

Dear Customer,

We would like to inform you that we are revising the terms and conditions on the Business Banking account opening form effective from 23/09/2016 with the addition of the terms for investment.

The additional terms and conditions are as follows:

- I/We acknowledge and agree that :
  - (i) the Investment Product Terms are available at sc.com/my, as updated from time to time (the "IPT");
  - (ii) the IPT shall apply to all transactions in relevant investment products (other than investment linked insurance products) that I/we enter into with or through the Bank;
  - (iii) the Bank open accounts including accounts in currencies other than Ringgit Malaysia and accounts hold investment products for such transactions; and
  - (iv) the IPT shall not apply to me/us if I/we do not enter into any investment products with or through the Bank.

Please visit any of the nearest branch should you require a copy of the revised account opening form. You may also visit the respective investment products information at <https://www.sc.com/my/invest/> for more details on the investment products terms.

Thank you for your continued support.
