

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS – PROPOSAL SUBMISSION

Join FinCrime Summit speakers!

We are looking for individuals willing to share their knowledge and experience from fighting financial crime area on our virtual stage on October 20th, 2021. If there's a topic you are an expert in and that you would like to present on during the event, submit your proposal by completing the below form and emailing it to: gbs.poland@sc.com

We're waiting for your submissions by October 4th, 2021, by midnight Central European Summer Time (CEST).

Please note that FinCrime Summit will be held in English, therefore you should be able to deliver your proposed presentation in English. While thinking about the topic you would like to present, please consider the audience. We are expecting to welcome participants who are:

- employed in various organizations (mainly financial institutions, consulting companies and law firms; often multinational);
- focused on a variety of disciplines from fighting financial crime area (eg. transaction monitoring, investigations, sanctions, anti-bribery and corruption, antifraud, anti-market abuse, control room, etc.);
- at various stages of their career development (from junior specialists to management team members).

All submissions will be analysed by FinCrime Summit Program Council who will select the ones to be presented during the event and notify the authors of successful submissions accordingly. Authors of all other proposals will be notified about the outcome as well, via the mailbox used to submit their proposals. Feedback from the FinCrime Summit Program Council is to be expected on October 8th, 2021, in the second half of the day.
