may impose additional conditions or require additional collateral.

43 Dormant accounts

43.1 We may, in the following circumstances, designate your account as dormant:

- where there have been no withdrawals or deposits on an account for such period as we may determine (other than, in each case, transactions initiated by us, such as interest and charges);
- where a statement for account is refused for reasons other than an incomplete/incorrect address or postal error;

- if the sole account holder or all joint account holders is/are deceased or becomes/become mentally incapacitated;
- if a balance on an account becomes subject to a court order, injunction or disposition by an administrator or executor; or
- if we lose contact with you.

43.2 If we designate your account as dormant, the funds in the account will remain your property.

43.3 We will write to you at least once at the last address held for you (unless mail has previously been returned from there) before designating an account as dormant.

43.4 We may maintain any dormant account on terms which we consider appropriate, including:

- requiring written notice and additional documentation from you before you make any withdrawals from such account; and
- imposing a reasonable charge to cover our costs in attempting to trace you where we have lost contact with you.

43.5 We will usually continue to pay interest on a dormant account at the same rate as would have applied if the account had not been designated as dormant.

43.6 In circumstances where we are still in contact with you, we may close any account which has been designated as dormant. If we do this, we will give you reasonable advance notice and return any credit balance in that account to you.

43.7 The Dormant Bank Accounts (Jersey) Law 2017 (the Dormant Accounts Law) provides that, where any account held with us has had no transaction for fifteen years, we will be required to issue you with a notice three months before we are then required to transfer the funds in that account to the Jersey Reclaim Fund, which is run by the Chief Minister of Jersey and administered by the Treasury and Resources Department. In continuing to deal with us, you confirm that you are aware of the obligations of the Bank in respect of the Dormant Accounts Law and agree that nothing in these booking centre terms and conditions (including but not limited to Clauses 43.1 to 43.6 above) will override any obligation which we may have pursuant to the Dormant Accounts Law. In the event of any inconsistency between Clauses 43.1 to 43.6 above and the Dormant Accounts Law, the Dormant Accounts Law prevails.

44 Death or incapacity

44.1 We must be notified as soon as possible after your death or incapacity. In the case of death, we will need probate from Jersey to evidence the death of that person and authorisation to show an appointed executor or beneficiary has authority to deal with the deceased's estate. In the case of incapacity, we need a certified copy of a legally recognised declaration of incapacity.

44.2 Unless you have entered into these booking centre terms and conditions jointly with another account holder, these booking centre terms and conditions will continue to bind your estate until your accounts are closed by the person who is responsible for your affairs after your death or incapacity.

44.3 If you have entered into these booking centre terms and conditions jointly with another account holder, these booking centre terms and conditions will not terminate on your death. We will continue to provide the service to the other joint account holders until we receive instructions to close the accounts.

PART C: PAYMENTS

45 Payment instructions

45.1 You authorise us to act as the instructing financial institution to send your payment instructions. You also authorise each member of the Standard Chartered Group or any third party who receives the payment instructions to act on them as if you had sent the payment instructions directly to them.

45.2 When you pay cash into your account (whether in GBP, EUR or any other currency) on a banking day before 3.00 pm we will show it in your account and allow you to use it immediately (as long as the terms of the product agreement which apply to your account allow you to do this) and we will also pay interest on it (or use it to reduce the interest which you pay to us) immediately. Interest that accrues is added to your account in quarterly arrears.

Cheques

46.2 When you pay a cheque into your account we have to "clear" the cheque (that is, collect payment from the person who issued the cheque). The funds from that cheque will not be available in your account until the cheque has cleared. In relation to this process:

- GBP cheques drawn in the country from which we provide the services to you and which are also payable in that country will take up to 4 banking days to clear;
- Any cheques which we send on “collection” (which means where we mail the cheque to the bank on which it is drawn) will only be credited to your account once we have received the funds. This may take a considerable amount of time, and will be beyond our control.

Payments into your account (other than cash and cheque payments)

- 46.3 We normally accept deposits by telegraphic or electronic transfer. In certain circumstances, we may agree to accept and deposit, as agent for collection, drafts, cheques or other instruments for good value after clearance. Clearance times may vary. We deduct from the proceeds our fees and charges (the details of which are available by contacting us) and any fees and charges that may be imposed by third parties.
- 46.4 If a payment (other than a payment made by cash or cheque) is made into your account (such as a standing order or a direct transfer from another account) and we receive that payment on a banking day, we will show it in your account and make it available for you to use immediately after we receive the payment and we will pay any interest on it (or use it to reduce the interest which you pay to us) immediately. If we receive the payment on a non-banking day we will process it on the next banking day.
- 46.5 If we agree to accept drafts, cheques or other instruments drawn on financial institutions located outside the country where your booking centre is located, you acknowledge that:
- clearance depends on the laws and practices of the location of the financial institution;
 - we are not responsible for the value given by the financial institution or any other loss incurred in connection with the draft, cheque or instrument.
- 46.6 We may refuse to accept for collection drafts, cheques or other instrument if they are drawn in favour of third parties, if they appear to belong or have belonged to someone else, or if the payee’s name is not identical to your name in our records. If we agree to accept such draft, cheque or other instrument, we may require you or an authorised person to comply with additional conditions.

47 Withdrawal methods

Payments (other than cheque payments) from your account

- 47.1 Withdrawals from an account are subject to conditions we impose, including notice requirements, compliance with our security requirements and you providing us with the information which we require to carry out the instruction, including the account name, the sort code, account number and any other details we ask you for so that we can make the payment. We will take the provision of these details as evidence of your consent to the transaction.
- 47.2 Deposits cannot be withdrawn until they are cleared.
- 47.3 We normally allow withdrawals by telegraphic or electronic transfer. Withdrawals by other methods, for example in cash or other payment instrument, are subject to availability and other conditions. We reserve the right to impose individual and cumulative limitations on cash withdrawals from accounts from time to time. Please enquire with your Private Banker.
- 47.4 If you ask us to make a payment:
- to another account held with us, we will take the money from your account and it will reach the other account (for USD, GBP and EUR) on the same banking day. For all other currencies money should reach the account in two banking days.
 - in GBP to a UK bank account we will take the money from your account and it should reach the other account within one banking day. For all other currencies, the funds should reach the account in two banking days.
 - in any currency to an account in a bank outside of the UK and Jersey and the money should reach the other account within two banking days.
- 47.5 If you instruct us to do so, we will set up direct debits, standing orders or other recurring transactions from your account if the terms of your product agreement of your account permit this.
- 47.6 Where you have deposited money with us in an account, that money is only repayable to you at the branch or office in the country from which we provide services. This is the case whether that money is in the currency of the country from which we provide services to you or in any foreign currency and whether the money is held in your name or held for your account.

Cancelling or changing a payment

- 47.7 If you ask us to make a payment immediately, we cannot change or cancel the payment instruction because we start processing it when we receive it.
- 47.8 You can change or cancel any instructions to set up direct debits, standing orders or other recurring transactions and any other payment which you asked us to make on a future date as long as you tell us one banking day before the date on which the recurring transaction is due to be processed.

Cheques

- 47.9 If you request, and if we agree, we will supply you with a cheque book(s) for your account(s).
- 47.10 You must not issue post-dated cheques because the person to whom you are paying the cheque may pay it into their account before the cheque becomes due. If they do, we can decide whether to pay it or return it.
- 47.11 Unless we consider that more urgent action is necessary, in which case we may do so immediately, we will give you at least 5 banking days' notice if we restrict, terminate or suspend your right to use your cheque book. Once you have received such notice you must not use your cheque book until we notify you otherwise.
- 47.12 We may choose whether or not to pay a cheque if:
- it appears to have been issued 6 months or more before receipt by us; or
 - the cheque is in any way incomplete, unclear, contradictory or has been amended. We will always act reasonably in choosing in accordance with this clause whether or not to pay a cheque.
- 47.13 You may request us not to pay a cheque which you have written on your account(s) with us and we will do as you ask as soon as reasonably practicable provided:
- the cheque has not already been paid;
 - you provide us with sufficient information to identify the cheque in question; and
 - you make the request in accordance with the provisions of these booking centre terms and conditions.
- 47.14 In some circumstances it may not be possible to stop a cheque, if for example, there is not enough time between our receiving your instruction and the cheque being presented for payment.
- 47.15 If, within a reasonable period of time after the entry has been made on our statement, there is a dispute with us about a cheque paid from your account, we will give you the cheque or a copy as evidence. If there is an unreasonable delay after you have told us about it, we will add the amount of the cheque to your account until we have sorted the matter out.
- 47.16 Please tell us as soon as possible if you suspect or discover that your cheque book has been lost or stolen.

Telegraphic or electronic transfers

- 47.17 You may ask us to effect telegraphic or electronic transfers for you. We need not agree to your request.
- 47.18 If a telegraphic or electronic transfer is made in a currency other than the currency of the destination country, you may be required to pay multiple charges for the transfer. For details of these charges, please contact us.
- 47.19 You consent to us disclosing any information in connection with the telegraphic or electronic transfer to the correspondent or intermediary bank.
- 47.20 If a telegraphic or electronic transfer cannot be completed, we are not required to refund the charges paid by you unless the failure to complete was solely and directly due to our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

When we may refuse to make a payment

- 47.21 We may refuse your instruction to make a payment (including cheques) in the following circumstances:
- where the request is for an unusually large amount;
 - in order to comply with anti-money laundering procedures;
 - if we reasonably suspect that the instruction is fraudulent or unauthorised by you;
 - if you do not have a sufficient balance in your account to satisfy the instruction;
 - if your instruction is not clear or you have not provided us with the correct details; or

- there is a legal requirement or a court or other authority that tells us to act in that way.

47.22 Unless the applicable law prevents us from doing so or we reasonably believe that it would undermine our security measures, we will try to contact you as soon as possible by telephone to tell you that we are refusing to act on your payment instruction and provide you with our reasons for this.

48 Reversals

48.1 We may cancel, reverse or debit any payment we make (including any interest paid) and make any corresponding adjustments to an account:

- to correct an error;
- where we have not received cleared and unconditional funds in full or promptly;
- where we are required to return the funds to the relevant payer; or
- where we have reasonable grounds for doing so.

49 Uncleared payments

49.1 If:

any uncleared sums credited to your account are subsequently dishonoured; or we are called upon to repay to any relevant party any amounts credited to your account, you must repay us any reasonable costs which you owe us as a result (including if your account goes into debit, or fails to meet the minimum balance as a result), unless we agree otherwise.

49.2 If a payment is recalled by the bank that made it, because that bank's customer did not have enough money for the payment, sometimes a payment may be made into your account by mistake. If this happens, we will take the payment out of your account, even if we allowed you to make a payment or to take cash on the assumption that the payment would not be recalled. If this results in your account becoming overdrawn when you do not have an agreed credit facility on the account, or going over any agreed credit facility limit we have set or fails to meet the minimum balance, you will have to pay our charges and interest. If we debit a payment from your account by mistake, we will credit your account and if our debit resulted in your account becoming overdrawn when you did not have an agreed credit facility on the account, or going over any agreed credit facility limit, we set or you failed to meet a minimum balance, we will pay your charges and interest. This process will also apply where we credit or debit your account in error for any other reason.

50 Liability for payments

Liability for authorised payments

50.1 We will not be liable to you for any losses you suffer or costs which you incur because:

- we do not act on your instruction to make a payment for any of the reasons set out in clause 47.21 of the booking centre terms and conditions; or
- the details which you have given us to make the payment are not correct.

Liability for unauthorised payments

50.2 Other than in the circumstances which are set out in clause 50.3 below, if you tell us that a payment from your account was not authorised by you, we will carry out an investigation and, as soon as we are reasonably satisfied that you did not authorise the payment, we will refund the amount deducted and will return your account to the position it would have been in if the unauthorised payment had not taken place (except where we have reasonable ground for suspecting fraud and communicate these grounds to the relevant authority in writing). This means, for example, that we will pay any interest on the amount incorrectly paid and/or refund interest or charges which we made because the account became overdrawn. We will have no further liability to you. If you wish us to refund the unauthorised payment to you, you must tell us about the unauthorised payment no later than 13 months after the payment in question has been debited from your account. If more than 13 months have elapsed since the payment was debited from your account we are not obliged to refund the payment.

50.3 However you will be liable for:

- all payments made from your account if you have acted fraudulently;

- payments that take place until you notify us under clauses 12.5 and 12.6 of the booking centre terms and conditions that someone else may have had access to your security information or your account, but only if the payment was made because you deliberately or very carelessly failed to keep your security information secret or failed to notify us as soon as you should have done.

51 Refunds for payments

Refunds for payments which you have asked us to make within the EEA

51.1 If you ask us to make a payment in an EEA currency to an account at another bank in the EEA and your account is held in an EEA currency and the other bank says that it did not receive the payment, we will refund the amount of the payment and return your account to the position it would have been in if the payment had not been made, except in the following cases, if:

- there was a mistake in any of the details contained in the instructions which you gave us to make the payment. If this is the case, we will make reasonable efforts to recover the amount of the payment. We will charge you a reasonable amount to cover our costs in doing so. We will tell you the amount of the additional charge before we take any action to recover the payment; or
- we can show that the payment was received by the other bank. In this case, the other bank is required by law to make the payment immediately to that person.

You must ask for the refund no later than 13 months after the payment in question has been debited from your account. If more than 13 months have elapsed since the payment was debited from your account we are not obliged to refund the payment.

Direct debits

51.2 If you have instructed us to make direct debits to third parties which are covered by the UK direct debit scheme (we can provide you with details of this when you set up a direct debit from your account), we will provide refunds under the direct debit guarantee (you will be provided with the conditions of this when you set up a direct debit from your account).

Refunds for payments outside the EEA

51.3 If you ask us to make a payment to an account at another bank outside the EEA or from an account which is not in an EEA currency and the payment is not received by the other bank as a result of an error we made when carrying out your instructions, we will refund the amount of the payment, and our charges and interest calculated at the rate laid down by applicable regulations on the amount of the payment for the period from the date of your instructions until the date the refund is made. If we can show that we carried out your instructions correctly or that there was a mistake in any of the details which you provided to us, we will make reasonable efforts to recover the amount of the payment. We will charge you a reasonable amount to cover our costs in doing so. We will tell you the amount of the additional charge before we take any action to recover the amount of the payment.

Precious Metals

51.4 Except where we otherwise agree, there will be no physical delivery by us or you in respect of any transaction in relation to precious metals. We will:

- in respect of a purchase of precious metals, credit the amount of precious metals purchased by you in our records as a notional quantity bought and held for you and debit the account we maintain for you for the equivalent value; and
- in respect of a sale of precious metals, credit the account we maintain for you for the equivalent value, and debit from our records the notional quantity of precious metals sold on your behalf.

PART D: CHANGES TO THE BANKING TERMS

52 Changes to these Banking terms

52.1 We may only amend these product terms in accordance with the provisions set out below in this clause 52. The way in which we are permitted to amend these terms will differ depending on what term in the terms we wish to amend.

Changing the interest rate which applies to your account

52.2 If you have an account which tracks a reference interest rate, such as a central bank base rate, that rate will change automatically on a change in the reference interest rate. This will happen immediately after the reference rate has changed. You can contact your Private Banker at any time to find out the current reference rate on any of your accounts.

Changing exchange rates

52.3 Unless we agree a fixed exchange rate with you for a particular transaction, the exchange rate that we will use to convert foreign currency payments into or out of your account will be the reference exchange rate that we have told you will apply (or will be at a margin above or below that rate if we have told you that is the case). A reference exchange rate is a rate for converting one currency into another which is available by contacting your Private Banker. We may apply changes to the reference exchange rate immediately and without giving you prior notice.

Changing our fees and charges

52.4 If we provide a new service in connection with your account or expand the scope of the services which we provide to you, we may introduce a new charge for providing you with any new services.

52.5 We are permitted to change our charges or introduce a new charge if there is a change in (or we reasonably expect there to be a change in):

- the costs we incur in carrying out the activity for which the charge is or will be made; or
- regulatory requirements.

52.6 Any change to our charges or new charge will be a fair proportion, as reasonably determined by us, of the impact of the underlying change on the costs we incur in providing the services to you.

Changing other terms

52.7 We are also permitted to change the terms in Section 2 (Banking Terms) for any of the reasons which are set out in clause 52.

52.8 As long as you are able to terminate these terms of the booking centre terms and conditions without charge (or we agree to waive any charge that would otherwise apply), we may change any of the terms of these booking centre terms and conditions (including our charges and the margin on a tracker product) for any reason not listed above.

Notifying you of changes to the terms

52.9 We will give you at least 30 days' notice of all changes, except the changes to interest and exchange rates which we can make without notice as set out above in clause 52.2. We will provide you with this notice in writing to the most recent address which we hold for you. When we tell you about a change, we will tell you the date on which it comes into effect.

52.10 As long as notice of a change is given to you at the most recent address we have for you, you will be treated as accepting the change on the date on which it is due to come into effect, unless, before the date on which the change is due to come into effect, you tell us that you want to terminate these terms and you do not accept the change. We will not make any termination charge if you terminate these terms in these circumstances.

SECTION 3: INVESTMENT TERMS

PART A: INVESTMENT SERVICES

53 Our services

53.1 Our investment services consist of a non-advised dealing service which you can use to execute transactions in investments.

54 Non-advised service

54.1 We may on your specific instructions, provide you with execution, clearing and settlement services for securities, on your behalf and at your risk, provided that we are prepared at our discretion to transact such securities. We may, on your instructions, carry out such transactions on any market or with such counterparty, negotiate and execute counterparty and account opening documentation on your behalf.

Our obligations in relation to your wider financial planning needs

54.2 Although we will comply with our obligations under applicable law to assess the appropriateness of an investment for you, we do not provide investment advice (although your relationship centre may) and we are not obliged to identify your wider financial planning needs when we provide our investment services to you unless you expressly request that we do so and we agree to do so. If we agree to advise you on your wider financial planning needs, you agree to provide us with such information as we reasonably consider necessary in order to provide you with such advice.

Restrictions on investments/markets

- 54.3 Before we provide our investment services to you, you may provide us with instructions which set out any restrictions or limitations with respect to the services which we provide. For example, you may not want to invest in a particular country or in certain types of investment.
- 54.4 If you do not inform us of any investment restrictions, we may provide our investment services to you in respect of any securities as long as they are appropriate for you.
- 54.5 If you would like to discuss your preferences regarding risk taking, your risk profile, your investment objectives and/or your investment restrictions at any time, please speak to your Private Banker.
- You remain responsible for your decisions
- 54.6 You remain responsible for all decisions on whether to invest in, hold or dispose of any investment or to enter into any product agreement or service agreement. We will only enter into transactions you instruct.
- 54.7 While we have a structured sales process in place to help you make investment decisions that meet your risk profile, all products and services are offered to you, and all product agreements and service agreements are entered into, on the basis that you are able to make, have made or will make your own assessments and decisions on the merits of the transactions and the risks involved. We will not exercise judgment on your behalf in respect of any product or service.
- 54.8 You agree that you will not rely on any advice or recommendation your relationship centre provides in substitution of your own assessment and judgment of a product or service.

Termination

- 54.9 The terms in clause 21 will apply to the termination of the non-advised dealing service which you can use to execute transactions in investments.

PART B: SECURITIES DEALING

These terms apply to all transactions in securities, including collective investment schemes and funds. You should also see Part C, for additional terms that apply specifically to collective investment schemes and funds.

55 Your relationship with us

Transactions

- 55.1 All transactions in securities are subject to:
- the rules of the relevant exchange, clearing house, depository, custodian or regulatory authority;
 - any applicable constitutive and/or offering document for the securities, which we can make available to you at your request; and
 - applicable law, including any general requirement that we pay due regard to the interests of our customers and treat them fairly.

Nature of relationship

- 55.2 We will execute or arrange for you the execution of transactions in investments in accordance with your instructions.
- 55.3 We are not obliged to assess the suitability of our securities dealing service when dealing with you on an execution only basis.
- 55.4 When dealing in securities for you, we may:
- transact on our own account (as principal) and then enter into another transaction with you to offer the investment to you; and/or
 - act as your agent and transact on your behalf.
- 55.5 You acknowledge and agree that we owe no fiduciary or other equitable duties to you with respect to transactions.
- 55.6 If we or another member of the Standard Chartered Group act on behalf of another person in any capacity in relation to a transaction (for example, we may have given financial advice to the issuer of the securities you wish to purchase), or if we or another member of the Standard Chartered Group transact in the same or similar securities for other customers or for our or its own account (for example, we may have issued structured investments linked to such securities), we need not inform you.

However, we will act in accordance with our internal policies to manage any conflicts of interest.

Your relationship with other members of the Standard Chartered Group

55.7 Other members of the Standard Chartered Group may provide investment services or relationship services to you. Where they do so, they will be providing such services directly, and not on our behalf. Their direct relationship with you will be governed by a separate agreement and not by these booking centre terms and conditions.

55.8 Some members of the Standard Chartered Group may be located outside the country from which we provide the services to you and as a result, may not be required to comply with applicable law in the country from which we provide the services to you.

Execution

55.9 Where we execute deals for you through our securities dealing service, we will comply with our execution procedures and obligations under the Code of Practice for Investment Business (as issued by the Jersey Financial Services Commission and amended from time to time).

55.10 You authorise us to execute deals on your behalf outside of a regulated market, multilateral trading facility or organised trading facility.

55.11 If you provide us with specific instructions in relation to the execution of a deal for you, this may prevent us from following our order execution procedure in relation to that deal in respect of the elements of execution to which your specific instructions refer.

55.12 You undertake at all times to maintain sufficient monies in your account for the purpose of making payment for any purchase and for the payment of any fees, costs or other expenses. If you are selling securities, you undertake that you have or will have such securities in your account.

55.13 Without limiting the generality of clause 6 of the booking centre terms and conditions:

- we may refuse to carry out an instruction to deal in securities, or terminate a transaction, if there are insufficient monies held in cleared funds or due to be received to the credit of your account to meet any purchase price (or any other amount payable by you under the relevant transaction) together with any estimated expenses to be incurred in connection with the relevant transaction. Where you have placed several orders or instructions and there are insufficient monies or available credit facilities to meet the resulting obligations, we may in our discretion decide which of the orders or instructions will be executed, irrespective of the order in which, or dates on which we received them. We shall also be entitled to (in our discretion and without any obligation to do so):
- transfer monies as necessary from any other accounts maintained by you with us; or
- if you have available credit facilities; utilise such credit facilities to meet the payment obligations; and
- we may refuse to carry out any instruction to sell or deliver any securities if insufficient securities are held in or for the account or are due to be credited to the account. We will only place orders for the sale of securities provided such securities are in the account, free of all liens and other encumbrances whatsoever. On receipt of any instruction to sell the securities, we shall be entitled to debit any account with the relevant securities on or (at our discretion) at any time before completion of the said sale. You acknowledge that you shall not be entitled to withdraw or in any way deal with all or any part of such securities until completion of the said sale. If for any reason there are insufficient securities in the account, we may or may be required to acquire securities on your behalf in order to complete the transaction.

You shall be responsible for all costs or losses incurred as a result of us taking any of the above actions.

55.14 You should note that we may have deadlines (including internal deadlines) for taking certain actions (for example, for making subscriptions, redemptions or withdrawals). When giving us instructions, you should ensure that you allow reasonable time for us to process your instructions in order to meet the relevant deadlines. We will not be liable for any failure to meet a deadline for any reason, unless such failure is directly due to our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

55.15 You agree that:

- we may aggregate any order received from you with our own orders or with the orders of any member of the Standard Chartered Group or our other customers, and you acknowledge that such aggregation may on some occasions operate to your disadvantage and on other occasions to your advantage; and
- we may execute any order received from you as a series of transactions over a period of time and report to you an average price for such transactions instead of the actual price for each transaction.

Prices

55.16 Prices we quote to you may be obtained from a price quoting agency or other third party source. They are indicative and for information only. They may not be the price or value at which we would be able to transact in the relevant securities. They may not reflect redemption charges or other fees, costs or other factors. They should not be relied on for any trading, hedging or investment decision.

Trading/Position limits

55.17 You undertake to comply with any trading restrictions or position limits under applicable law, including those imposed by any relevant exchange, market or clearing house, and irrespective of whether you trade through one or more banks or brokers. If any such trading restriction or position limit is exceeded, we are authorised to disclose your identity and your positions, and/or liquidate any of your positions, if we are requested to do so by any regulatory authority, exchange, market or clearing house. We may, upon request and the payment by you of relevant processing fees, provide you with information with respect to any of your positions.

55.18 In addition to any trading restrictions or position limits under applicable law, we may, at any time in our discretion, impose any position or transaction limits, or any trading or transaction restrictions. Such limits may include minimum sizes for transactions, specified times or procedures for communicating orders to us or otherwise. We may, at any time in our discretion, vary any such limits or restrictions. In placing orders with us, you shall not exceed any such limits or breach any such restrictions, whether imposed by us, any relevant exchange, market or clearing house or otherwise imposed under applicable law.

Settlement

55.19 You are responsible for paying for each order which we execute for you, whether by payment of the purchase price, delivery of the relevant assets, or otherwise as required by the terms of the transaction which you have instructed us to enter into.

55.20 Except where we agreed otherwise with you, you must pay for any investments which we purchase for you on or before the time by which payment is due for the relevant investment. You must make all payments for transactions which we execute for you to us or to a third party as your Private Banker instructs.

55.21 You must not deduct any tax or other amount from any payment which you make to us or to a third party for a transaction which we execute for you unless you make up the shortfall.

55.22 If you fail to meet your own obligations in relation to a particular transaction, you will reimburse us for all direct losses which we incur as a result.

55.23 We shall be entitled to debit or credit any account with the amount payable or received for any transaction and all other fees and costs.

55.24 You acknowledge that our sole responsibility with regard to the proceeds of any sale of securities is to receive payment from the purchaser (or its agent) of the relevant securities, and we will not be liable to pay to you any such proceeds of sale or be liable to you in any other way if such payment to us by any purchaser (or its agent) is not honoured. You acknowledge that we may, in any case, make delivery of the relevant securities contemporaneously with the receipt of such payment or purported payment or in such manner as is customary for such securities on the relevant exchange, market, clearing house or depository.

55.25 If we or our correspondent broker shall for any reason fail to receive payment of any amount due to be paid, or fail to receive delivery of any securities (whether from the relevant exchange, clearing house, and/or any other person) due to be delivered to you, on the due date for payment or delivery, our obligations to make payment or to deliver securities to you shall at such time, and by virtue of such failure, become obligations to make payment of such amount or delivery of such quantity of securities as is equal to such payment or such quantity as is actually received by us or our correspondent broker (as the case may be).

55.26 If we credit the account with the receipt of assets before their actual receipt, we may reverse such credit at any time before actual receipt.

55.27 We may debit the account with assets on or before the date they are due to be transferred to a third party even though actual settlement has not yet occurred. We may reverse such debit at any time before actual settlement.

55.28 You accept that you may not rely on any such debit or credit referred to at clauses 55.26 and 55.27 until actual settlement. These procedures are of an administrative nature and do not amount to an agreement by us to make loans or investments available to you.

56 Transaction confirmation

56.1 Unless an exemption applies under applicable law, we will supply you with confirmations after each transaction you enter into using the securities dealing service. These confirmations will be provided:

- no later than the banking day following the day a transaction is executed; or
- if the confirmation is received by us from a third party, no later than the first banking day following receipt from that third party.

57 Allocation

57.1 If for any reason we need to allocate securities to or between our customers, we do so in accordance with our internal policy on allocations.

57.2 This policy provides for the prompt, fair and expeditious execution of your orders relative to other orders or trading interests of the firm. When carrying out your orders we will ensure the following:

- your orders are executed promptly and accurately recorded and allocated;
- otherwise comparable orders are carried out sequentially and promptly, unless the characteristics of the order or prevailing market conditions make this impracticable or your interests require otherwise; and
- we will inform you of any material difficulty relevant to the proper carrying out of your order(s) promptly upon becoming aware of the difficulty.

57.3 In accordance with applicable law, our order allocation policy establishes terms for the fair allocation of aggregated orders and transactions, including how the volume and price of orders determines allocation and the treatment of partial execution.

57.4 We will not aggregate your orders with our own orders or those of another customer unless:

- it is unlikely that the aggregation of orders and transaction will work overall to the disadvantage of any customer whose order is to be aggregated (although you acknowledge that it may work to your disadvantage in relation to a particular order or transaction); and
- we inform you that your order is going to be aggregated and the effect of that aggregation.

57.5 Where we aggregate transactions for our own account with one or more of your orders, we will not allocate the related trades in a way which is detrimental to you. Where we aggregate your order with a transaction for our own account and the aggregated order is partially executed, we will allocate the related trades to you in priority to us, unless we can show on reasonable grounds that without the combination it would not have been possible to carry out the order on such advantageous terms or at all. In these circumstances we may allocate the transaction for our own account proportionally in accordance with our order allocation policy.

58 Limitations of liabilities, responsibilities and indemnities

58.1 You retain full responsibility for making all investment decisions to buy or sell or otherwise deal in the securities and will not hold us liable for any losses as a result of your investment or dealing. We will only enter into transactions as you instruct.

58.2 We are not obliged to keep your holdings in these investments under review for you or to monitor their performance. In addition, we are not obliged to bring investment opportunities to your attention or to continue to monitor or update any information or investment advice which we have provided to you, unless we have agreed to do so as part of an on-going service.

58.3 If your relationship centre gives you investment advice, this does not provide any guarantee that any investment recommended will provide a return or that it will meet your investment objectives. It is important to remember that investments may go down as well as up and that past performance is not a guarantee of future performance.

58.4 You agree and acknowledge that we shall not be liable to you for any loss incurred by you arising from changes in market conditions or market movements.

58.5 You acknowledge that you will be liable and that we shall have no responsibility for any liabilities in respect of unpaid calls or any other sums, costs or expenses payable in respect of any securities held by us on your behalf.

58.6 You agree and acknowledge that we shall not be liable to you for any loss arising in whatever manner directly or indirectly from, or as a result of, any act or omission of or delay by the seller/issuer (or its agent) of the securities, or our broker, to make valid or timely payments/payouts or delivery of the relevant securities to us, or of any other obligation of the seller/issuer or broker.

58.7 Where any jurisdiction restricts foreign ownership of securities, we shall have no duty to ascertain the nationality of the owner of the securities or whether securities deposited or received by you are approved for foreign ownership.

58.8 You remain responsible for compliance with all disclosure obligations that apply to the securities you transact. You agree to comply with all rules relating to market conduct, including laws on insider trading that may apply.

58.9 You shall indemnify us and keep us indemnified in full against any loss of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be made against us by a purchaser or any other person by reason of any defect in your title (or lack thereof) to any of the securities or by reason of any of the securities not being genuine.

59 How to terminate the investment services

59.1 If you wish to terminate any of the investment services which we provide to you, you may do so at any time by giving us written notice in accordance with clause 6 of the booking centre terms and conditions. Before the investment services are terminated, you must pay us any amounts outstanding in relation to any adviser charges and/or transaction which you have entered into through our securities dealing service.

59.2 Unless we also provide you with custody services under the custody terms (set out in Section 3 Part D) (Custody Services), any notice of termination which you provide to us will take effect on the day on which we receive it. If we provide you with custody services under the custody terms, any notice of termination which you provide to us will not take effect until such time as any investments or documents subject to the custody terms have been transferred out of our custody. We will arrange for the transfer of any investments or documents subject to the custody terms as soon as reasonably practicable after we receive notice of termination from you.

60 Consequences of ceasing to provide the investment services

60.1 On termination:

- any orders or instructions given in respect of the investment services prior to the receipt of the notice of termination will not be affected; and
- we will be entitled to exercise any rights which we might have to sell your investments or to close out all open positions, whether then existing or resulting from the exercise of our rights under these booking centre terms and conditions.

60.2 The giving of a notice of termination by either you or us will not affect any legal rights or obligations which have already arisen prior to the receipt of the notice.

60.3 No penalty will become due from either you or us in respect of the termination of the investment services. However, we may require you to pay an amount in respect of:

- any fees which you pay to us for providing the investment services that have accrued up to the date of termination; and
- reasonable charges for transferring your investments to a third party.

PART C: COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEMES / FUNDS

61 Collective investment schemes / funds

We act as agent

61.1 You acknowledge that in respect of any transaction of interests in a collective investment scheme or fund (together, referred to here as a 'fund'), we act as agent on your behalf for the execution of instructions. We do not owe you any fiduciary or other equitable duties in respect of any dealings in the fund above or beyond our obligation as your agent (as set out in this clause).

Acknowledgement by you

61.2 You are aware and acknowledge that:

- you will read and ensure you understand the offering document, the subscription agreements and any other additional material (including fact sheets and annual reports) in relation to the fund (referred to here as the 'fund documentation') and your application to subscribe for interests in the fund is made on the basis of information set out in the fund documentation;
- your investment in the fund may not be principal protected and is further subject to the risk factors as described in the fund documentation and you are willing to accept such risks;
- we have no liability whatsoever to you for any error, misstatement or omission in the fund documentation or any loss suffered or incurred by you in connection with any transaction entered into or steps taken or omitted to be taken by you on the basis of the fund documentation;
- the fund will be investing in the assets as described in the fund documentation;
- all your investments in the fund shall be issued, distributed, switched and redeemed and cancelled pursuant to the provisions set out in the fund documentation and the constitutional documents of the fund;
- there may be limited liquidity to an investment in the fund. The fund may suspend the redemption rights of holders. Interests in the fund may only be redeemed or transferred subject to restrictions and other requirements set out in the fund documentation and the constitutional documents of the fund;

- your instructions to purchase, sell and/or otherwise deal in funds will be executed in accordance with our usual practice and as such may not be effected on the same day the instructions are placed. We shall not be responsible for any price difference as a result of executing the instruction in accordance with our usual practice; and
- if you instruct us to purchase units in a regulated collective investment scheme and we purchase the units for you, you will have no right to cancel such transactions because we buy and hold the units on your behalf. Therefore you do not benefit from any right to cancel which you may have been entitled to if you had bought the units yourself.

61.3 You represent and/or warrant that (which representations and warranties shall be deemed repeated in relation to each instruction in relation to the fund and on a continuous basis so long as you maintain an account with us):

- you will comply with all sale and/or transfer restrictions, undertakings, representations, warranties and indemnities set out in the fund documentation and the constitutive documents of the fund, and you agree to be bound by the terms thereof;
- you are an eligible investor of the fund;
- we may rely upon valuations from the fund and/or other third parties for the purposes of reporting to you the value of your beneficial interest in the fund. We shall not be under any duty to seek to verify the accuracy of such valuations;
- representations made by us and/or our nominees in relation to you (if any, relying on information provided by you) are accurate and correct and you shall not do any act which may as a consequence cause a breach of such representations;
- you shall indemnify us and/or our nominees for any losses that we or they may incur as a consequence of acting on your behalf in subscribing, selling, transferring, switching or otherwise dealing in an interest in the fund; and
- we and/or our nominees shall have no responsibility for the performance of your investment in the fund.

Fund subscription

61.4 We are authorised to take such actions (including execution of documents on your behalf) as we consider necessary or appropriate to subscribe to the fund.

61.5 We have the discretion to purchase interests in the fund on your behalf based on the price of such interests as designated by the fund from time to time.

61.6 No certificate will be issued in respect of the interests in the fund but you shall receive:

- a confirmation statement from us in respect of any subscription of interests in the fund by you; and
- a statement of holdings indicating the number of interests in the fund issued to us as nominee for you, periodically.

61.7 Dividends declared by the fund will be disbursed according to any valid dividend instruction from you. If you:

- have a “cash” dividend instruction, all dividends will be credited to your account;
- have a “reinvestment” dividend instruction, all dividends will be automatically reinvested in the fund through the subscription of additional interests in the fund and we will hold the same for your account as your nominee; and
- have not provided any instruction within the timeframe specified by us, we may disburse the dividends in the manner as we consider appropriate.

Fund switching

61.8 Where switching is permitted by a fund, you may from time to time instruct and authorise us on your behalf, and as your agent, to place a switching order and switch interests in the fund to interests in another fund provided that such other fund is distributed by us and you have complied with all relevant requirements under the fund documentation and the constitutional documents of the fund in relation to such switching.

61.9 The provisions of clauses 61.4 to 61.7 shall apply as if all references therein to the order were references to an application to switch an interest in the fund.

Fund redemption

61.10 If at any time you wish to redeem all or any of the interests in a fund, you shall instruct us to apply to the fund for the redemption of such interests.

61.11 Upon any redemption of interests in the fund, we will credit to the account such monies (net of any fees, charges or expenses incurred in connection with the redemption) as may be received in consideration for the redemption of the interests in the fund. We have no duty to ascertain, nor will it be responsible for, the adequacy of the consideration received.

Transfer

61.12 After we receive transfer instructions from you, we may (but will not be obliged to) act upon any further instructions from you relating to the interests in a fund, subject to our discretion and within the timeframe permitted by the fund.

61.13 Any instruction given by you to us to transfer interests in a fund shall be deemed to be an instruction to transfer all your interests in that fund unless otherwise agreed by us at our discretion.

Cancellation rights

61.14 You may have a right to cancel any agreement to purchase any fund. Please refer to the fund documentation for further information about cancellation rights and the period in which you have to cancel the agreement.

Acceptance of instructions

61.15 You acknowledge that the fund is not obliged to accept any instruction received from us in part or whole. We shall not be liable or responsible for any action, rejection or delay on the part of the fund or agents of the fund in respect of any such order, or for any loss which you may suffer or incur as a result of the foregoing.

PART D: CUSTODY SERVICES

62 Custody services

How we hold your investments

62.1 Unless we agree with you otherwise, we will serve as your custodian for investments you may acquire from or through us or, with our agreement, deposit with us from time to time. We may do so in accounts with us, our nominee, another member of the Standard Chartered Group or with third party sub-custodians we appoint. The investments may also be deposited with or held by a central securities depository. How and where the investments are held may depend on where:

- the principal trading market for the investments is located;
- the investments may be presented for payment; or
- the investments were acquired.

If we hold investment through a nominee, references to “we”, “our” or “us” in this Section 3 Part D shall include the nominee or sub-custodian (as the case may be).

62.2 We will use reasonable skill and care in the selection of a sub-custodian and will make appropriate enquiries to ensure that it competently discharges its obligations. We are not otherwise responsible for the acts or omissions or insolvency of the sub-custodian, or if it ceases to carry on business. Our custody services are subject to the terms and conditions of our agreements with the sub-custodians, the customary terms of any securities depository, and the applicable law (including insolvency law) of the jurisdiction in which the investments are held.

62.3 Investments may be held (i) in our name or the name of our nominee, (ii) in the name of the sub-custodian, or (iii) in your name. This depends on local law or market practice, but is otherwise at our discretion. We will, however, never allow an arrangement to prevent us from acting in your best interests. You agree to complete all instruments of transfer or other document we require to enable us to hold and deal in the investments. We may delay registering the investments in our name or in the name of our nominee or sub-custodian, at our reasonable discretion. We may not be in a position to carry out all our obligations as custodian prior to such registration. We shall not be liable for any loss you may suffer as a result.

62.4 If investments are held in our name or in the name of our nominee or the sub-custodian, they may be commingled with investments belonging to other customers. This means that we may not be able to attribute a specific investment to you and we may use your investment for another client. However, if we do this, we will, as soon as practicable, inform you of this. We also have no obligation to deliver to you investments their present form but rather only investments of the same number, class, denomination and issue as originally deposited with us.

62.5 We will, or we will procure that our nominee or the sub-custodians will, identify in our/their books that the investments belong to you or our customers generally, as the case may be. We will, or we will procure that our nominee or sub-custodian will, keep a separate record of all investments you hold with us. The purpose of this is to make it clear that you own the investments, so that if the nominee or the sub-custodian becomes insolvent, your investments will not be available to the creditors of the nominee or sub-custodian.

- 62.6 We hold the investments as bare trustee. You bear all risks associated with the investments.
- 62.7 We will not investigate ownership or title to the investments. We will not be liable for any defect in ownership or title.
- 62.8 We can provide individual segregated accounts to hold your investments at central securities depositaries, upon request. Please speak to your Private Banker for further information.

63 Overseas custody

- 63.1 Where we arrange for one or more of your investments to be held in safe custody outside the country from which we provide services to you, there may be different or additional legal requirements which apply to your investments. This may affect the way in which your investments may be used and administered.
- 63.2 There may also be different practices for the identification of investments from those of other of our customers or the other customers of nominees or sub-custodians.

64 Statements relating to your investments

- 64.1 We will send you a statement detailing all of your investments that we hold for you as custodian at least once every year. If you would like an up to date statement at any point during the year, please contact your Private Banker. We may charge you for the reasonable costs of our doing so.
- 64.2 Your statement will show your investments that we hold for you as custodian at their most recent market value. In preparing your statement, we will only use up-to-date information obtained from sources we reasonably believe to be reliable.

65 Scope of authority

- 65.1 You authorise us (but we are not obliged) to do the following in respect of your investments:
- to surrender or deliver an investment against receipt of monies payable at maturity, redemption or sale or against any other investment upon any exchange of the investment;
 - where interest, dividends, distributions, income or other payments (whether in cash or in kind) are payable in respect of any investment, including at maturity, redemption or sale, to collect them, convert them into the currency of your account at our prevailing rates and deposit them into your account;
 - to make any withholding or deduction, and pay the same, as may be required by law;
 - to do any administrative act in relation to the investments (for example, consolidating or splitting investments into marketable lots, exchanging investments in temporary form for investments in definitive form, or delivering investments in scrip form to a central depository (or similar system) for the purposes of scrip-less trading);
 - to disclose your interests in the investments as may be required by law or rules of the relevant exchange or regulatory authority;
 - to deal with the investments or to do any administrative act on your behalf for the purposes of carrying out your instructions (such as completing or submitting any document); and
 - to take any action as we think necessary to preserve the integrity of the investments or to protect your interests or our interests.

Accounts

- 65.2 We will, as soon as practicable, account to you for any income received and rights conferred to you in respect of your investments.

Rights issues, takeovers, etc.

- 65.3 Subject to clause 65.4, unless we receive instructions from you (which must be given in accordance with clause 6 of the terms and conditions and be given in sufficient time for us reasonably to act upon them), we will not be responsible for exercising any of the rights which you may have in your capacity as owner of a particular investment, such as (without limitation):
- exercising any rights to convert your investment into another kind of investment or any rights to subscribe for further investments;
 - dealing with the consequences of a takeover, merger or other reorganisation of the issuer; or
 - exercising any rights which you may have to vote on the actions of the issuer.

65.4 If we do not receive instructions from you in accordance with clause 65.3:

- where you have been provided by the issuer with a default option in respect of how you may elect, we will act on that default option; or
- where there is no default option, we will not exercise your rights.

65.5 Where any of your investments are registered in our name or in the name of a nominee we will endeavour to procure that:

- all material notices, reports, circulars and other documents, which relate to each investment, received by us or a nominee, are forwarded to you as soon as reasonably practicable;
- if it becomes possible (for example, under the terms of the investment or as a result of a takeover, merger or other reorganisation of the issuer) to convert your investment into another kind of investment or to exchange or cash in your investment, your investments are converted, exchanged or cashed in;
- in the event that any takeover offer is made in respect of your investments or a proposal is made to vary or cancel any rights you have in your investments, we will take no action unless we receive written instructions to the contrary from you; and
- all voting and other rights and powers which may be exercisable by you in relation to your investments shall only be exercised in the way you direct us in writing, provided that in each case:
- where the action you direct us to take means that we must make a payment or accept liability on your behalf, we have received sufficient funds from you to make such a payment or to cover the cost of accepting such liability; and
- in the event that an action you direct us to take is not taken within the relevant time limits or at all, we will not be liable to you for any loss or damage caused, except where such a loss or damage is caused as a result of our breach of these booking centre terms and conditions or our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

65.6 If you do not receive a communication under clause 65.5 in time for you to take action upon it, we shall not be liable to you for any loss or damage caused, except where such a loss or damage is as a result of our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

Dividends, interest payments and other entitlements

65.7 Unless we receive instructions from you in relation to such matters (and which allow us reasonably sufficient time to act upon them), we may in our discretion act on your behalf without your instructions with regard to:

- the collection and cashing in of income, interest or other payments which you receive as a result of owning an investment; and
- the recovery of, and exchange of investments, provided that such action does not require the exercise of business discretion.

65.8 You authorise us to:

- where your investments include bonds or other debt instruments, deal as your agent with the administrative procedures with regard to the payment to you of interest;
- hand over your investments upon their maturity once we have received any money which you are due on their maturity; and
- deduct or withhold any sum on account of any tax:
- which, acting reasonably, we consider that we are required to do by applicable law; or
- which, acting reasonably, we consider that you are liable or accountable to pay under applicable law.

Discrepancies

65.9 If there are discrepancies between monies or investments due and monies or investments actually received, we may withhold payment or delivery to your account until such discrepancies are resolved.

65.10 If an issuer, exchange or operator of a clearing system requests the return of monies or investments already paid or delivered to your account, we are authorised to debit the same from your account.

66 Commingled investments

66.1 In some cases, we, nominees or sub-custodians may pool your investments with those of one or more other clients. This means that your individual entitlements under those investments may not be clearly identifiable.

66.2 In these circumstances, the following provisions apply:

- if an investment fails, and there is an irreconcilable shortfall, you may have to share in that shortfall proportionately with other clients who have their investments pooled with yours. This may mean that you do not receive your full entitlement or that you lose your entitlement to particular investments;
- if there is an event which affects some but not all of the investments pooled together, we will allocate the investments affected to our customers in a way that we reasonably believe to be fair and appropriate. We may use, amongst other things, a proportionate method of distribution or random lottery, for this purpose; and
- we will distribute all other entitlements and benefits on a pro-rata basis.

67 Liability

67.1 We accept responsibility for the obligations, set out in these booking centre terms and conditions, of any nominee controlled by us.

67.2 However, we do not accept responsibility for losses covered by the acts or omissions of any sub-custodian, other than for losses arising out of our breach of these booking centre terms and conditions (for example, where we have failed to use reasonable skill and care in selecting a sub-custodian) or out of our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

67.3 Notwithstanding the above, laws relating to insolvency differ between countries and so your investments held in custody may not always be protected in this way if they are held by a nominee or sub-custodian in a jurisdiction where the principles of insolvency law are different.

67.4 Unless we are in breach of these booking centre terms and conditions, or we have been grossly negligent, in wilful default or fraudulent, we shall not be liable to repay to you the whole or part of any investment which is held by a sub-custodian who becomes insolvent. In the event of such insolvency, you may lose all or part of the investment held by that sub-custodian.

68 Termination

68.1 We may decline to provide, or continue providing, custody services in relation to particular investments at our discretion. If we do so, or if our custody services are terminated altogether, you shall make arrangements for the transfer of the investments to you or another custodian of your choice. You agree to complete all documents required to effect such a transfer.

68.2 If you fail to make such arrangements, we may (at your expense) transfer, redeem or sell the investments at our discretion and pay the proceeds into your account. We may take any action and complete all documents on your behalf in order to do so. We will not be liable for any losses you suffer, unless such loss is directly caused by our gross negligence, wilful default or fraud.

69 Security interest

69.1 For the avoidance of doubt, any investment we hold as custodian may be subject to a security interest in our favour.

69.2 We may create (or allow to be created) a security interest, lien or right of set-off in favour of a third party (including a custodian or depositary) (a "Third Party Security Interest") over or in respect of any investment we hold for you as custodian where either:

- the Third Party Security Interest arises to facilitate the clearing or settlement of transactions that refer only to you or our other clients; or
- we are reasonably satisfied that the creation of such Third Party Security Interest is required by the applicable law of a jurisdiction which is not a member state of the EEA in which such investment are held.

69.3 Where Third Party Security Interests are created there is the risk that where we (or any other person whose obligations are secured by, or set-off against pursuant to, such Third Party Security Interests) default on our obligations towards the relevant third party, or in other circumstances, including, without limitation, where the third party anticipates that such obligor may default on its obligations (including, for example, due to the onset or potential onset of insolvency proceedings), then such third party may enforce its rights over (or set-off its obligations against) your investment and, as a consequence, you may lose and not be able to recover such investment from us or from the third party, regardless of whether you are in actual or potential default of your obligations to us or any other person.

69.4 You agree that a Third Party Security Interest may be created (or may already have been created) and that a person, entity or undertaking other than us may therefore have a security interest, lien or (if applicable) right of set-off over your investment where allowed under applicable law.

SECTION 4: CREDIT AND TRADING FACILITY TERMS

PART A: CREDIT FACILITIES AND TRADING FACILITIES

70 General

70.1 If we agree to make a credit facility or trading facility available to you incorporating these credit terms, we will enter into a facility agreement with you. The facility agreement and these credit terms shall constitute the relevant product terms and together with the other provisions of these booking centre terms and conditions shall constitute an agreement between us regarding the provision of credit facilities or trading facilities. Where credit facilities are made available as a temporary arranged overdraft, these credit terms will also apply, irrespective of whether the arrangement is documented in a facility agreement.

70.2 Credit facilities may be available to you by way of:

- Arranged overdrafts; and
- Loans, which are advances for a fixed period of time.

70.3 Credit facilities and trading facilities are uncommitted and are available to you at our absolute discretion. This means that we may review the credit facilities and/or trading facilities at any time and may terminate or (subject to these credit terms) amend the terms of any credit facility and/or trading facility at our absolute discretion. We do not have to make nor continue to make any credit facility, trading facility or any part of any credit facility or trading facility or any utilisation of any credit facility available to you. We are not obliged to give you notice of such termination or amendment at any time.

71 Facility Amount

71.1 The total aggregate amount you can utilise under any credit facility is limited to the facility amount stated in the relevant facility agreement. We may increase or decrease the facility amount at any time at our absolute discretion.

72 Purpose

72.1 Credit facilities and/or trading facilities may only be used for lawful and legitimate purposes.

72.2 We do not have to enquire or monitor and we are not responsible for your use of credit facilities. You agree to provide us with such information as we may request from time to time concerning the purpose or use of the credit facilities.

73 Interest, fees and costs

73.1 You must pay the interest, fees and costs applying to the credit facilities or trading facilities. These will be at the rates or in the amounts specified in the facility agreement or our prevailing fee schedule, or informed to you from time to time. We may change the rates and/or amounts at any time at our absolute discretion.

73.2 Interest rates will be based on or will reference the applicable interest basis specified in the facility agreement. You must in addition pay the loan margin or overdraft margin, any mandatory costs, and fees.

73.3 Interest, accruing under any facility documentation will accrue from day to day and be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed and a year of 360 or 365 days (according to usual market practice for the currency and market in question) and compounded on each date on which interest is charged.

73.4 Commission, fees and other costs are payable in accordance with the facility agreement.

73.5 If we are for any reason unable to determine any rate referred to under clause 73.2 the interest rate will be the aggregate of variable lending rate the credit margin and mandatory costs (if any).

73.6 You will not be entitled to any refund of any fees or costs should a credit facility or trading facility be terminated, cancelled or prepaid prior to the facility expiry date.

74 Arranged overdrafts

74.1 Arranged overdrafts are repayable on demand. This means that if we make a demand, you must immediately repay all overdrafts in full, together with all unpaid interest, fees and costs on such overdrafts.

74.2 Interest on arranged overdrafts shall be debited on the last day of each calendar month or at such intervals as we may from time to time agree and also on the facility expiry date. If the last day is not a banking day, interest will be debited on the next banking day.

74.3 Interest on any arranged overdraft shall be calculated on the amount standing to the debit of your account(s) with us being the cleared daily overdrawn balance on each relevant account.

75 Loans

75.1 Loans shall be in amounts and for periods acceptable to us. Subject always to our right to demand repayment at any time as mentioned in clause 70.3, each loan shall be repaid on the last day of the loan period, being its maturity date. If such day is not a banking day, the maturity date shall be the next banking day, unless that day falls in the next calendar month or beyond the facility expiry date, in which case the maturity date shall be the preceding banking day.

75.2 Interest on a loan shall be paid on its maturity date or, if the loan period is longer than 6 months, at a maximum of 6 month intervals (and also on the maturity date), or as we may otherwise agree from time to time. If interest is due on a day that is not a banking day, interest shall be paid on the next banking day, unless that day falls in the next calendar month, in which case it shall be paid on the preceding banking day.

75.3 If for any reason a loan is prepaid (i.e. full or partial repayment of a loan before its maturity date) either at your request or in accordance with the terms of any facility documentation, you may be required to pay additional costs (including an administrative fee) incurred, whether directly or indirectly, in connection with such prepayment. We may require you to give us a period of prior notice in writing of your intention to prepay a loan, and you may be required to pay interest or additional costs in lieu of such notice.

77.1 Credit facilities may be utilised in the base currency or in any alternative currency.

77.2 If you utilise a credit facility in an alternative currency, and that alternative currency subsequently appreciates in value against the base currency such that your total outstandings when converted into the base currency exceed any facility amount, we may ask you to repay the credit facility in such amount as to reduce the total outstandings (in base currency) to less than the facility amount. Alternatively, we may increase the facility amount and you agree to such increase.

77.3 Utilisations in any currency are subject to applicable legal and regulatory restrictions relating to that currency.

77.4 For the purposes of calculating or assessing the amount of credit facilities available for utilisation, the total outstandings, any lending value, or for any other purpose, we may make notional conversions between the base currency, the alternative currency and any other currency at our discretion, at any rate and at any time we reasonably consider to be appropriate.

78 Conditions precedent

78.1 A utilisation request must be made in such form and manner, and must be received by us at such time prior to the utilisation date, as we require. All utilisations are subject to our prior approval.

78.2 The availability of credit facilities or trading facilities is subject to us having received to our satisfaction:

- If we require, an application for credit facilities or trading facilities, duly completed;
- A duplicate copy of the facility agreement, duly signed;
- All duly signed or executed collateral documents or guarantees we require;
- Payment of our fees and charges;
- Such information as we may require on your affairs and financial condition, or that of any other collateral provider;
- Where you are a corporate entity such copy corporate resolutions and authorities, certified as true copies by one of your directors or secretary, as we may require;
- Where applicable a High Net Worth statement under the Consumer Credit Act 1974;

- Any other authorisation, document, information, legal opinion or other assurance we may consider necessary or desirable in connection with the entry into and performance of the transactions envisaged by the facility documentation, or for the validity or enforceability of the same.
- Any additional items as detailed in the facility agreement.

78.3 In addition, you may only utilise a credit facility or trading facility if:

- All terms of the facility documentation have been satisfied;
- All representations, warranties and undertakings in the facility documentation are complied with and correct as at the date of each utilisation;

- No default is outstanding or in our opinion is likely to occur; and
- We are satisfied we hold sufficient collateral. You should refer to clause 79.

79 Collateral

79.1 Without prejudice to Section 1Part F (Collateral) of these booking centre terms and conditions, you will ensure that we hold sufficient collateral. This means that:

- You must at all times ensure that the collateral we hold is at least the amount we require. For a credit facility, this means that the total lending value of the collateral we hold (excluding any collateral we have earmarked for collateralised margin products) needs to be equal to or more than your total outstandings. For a collateralised margin product, this means that you agree to us earmarking (or setting aside or transferring to us) sufficient collateral in respect of such product, where the total lending value of the earmarked collateral needs to be equal to or more than the amount we require for that collateralised margin product (i.e. you must always maintain the required margin of collateral).
- Collateral we earmark for a collateralised margin product does not count towards the calculation of the total lending value of the collateral we hold for your credit facilities, and vice versa, unless we agree otherwise.
- You may only utilise a credit facility up to (i) the total lending value of the collateral we hold (excluding any earmarked collateral for a collateralised margin product), or (ii) the facility amount, whichever is lower.
- Collateral must be in the form of cash or other assets acceptable to us or, in certain cases, specified by us.

If at any time the collateral we hold is less than the amount we require, we may at our discretion at any time thereafter (and notwithstanding any delay on our part in doing so or any intervening fluctuation in the total lending value of the collateral or the facility amount):

- demand (in writing or orally and confirmed in writing) that you promptly furnish us with additional collateral acceptable to us together with such collateral documents as we may require, and/or repay all or part of the credit facilities, such that the total lending value of the collateral we hold is equal to or more than your total outstandings. You must comply with our demand within the time period we give you in the demand; and/or
- in the case of a collateralised margin product, we may demand (in writing or orally) that you promptly furnish us with additional collateral acceptable to us and/or terminate all or some of the derivative contracts, such that the total lending value of the collateral we hold is at least the amount we require (to maintain the margin of collateral) and/or the amount of the mark-to-market loss on an outstanding derivative contract, as the case may be. You must comply with our demand within the time period we give you in the demand; and/or
- declare that any credit facility or trading facility shall immediately terminate; and/or
- immediately enforce all or any of our rights under the facility documentation and/or terminate outstanding derivative contracts. We may do so unilaterally. This means that we do not have to give you notice (either in advance or at the time) or make a demand on you. We may also exercise this right even if we have given you a time period within which to furnish us with additional collateral and/ or repay the credit facility and/or terminate outstanding derivative contracts, and that time period has yet to expire. We will notify you promptly after we have exercised any such right.

In addition, if you fail to comply with any demand by us to provide additional collateral and/or to repay the credit facilities and/or terminate outstanding derivative contracts as mentioned above, we may also, without prior notice or demand on you, enforce all or any of the rights to the extent we consider necessary to put us in the position we would have been in had you complied with our demand.

Any breach of this clause 79.1 shall constitute a default for the purposes of any collateral document in addition to those listed in clause 21.2 and whether or not we shall terminate any credit facility or trading facility.

We do the above acts without prejudice to any of our other rights under the facility documentation. For the avoidance of doubt, we do not have to terminate a credit facility or trading facility in order to enforce all or any of our rights under the relevant facility documentation, or to terminate outstanding derivative contracts. If we choose not to terminate a credit facility or trading facility, we may at our discretion enforce our rights under the relevant facility documentation or terminate outstanding derivative contracts until the total lending value of the remaining collateral is equal to your total outstandings.

79.2 Notwithstanding any other term in the facility documentation whether express or implied, in writing or otherwise, we may determine or at any time review or change the approved LTV and/or the lending value of any item of collateral, at our absolute discretion.

79.3 In doing so, we may, acting reasonably and in good faith:

- in determining the market value of any item of collateral, treat all items of collateral representing rights against the same company or group of companies as collateral of the same company; or
- attribute lower or no lending value to any item of collateral (or reduce or set to zero the approved LTV of such item of collateral) at our sole discretion, if:
- it forms a significant proportion of the collateral you furnish us, and we determine it to be in excess of an amount we can accept;
- we already hold a significant amount of such item as collateral for our other customers;
- you already directly or indirectly control significant voting rights in connection with such item of collateral;
- we consider such item of collateral illiquid;
- we consider such item of collateral volatile;
- we consider the enforcement risk in respect of the value of such item of collateral has become or will become higher;
- we consider market conditions to warrant such a determination; or
- for any other reason.

79.4 For the avoidance of doubt, even if we do not attribute any lending value to an item of collateral, such item continues to be collateral held by us on the terms of the collateral documents.

80 Undertakings

80.1 You undertake:

- Not to create, or permit to subsist, any security interest (i.e. any mortgage, charge, pledge, lien or other security interest) over the collateral or part of the collateral other than in our favour;
- That your liabilities and obligations under each facility agreement and collateral document shall not at any time rank after or lower in priority to any of your other liabilities and obligations to other lending institutions or your other creditors;
- To take all steps to comply with all formalities required by or desirable under law to perfect the security interests created by the collateral documents;
- At our request, to provide us with any authorisation, document, information (including information on your affairs and financial condition, or that of any collateral provider or guarantor), legal opinion or other assurance we may consider necessary or desirable in connection with the entry into and performance of the transactions envisaged by the facility documentation, or for the validity or enforceability of the same;
- You shall acquire valid insurances for all properties through an insurance company as approved or arranged by us in order to cover our and your respective rights and interests throughout the tenure of the credit facility. The insurance policy shall cover against risks of fire and extraneous perils and such other risk(s) as we may reasonably require and determine fit. The insurance policy shall provide our interest as loss-payee and/or mortgagee and shall have the non-cancellation and mortgagee clauses endorsed thereon.

All premiums unless otherwise stated or agreed by us shall be payable by you and shall be debited from your account. All renewal certificates and all premium receipts shall be deposited with us;

- To procure the payment of rents in respect of all properties direct to your account;
- To ensure that at all times, we hold sufficient collateral. You should also see clause 79;
- To immediately notify us of any material change in any information provided to us; and
- To immediately notify us whenever anything happens which is or could result in a default.

81 Payments

- 81.1 You must promptly pay to us all amounts due to us and all amounts we demand from you.
- 81.2 Payments must reach us on or before the due date (or immediately, on demand) to such account as we may from time to time notify to you. Should any amount fall due on a day that is not a banking day, it shall be paid on the next banking day, unless that day falls in the next calendar month, in which case it shall be paid on the preceding banking day. If any interest is payable on the amount due, interest shall be computed up till the time payment is actually received by us. You should also see clause 81.6.
- 81.3 We may debit any amount due to us, including any interest payment, from any account you hold with us, including if this would place your account in unarranged overdraft.
- 81.4 All payments made under the facility documentation shall be made in full without any set-off or withholding for taxes or other deductions. If you are compelled by law to make a payment subject to any set-off, withholding or deduction, then you shall account for the same as and when required by law, and you shall pay to us all necessary additional amounts to ensure that we receive and retain (free from any liability) the full amount that we would have received had the payment not been subject to the set-off, deduction or withholding. You shall promptly provide to us certificates of deduction or such tax receipts or other documents as we may require.
- 81.5 If any law, regulation or directive, enacted or issued by any governmental or other authority causes the cost to us of funding any credit facility to increase, you will pay to us on demand the amount of such increased costs.
- 81.6 If you fail to pay any amount due to us under the facility documentation, we shall be entitled to charge you interest on such amount from the due date to the date of actual payment (whether before or after any demand or judgment), at the default rate. Interest on such sums will be compounded on a monthly basis.
- 81.7 All payments made to us shall be made in the currency of the outstanding amount, or relevant cost or expense incurred. We may ask that you make payment in another currency we consider appropriate.
- 81.8 If any payment is made to us in a currency other than the currency in which such payment obligation is due, whether pursuant to our request, or a judgement or order being made against you or in connection with your bankruptcy, liquidation, désastre, administration or otherwise, we may convert the payment received into the currency in which such payment obligation is due in accordance with our usual practice, and you shall indemnify us fully against any shortfall between that converted amount and the payment obligation in the contract currency.
- 81.9 If the amount we receive from you is less than the amount due to us, we may apply the amount we receive towards the payment of interests, fees, costs or principal in any order or proportion we choose.
- 81.10 In any litigation or arbitration proceedings arising out of or in connection with the facility documentation, the entries made in the accounts maintained by us are prima facie evidence of the matters to which they relate.
- 81.11 Any certification or determination by us of a rate or amount under any facility documentation is, in the absence of manifest error, conclusive evidence of the matters to which it relates.

82 Termination and enforcement

- 82.1 We may terminate any credit facility or trading facility and demand repayment of the total outstandings at any time. Without prejudice to that right, any credit facility or trading facility may also be terminated by us in accordance with clause 21 of these booking centre terms and conditions or if any event listed in clause 21 of these booking centre terms and conditions occurs in relation to any collateral provider, or any guarantor. Any termination shall be without prejudice to any of our other rights under or in respect of the facility documentation or the collateral.
- 82.2 In addition to our rights under clause 21 of these booking centre terms and conditions and your obligations to repay the credit facilities, if for any reason, any credit facility is terminated:
- You shall procure the discharge or release of all liabilities we incur on your behalf that are contingent or have yet to mature; and
 - We may enforce all or any of our rights under the facility documentation.
- 82.3 To the extent allowed by law, we may apply the proceeds from the enforcement of our security interest in collateral, or of the collateral documents or any guarantee, towards payment of interests, fees, costs or principal in any order or proportion we choose.
- 82.4 You may terminate all or any part of a credit facility or trading facility by giving written notice to us, and you shall bear all costs and fees that may arise (directly or indirectly) as a consequence of such termination. Termination will not affect the customer's liabilities in respect of any outstanding credit facilities.

83 Miscellaneous

- 83.1 The collateral, collateral documents and any guarantee apply to all transactions under the facility agreement and the credit terms. We may hold all collateral, collateral documents and guarantees in our possession and not discharge or release them until we are satisfied that the total outstandings have been unconditionally and irrevocably repaid, all liabilities we incur on your behalf have been discharged or released, and no further liabilities are capable of becoming outstanding.
- 83.2 Our calculation of the amount of collateral, market value, lending value, and total outstandings shall be made in such manner and at such times as we in our absolute discretion determine and shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on you.
- 83.3 You will reimburse us (regardless of whether any credit facility or trading facility becomes available) for all reasonable costs and expenses, including registration fees, legal fees, valuation fees, bank charges, custody fees, stamp duty and other duties and taxes, incurred by us in the negotiation, preparation, execution, perfection and performance, of the facility documentation and in relation to the collateral, and for all costs and expenses incurred by us in the preservation and enforcement of the facility documentation or the collateral.
- 83.4 We may in our discretion meet any such costs and expenses by debiting your account and shall be reimbursed by you in accordance with the preceding sentence.
- 83.5 We reserve the right to assign, transfer or sub-participate all or any of our rights or obligations under the facility documentation to any other financial institution (including any of our affiliates). For this purpose, we may disclose to a potential assignee, transferee or sub-participant such information about you, a collateral provider, a guarantor and the facility documentation as we may consider appropriate.
- 83.6 You may not assign or transfer any of your rights or obligations under the facility documentation.
- 83.7 No failure or delay by us in exercising any right or remedy we may have pursuant to the facility documentation shall operate as a full or partial waiver of such right or remedy, nor shall a single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise or the exercise of any other right or remedy. Our rights and remedies in the facility documentation are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law or under any other agreement.
- 83.8 If, at any time, any provision of the facility documentation is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under any law of any jurisdiction, neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions nor the legality, validity or enforceability of such provision under the law of any other jurisdiction will in any way be affected or impaired.
- 83.9 Time is of the essence under the facility agreement and these credit terms. It is fundamental that you perform your obligations on time. Otherwise, we may exercise our rights without the need to give further notice to you.
- 83.10 You certify that all information and particulars given to us in relation to the credit facilities and/or trading facilities is true and accurate and that we are authorised to conduct all necessary due diligence for the purposes of anti-money laundering controls and credit evaluation, and you agree to submit such further information, details and documentation as we may require for such purposes.
- 83.11 A person who is not a party to it may not enforce the terms of any of the facility documentation.
- 83.12 The facility agreement and these credit terms do not exclude terms and conditions implied by laws, regulations, rules, orders, notices, directions, requests or guidelines issued by a governmental, regulatory or quasi-governmental authority, court or tribunal having jurisdiction over us, but if there is an inconsistency the facility agreement and these credit terms shall prevail where they may lawfully do so.

84 Amendments

- 84.1 Additional terms applicable to the credit facilities and/or trading facilities are set out in the facility agreement and any amendment or supplement from time to time.
- 84.2 Subject to clause 70.3 we may, acting reasonably and in good faith, amend these credit terms from time to time by giving you notice in writing.

SECTION 5: MEANING OF WORDS

85 Meaning of words

The following words used in these booking centre terms and conditions have the meaning set out below. You also need to refer to the product terms (including any facility agreement) which also define key words specifically applicable to the product. If a word defined in these booking centre terms and conditions is also defined in any product terms, the definition in the product terms applies for the purposes of the applicable product.

account means the private banking account opened and maintained by the booking centre for you and includes any sub-account opened and maintained in respect of a product.

account holder means the person(s) named as the "Account Holder" in the account opening application for the account, and if there is more than one, it means each person separately as well as every two or more persons jointly.

account opening application means any form of authority or request under which an account with us is opened or maintained for you.

APPENDIX

Risk Warnings

1 Introduction

- 1.1 We describe below important information relating to the risks and special features attached to certain types of investments and transactions. This description does not purport to exhaustively disclose or explain all investment risks and other significant aspects of individual investment products and services. Other product documentation produced or distributed by us may also describe the features of and risks associated with particular investment products and services.
- 1.2 You should not deal in investment products or services unless you understand their nature and your exposure to risk. You should consider carefully whether or not any product or service is suitable for you in light of your circumstances and financial position.
- 1.3 Please note that in providing execution-only services to you in relation to non-complex instruments (e.g. shares and bonds traded on regulated markets, units in regulated collective investment schemes), we are not required to assess the suitability of the instrument or the service provided or offered to you. In such circumstances, we will not assess whether:
- the relevant product or service meets your investment objectives;
 - you would be able financially to bear the risk of any loss that the product or service may cause; or
 - you have the necessary knowledge and experience to understand the risks involved.

2 Funds (also known as collective investment schemes or mutual funds)

- 2.1 A fund is an investment vehicle into which investors can make an investment by purchasing, or subscribing for, a unit, share or interest in the fund. The fund is usually managed by a third party manager which invests the fund's assets. The units, shares or other interests held by an investor represent the investor's interest in the fund.
- 2.2 Funds may take a wide variety of forms, including hedge funds, private equity funds, mutual funds and unit trusts. A fund may be structured as a partnership (normally a limited partnership), an investment company, a unit trust or an investment trust. The units, shares or other interests may or may not be listed on an exchange.
- 2.3 Each fund carries with it specific risks, which will vary depending on the fund investment strategy, the nature of the underlying investments, leverage, foreign exchange positioning, the use of derivatives, industry sector or geographic exposure. These are only some of the factors which will affect the risks associated with a particular fund. The risks associated with a direct investment in the underlying assets are also relevant to determining the risks associated with an investment in the fund itself.
- 2.4 You may experience an increase or decrease of your returns as a result of currency fluctuations where the product's reference currency is any other than your home or base currency. You should always remember that the value of your investments in funds will fluctuate and you may get back less than you invested. Redemption and withdrawals (i) may only be possible during certain periods and notice periods may apply and (ii) these restrictions on redemption and withdrawals may be in place for a number of years. Fees may also be payable on the redemption of fund units. In addition, it may be difficult to determine the net asset value of a fund which has invested in illiquid underlying assets and therefore it may be difficult to accurately value the units in a fund.
- 2.5 Some funds may be regarded as being hedge funds or otherwise focused on alternative strategies. Many hedge funds take on high levels of risk and may require high levels of minimum investment, whilst only limited subscription or redemption opportunities may be available, often following lengthy notice periods. Portfolio managers may receive performance-linked bonuses and may have a personal stake in the fund and the management vehicle.
- 2.6 Prospectuses, investment memoranda and other fund offering documentation for funds available through us can be obtained from your Private Banker. These documents will describe the risks and key features associated with each fund.

3 Securities

- 3.1 Shares (equity securities) represent the interest of shareholders in the capital of a company. Shares may be registered or issued in bearer form. They may also be listed on a stock exchange or they could be unlisted. Shares can be issued in different classes, including ordinary (common) shares or preference (preferred) shares.
- 3.2 Shares may be subject to general movements in the stock market in addition to any changes due specifically to the company or its activities. Share prices fluctuate for several reasons, including changes in the financial condition of a particular issuer, investors' perceptions of the issuer's industry, the general condition of the relevant stock market, changes in interest rates, or when political or economic events occur. The dividend payable per share mainly depends on the issuer's activities, earnings and dividend policy. If the company makes a loss or even a small profit, dividend payments may be reduced or no payments may be made at all. In the event of the insolvency of the issuer, holders of equity securities are likely to rank behind all other creditors of the issuer and you may not recover all or any of your investment.

- 3.3 Bonds (fixed income securities) are debt instruments issued by a company or a government body to creditors. The holder or owner of a bond has a debt claim, as opposed to an ownership stake (e.g. in the case of shares) in the issuer. The par value of bonds at issuance represents a fraction of the total debt issued. The duration of the bonds as well as other terms and conditions are generally determined in advance. Bonds are generally repaid at their maturity date or by means of annual payments. Interest payments on bonds may be fixed for the entire duration of the bond or they could be variable, often linked to well-known reference rates (e.g. LIBOR the rate at which banks lend money to each other).
- 3.4 Bonds may be particularly sensitive to movements in interest rates and interest rate trends.
- 3.5 An increase in medium to long term interest rates is likely to reduce the value of an investment bond. The issuer may be able to redeem a bond early. Early redemption may result in a change to the expected yield. Investing in bonds carries the risk of the issuer becoming insolvent.
- 3.6 The deterioration of the issuer's solvency will influence the price of its securities. In the event of the insolvency of the issuer, you may not recover all or any of your investment.
- 3.7 Additional risks specific to certain types of bonds may also arise, for example, on floating rate notes, reverse floating rate notes, zero coupon bonds, convertible bonds, foreign currency bonds, subordinated bonds and indexed bonds. For these and all other types of more specialised bonds, you should pay special attention to the risks described in the relevant issuance prospectus and documentation.

4 Warrants

- 4.1 A warrant is a time-limited right to subscribe for shares, debentures, and loan stock or government securities and is exercisable against the original issuer of the underlying securities.
- 4.2 A relatively small movement in the price of the underlying security results in a disproportionately large movement, unfavourable or favourable, in the price of the warrant. The prices of warrants can therefore be volatile.
- 4.3 It is essential for anyone who is considering purchasing warrants to understand that the right to subscribe which a warrant confers is invariably limited in time. Consequently if the investor fails to exercise this right within the predetermined time-scale then the investment becomes worthless.
- 4.4 You should not buy a warrant unless you are prepared for the likelihood of sustaining total loss of the money you have invested plus any commission or other transaction charges.
- 4.5 Some other instruments are also called warrants but are actually options (for example, a right to acquire securities which is exercisable against someone other than the original issuer of the securities, sometimes called a "covered warrant").

Off-exchange warrant transactions

- 4.6 Transactions in off-exchange warrants may involve greater risk than dealing in exchange-traded warrants because there is no exchange market through which to liquidate your position, or to assess the value of the warrant or the exposure to risk. Bid and offer prices need not be quoted, and even where they are, they will be established by dealers in these instruments and consequently it may be difficult to establish what is a fair price.

5 Collateral

- 5.1 If you deposit collateral as security with us, the way in which it will be treated will vary according to the type of transaction and where it is traded. There could be significant differences in the treatment of your collateral depending on whether you are trading on a recognised or designated investment exchange, with the rules of that exchange (and the associated clearing house) applying, or trading off-exchange. Deposited collateral may cease to be identifiable as your property once dealings on your behalf are undertaken. Even if your dealings should ultimately prove profitable, you may not get back the same assets which you deposited, and may have to accept payment in cash. You should ascertain from us how your collateral will be dealt with.

6 Commission

- 6.1 Before you begin to trade, you should obtain details of all commission and other charges for which you will be liable. If any charges are not expressed in money terms (but, for example, as a percentage of contract value), you should obtain a clear and written explanation, including appropriate examples, to establish what such charges are likely to mean in specific money terms. In the case of futures, when commission is charged as a percentage, it will normally be as a percentage of the total contract value, and not simply as a percentage of your initial payment.

7 Liquidation of positions and suspensions of trading

7.1 Under certain trading conditions it may be difficult or impossible to liquidate a position. This may occur, for example, at times of rapid price movement if the price rises or falls in one trading session to such an extent that under the rules of the relevant exchange trading is suspended or restricted. Placing a stop-loss order will not necessarily limit your losses to the intended amounts, because market conditions may make it impossible to execute such an order at the stipulated price.

8 Clearing house protections

On many exchanges, the performance of a transaction is “guaranteed” by the exchange or clearing house. However, this guarantee is unlikely in most circumstances to cover you and may not protect you if we or another party default on its obligations to you. There is no clearing house for traditional options or for off-exchange instruments which are not traded under the rules of a recognised or designated investment exchange.

9 Insolvency

9.1 Our insolvency or default, or that of any broker involved with your transaction, may lead to positions being liquidated or closed out without your consent. In certain circumstances, you may not get back the actual assets which you lodged as collateral and you may have to accept any available payments in cash.

10 Stabilisation

10.1 From time to time we may carry out transactions in securities on your behalf, where the price may have been influenced by measures taken to stabilise it. Stabilisation enables the market price of a security to be maintained artificially during the period when a new issue of securities is sold to the public. Stabilisation may affect not only the price of the new issue but also the price of other securities relating to it. Stabilisation helps counter the fact that, when a new issue comes onto the market for the first time, the price can sometimes drop for a time before buyers are found.

10.2 Stabilisation is carried out by a “stabilisation manager” (normally the firm chiefly responsible for bringing a new issue to market). As long as the stabilising manager follows a strict set of rules, he is entitled to buy back securities that were previously sold to investors or allotted to institutions which have decided not to keep them. The effect of this may be to keep the price at a higher level than it would otherwise be during the period of stabilisation.

10.3 The fact that a new issue or a related security is being stabilised should not be taken as any indication of the level of interest from investors, nor of the price at which they are prepared to buy the securities.

Risks associated with leveraging

11.1 Purchasing or entering into transactions in investments on margin can offer the potential of higher returns. However, it can also result in losses that are significantly higher than the initial margin placed by you. This is known as leverage risk.

11.2 Leverage risk results from putting down only a portion of the cash actually committed and borrowing the balance, thereby multiplying the effect of under performance of the underlying assets. Leveraging can lead to large losses as well as gains in response to a small market movement. While the amount of an initial margin deposit may be small in relation to the value of the transaction, a relatively small market movement would have a proportionately larger impact on the funds deposited with us as margin. This could work in your favour or against you.

Margin requirements

11.3 We will require you to maintain sufficient margin. If the market moves against you, you may sustain not only a total loss of your initial margin deposit and any additional funds deposited with us to maintain your position, but also additional losses.

11.4 If the market moves against you, or if we increase your required margin levels, you may be called upon to “top-up” your margin by substantial amounts at short notice in order to maintain your position. If you fail to do so or if, for any reason, you exceed your “cutout” limit, we may liquidate all or any of your positions at a loss, without prior notice to you, and you will then be liable for any losses.

11.5 If the amount in your account is still not adequate to meet your obligations to us, you would remain liable for the difference. 11.6 Accordingly, you should not commit to any transaction which is beyond your means.

12 Market risk

12.1 This is the risk that an investment will lose a significant portion of its market value or may default before maturity. For margin purposes, this may lead to a requirement to deposit additional collateral.

13 Early termination costs

13.1 This is the risk that any termination of an investment prior to maturity could result in your incurring an “early termination cost”. For example, if the bond you purchased on margin is called or if you decide to unwind the transaction by selling the bond prior to maturity and paying the loan, you could incur a cost associated with the pre-payment of the loan.

14 Cross currency risk

14.1 This is the risk that the value of an investment will be unfavourably affected by movements in the exchange rates between the currencies involved in the transaction (e.g., where the purchased asset is matched by a liability denominated in another currency). Fluctuations in foreign currency rates will have an impact on the profit or loss associated with any investment which is denominated in a different currency from the currency in which the purchase price or the margin loan was denominated or the currency in which you keep your accounts. We will take cross-currency risk into account in valuing assets for margin purposes. The amount of cross-currency margin required depends on the exact currency risk taken.

15 Market conditions

15.1 Certain investments purchased on margin may be extremely volatile. Under certain market conditions, it may be difficult or impossible to liquidate a position. In all cases, your losses will not be limited to your margin deposit and may be a substantial amount in addition to your margin deposit.

16 Foreign markets

16.1 Foreign markets will involve different risks from those associated with Jersey markets. In some cases the risks will be greater. The potential for profit or loss from transactions on foreign markets or in foreign denominated contracts will be affected by fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

17 Investments in emerging markets

17.1 You should also note the risk in trading in investments in emerging market countries is typically greater than the risk in trading in other established markets. It is generally accepted that the emerging markets consist of all countries except Australia, Austria, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Japan, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom and the United States of America.

17.2 Some of the reasons for the greater risk are outlined below:

Political risk: Although a number of emerging market countries have governments that are democratically elected, many of these democracies are quite recent. Many emerging market countries' democracies are relatively fragile and could succumb to a variety of political, economic, social or military pressures. Political instability or turmoil can have a series of negative economic consequences for an emerging market country and its currency, including the cut-off of important foreign aid and trade.

Economic factors: There has been, and it is likely that there will continue to be significantly more volatility in the economies of emerging market countries than in the economies of industrialised nations. This includes the presence of low or negative rates of economic growth and high rates of interest, unemployment and inflation.

Market risk: Financial markets in emerging markets may lack adequate structure or monitoring. The inadequacy or absence of regulatory measures gives rise to an increased danger of market abuse or insider trading. Likewise, problems may be experienced in the clearing or settlement process.

Exchange rate risk: There is a tendency for the more dramatic exchange rate fluctuations to occur in the currencies of emerging market countries. This could result in a higher return on a trade than if you had entered into a trade in an investment in an established market but conversely, there is greater risk. In times of high volatility of a particular currency or currencies, there is an enhanced risk of lack of liquidity in the market. In some cases, this could result in us not being able to fulfil a buy or sell order. Historically, frequent devaluations of foreign currencies from emerging market countries, relative to the US dollar have been common and are likely to continue.

Legal risk: The absence or inadequacy of monitoring or regulation can lead to investors' rights being difficult to enforce. Legal uncertainty or a bias in favour of local parties may affect an investor's ability to enforce legal rights in that market.

18 Investment and foreign exchange cross-currency risks (credit facility)

- 18.1 You should note that in view of the volatility in exchange markets, there are potential risks involved with cross-currency borrowing.
- 18.2 Due to the nature in which a credit facility is structured there may be an obligation to make interest and principal payments to us in one currency while income is being earned and/or collateral is denominated in a different currency (or currencies). If the currency in which payments to us need to be made strengthens and/or the currency in which income is received and/or collateral is denominated weakens, there will be a need to utilise a relatively greater proportion of your and/or, where applicable, a collateral provider's income to service the obligation or assets to provide the collateral. This could lead to a significant increase in the effective "cost" of the credit facility and could require considerable re-arrangement of your and/or, where applicable, collateral provider's financial affairs to accommodate the increased interest and principal repayments and/or collateral requirements.
- 18.3 You should understand that the value of any investments made by you and/or the value of any collateral provided by you and/or, where applicable, the collateral provider may fall and the amount of debt or liabilities owed to us could rise. That may result in you and/or, where applicable, the collateral provider having to provide additional collateral or immediately make payments to us to reduce the debt or liabilities owed to us as described in the credit terms and the collateral documents. Also the value of any investments made when realised may be insufficient to pay all the debts and/or liabilities owed by you and/or, where applicable, the collateral provider to us during or on termination of the credit facilities. If some or all of the credit facilities are used to make investments (gearing) the risks to you and/or, where applicable, the collateral provider increase significantly.
- 18.4 We recommend that if you and/or, where applicable, the collateral provider has any concern about the structure of the credit facilities that you and/or the collateral provider seek external independent professional advice.
- 18.5 If you and/or, where applicable, the collateral provider do not wish to seek independent professional advice and you and/or the collateral provider are individuals, we will require confirmation in writing that you and/or, where applicable, the collateral provider, understand fully the risks involved with cross-currency credit facilities and gearing, and have chosen not to seek independent professional advice.
