Standard Chartered opens new Digital Hub in Westlands, Accra.

Accra – 5th February 2020 - Standard Chartered has announced the opening of a new 24 hour Self Service Digital Hub in Westlands, Accra.

Yvonne Gyebi, Acting Head Retail Bank, Standard Chartered Bank Ghana Limited said, “Banking is now a lifestyle and clients expect total convenience, security as well as responsiveness. The Digital Hub will provide an opportunity for our clients in their communities to perform seamless banking and access information on banking and financial trends”

The Digital Hub is a fully self-service digital offering, equipped with state-of-the-art digital banking devices including intelligent Automated Teller Machines (ATM) for cash withdrawals and Cash Deposit Machines (CDM) for cash deposits, Card-less services, Credit Card payments as well as internet enabled banking terminals to cater for in-branch services like bill payment, investments and funds transfer. Additionally, the digital hub has installed phone services for clients to engage directly with the Client Care Centre.

In 2019, Standard Chartered launched a full digital bank on mobile – SC Mobile App. With a range of up to 70 in branch service requests. The App is mobile money enabled and has other features such as funds transfer (local and International), bill payments and many more. You can download the SC Mobile App via Google Playstore or AppStore.
