Innovation & Digitisation Event

Standard Chartered PLC (the Group) will at its office in London on 13 October 2021 host a physical and virtual seminar detailing its Innovation and Digitisation agenda.

Bill Winters, Chief Executive Officer, together with members of the management team will show how Innovation and Digitisation is transforming the Group's operating model and creating new business opportunities.

They will illustrate how across the Group's geographic footprint they are transforming existing core business processes, joining together with partners to grow scale and extend reach and building new business models.

The event will start at 9.00 am BST and in addition to the physical meeting in London there will be a live interactive webcast with members of the management team presenting and taking questions from Hong Kong, Singapore, Dubai and Frankfurt. The whole event will last around two and a half hours.

Details of the event as well as supporting material including slides and video content can be found on the Group's website here.
