Section 2: Accredited Investor Opt Out

We agree and acknowledge that:

1. For the purposes of our relationship with Standard Chartered Bank, Singapore Branch and/or Standard Chartered Bank (Singapore) Limited and (where relevant) other members of the Standard Chartered group (the "Bank"), we withdraw our consent to be treated as an accredited investor (as defined in section 4A(1)(a)(ii), (iii) or (iv) of the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore).
2. Our withdrawal of consent is in respect of (i) all accounts which we hold with the Bank (including deposit accounts and investment accounts); (ii) all transactions booked with or through the Bank; and (iii) the relevant services and products offered by or through the Bank to us.
3. By our withdrawal of consent, we will be treated by the Bank as a non-accredited investor client. This means that (i) we will no longer be able to be offered or provided certain services or products by the Bank; and (ii) we will not be able to request the Bank to execute certain transactions for us.
4. Our existing investments and/or transactions booked with or through the Bank (including existing contracts under which we are required to purchase additional investments or make additional payments upon the Bank's request at a future time) prior to our withdrawal of consent, will not be affected by our withdrawal of consent.
5. We agree to be contacted by the Bank from time to time by way of phone calls, written surveys, or face to face meetings to find out more about the standards of professionalism and conduct of the Bank's representatives in respect of our investment transactions. Such procedures are safeguards instituted by the Bank to ensure quality advice and appropriate recommendations are provided to us.
6. Our withdrawal of consent is subject to a processing period of 14 business days from the date of receipt to effect the instruction. The Bank will notify us once our investor status as a non-accredited investor client has been updated in the Bank's records. Until such time, we will still be treated as an accredited investor by the Bank. Any offerings or recommendations of investment products to us, and transactions entered into by us, during this processing period will continue to be exempted under the relevant consent provisions.
