Standard Chartered celebrates World Sight Day

Fundraising events kick-off globally as part of the Bank's commitment to raise US$100 million for Seeing is Believing by 2020

13 October 2011 - In celebration of World Sight Day, Standard Chartered will host fundraising events across its 70 markets this week as part of its commitment to raise US$100 million for Seeing is Believing – its partnership with leading eye-care NGOs to help eliminate avoidable blindness. The Bank will match every dollar raised. Standard Chartered Nigeria would hold its 7th consecutive Walk for Sight to raise funds for Seeing is Believing on November 19th, 2011.

Standard Chartered announced last month at the 2011 Clinton Global Initiative Annual Meeting that it will raise a further US$63 million to build sustainable eye-care services across Asia, Africa and the Middle East, almost trebling its fundraising for the prevention of blindness from 2003 to date. By 2020, the Bank will have raised US$100 million for Seeing is Believing globally.

Since 2003, Seeing is Believing has impacted 25 million people globally, helped fund 2.78 million sight-saving cataract operations and facilitated the distribution of medicine to treat Vitamin A deficiency and river blindness for 3.37 million people. This is a testament to the Bank's successful long-term partnership with the International Agency for the Prevention of Blindness. The next round of funding will enable NGOs the time to develop projects that will benefit communities for the long-term.

Through "Seeing is Believing", Standard Chartered Bank Nigeria holds an annual initiative, 'Walk for Sight', that has been hugely successful. In 2010, the bank raised in excess of USD100, 000, enough funds to restore sight to over 3,500 people with cataract-induced blindness. To date, SCB Nigeria has raised over USD610, 000 through Walk for Sight, which has been donated to Sight Savers International and Nigeria Society for the Blind respectively.
