Questions on Holdings in multiple locations

I have several accounts booked both in Singapore and other locations like Hong Kong and London. Will there be any impact to both my Singapore and offshore accounts?

Your accounts with Standard Chartered Bank, Singapore Branch will be transferred to Standard Chartered Bank (Singapore) Limited. Your accounts outside Singapore will not be migrated and will not be affected in any way.

Will my existing Private Banking portfolio and investment holdings held with Standard Chartered Bank be affected?

No, they will not be affected. There will be no change to any existing cash management products, wealth management product offerings and loan facilities upon the consolidation into SCBSL.
