Standard Chartered Trophy 2016 Ghana Tournament

16 March 2016, Accra – Standard Chartered Bank Ghana on Saturday 12th March 2016 held the football tournament dubbed Standard Chartered Trophy 2016, at the Lizzy Sports Complex, East Legon.

The Standard Chartered Road to Anfield Tournament is an international 5-a-side football tournament that provides local markets with a platform to actively engage its clients, staff and stakeholders. It is linked to the Bank's Liverpool FC sponsorship. Winners of competitions in the various markets receive an all expenses paid trip to Anfield, the Home of Liverpool FC to join other winners to play in a ten-team tournament to determine which team emerges as the best for a particular year.

Liverpool Football Club Legend, John Barnes was the special guest at this years tournament. As part of the programme he held a soccer clinic for children from the Mamprobi Cluster of Schools, Dzorwulu Special School, clients and staff of the bank, as well as offering some soccer tips to the participating teams.

A total of 24 teams, comprising teams of staff of the bank, clients and the media participated in the tournament. The Ghana National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC) beat Multimedia Company Limited 3-1 to be crowned the winners of the Standard Chartered Trophy Ghana 2016. GNPC will represent Ghana, joining 9 other teams at the SC Trophy Finals in Anfield, England in April.

Speaking after the finals, John Barnes, charged the team from GNPC to become the first African side to win the competition when they represent Ghana at Anfield. Kenya is the other African country that will be playing in the finals.

Standard Chartered has been the main sponsors of Liverpool Football Club in the English Premier League since 2010.
