

Chukwuka Cyril Ugha

Chukwuka Cyril Ugha has over 28 years banking experience in Africa. Up until his appointment as Managing Director / CEO of Standard Chartered Bank, The Gambia, he served as Managing Director / CEO of Standard Chartered Bank Cameroon SA. Prior to this, he was the Deputy Managing Director / Executive Director in charge of Corporate and Institutional Clients.

Chukwuka held various positions within the Bank such as Regional Head, Transactional Banking, Wholesale Bank, Nigeria and a member of the Global TB Leadership Team.

Before that he was General Manager, Unsecured Lending CB where he was responsible for setting up the value centre. As a member of the Consumer Bank Africa Leadership team, he also held the position of Regional Head of Sales, CB Africa working closely with Group CB Sales to ensure continued uniformity and standardization of the sales model across all Consumer Banking countries in Africa (covering Ghana, Nigeria, Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Botswana, Zambia and Zimbabwe) while based out of Lagos.

He holds a BSc in Finance & Banking from the University of Lagos and an MBA in Marketing from the University of Science and Technology, Rivers States both in Nigeria.

He is also an alumnus of Said Business School, Oxford University; INSEAD Business School, Singapore and Duke University where he received Leadership and Executive Management development.