This application is subject to the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credit of the International Chamber of Commerce as are in effect from time to time.

We hereby certify that, to our knowledge, all the data contents relating to the enclosed documents or underlying shipment or goods as described in the enclosed documents are complete, genuine and correct and we have also enclosed all the amendments of the DC, if any, to this application.

We acknowledge and agree that all notices and communications in connection with the enclosed documents or the DC are to be sent at our risk. If a notice is made by facsimile, the notice is deemed to be given to us when the transmission is confirmed by an activity report confirming the facsimile number to which such notice was successfully sent. Following the facsimile, the original facsimile message may be sent to us by post but the failure of us to receive such original facsimile message shall not affect the effectiveness of the notice duly given to us by facsimile.

We shall on demand indemnify you (on a full indemnity basis) against all claims, demands, payments, losses, costs, liabilities, charges, expenses and other consequences which may arise or result from the processing or handling of the enclosed documents in the absence of any gross negligence or wilful default of you.

Notwithstanding any other terms of this application, we acknowledge that you and your agents will not be liable to us for any action taken or omitted by you or your agents unless there is gross negligence or wilful default on your part. We authorize you to disclose information in connection with this application to such parties as you deem appropriate.

This application is governed by the laws of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.
